GRAND MASTER'S MESSAGE

E. DARREN WILSON
Grand Master 2022-2023

My Brothers, this will be my last article for the Masonic Home Journal as your Grand Master. As I write this, final preparations are being made for the 224th Annual Session of The Grand Lodge of Kentucky F&AM. This year's Grand Session will return to the Galt House in Louisville on October 16th & 17th.

I am excited about seeing each of you at the Grand Lodge Assembly. In my judgement, our Annual Session is more than just a big lodge meeting, it is also like a reunion. The Annual Session affords us opportunities, often not available through the year, for fellowship with brothers from across our state, representatives of appendant organizations, and visitors from other Grand Jurisdictions.

During our session the Craft will have an opportunity to make decisions on several pieces of legislation held over from last year and new ones submitted this year. It is very important that our delegates are not only informed of their lodges' wishes in regard to legislation but also that they understand discussions occur during debate which may shed additional light on the matter. Delegates should remain open to reconsideration of their positions based upon new light and Lodges should trust their representatives with the freedom to make sound decisions based upon the best information available.

I pray that the programs I promoted this year made our lodges and brothers safer, our youth organizations stronger and our lodge Masters and Officers more prepared to perform their duties. If these programs were successful, it is my belief that they will help make our fraternity stronger, our brothers closer, and our future brighter.

I hope you have had as much fun this year as I did. We enjoyed some laughs together over several taco dinners and a few sombreros thrown in to add to the occasion. I had more birthdays this year than I probably should have but it was all in fun, and I appreciate that very much.

I want to express my heartfelt appreciation for the many kindnesses shown to Brenda and myself as we traveled across our Commonwealth, you made us feel welcome and at home, visitation was more like a homecoming than a visit. As we look forward to a new Masonic year, I am confident in the leadership skills and dedication of the great men that serve you in the Grand Lodge and I believe that they will continue to serve you and lead our craft in a positive way.

I want to thank each and every one of you for allowing me to serve. It has been an honor and a gift that I will cherish forever. I have many memories and friendships that I will enjoy for the rest of my life. I have said many times that, when I was elected, I had not been a collared officer before and that I came into the Grand Line wearing a White Apron and I will go out wearing one. My brothers, I pledge to stay active and to continue my service in helping our lodges, my fellow brothers, sisters and our youth organizations.

While I may no longer be serving as your Grand Master, please remember that we are all still, and will remain, Our Brother's Keeper. Always remember our Veterans, First-Responders, Active Military in your thoughts and prayers.

Fraternaly Thine,
E. Darren Wilson

FIRST AID KITS

Many of you had the opportunity to hear our Most Worshipful Grand Master E. Darren Wilson speak at the District Meetings about how the contents of a small first aid kit can make a significant difference to an individual in need. One of the most effective steps you can take to improve the Lodge's preparedness is to purchase or assemble a first aid kit.

First aid kits of various shapes and sizes can be purchased from retailers near you, such as a pharmacy. You can also make your own using the recommended contents list below for reference.

- 2 absorbent compress dressings (5 x 9 inches)
- 25 adhesive bandages (assorted sizes), also found within our Family First Aid Kit
- 1 adhesive cloth tape (10 yards x 1 inch)
- 5 antibiotic ointment packets (approximately 1 gram)
- 5 antiseptic wipe packets
- 2 packets of aspirin (81 mg each)
- 1 emergency blanket
- 1 breathing barrier (with one-way valve)
- 1 instant cold compress
- 2 pair of nonlatex gloves (size: large)
- 2 hydrocortisone ointment packets (approximately 1 gram each)
- 1 3 in. gauze roll (roller) bandage
- 1 roller bandage (4 inches wide)
- 5 3 in. x 3 in. sterile gauze pads
- 5 sterile gauze pads (4 x 4 inches)
- Oral thermometer (non-mercury/ non-glass)
- 2 triangular bandages
- Tweezers
- Emergency First Aid instructions

Try to include any items that may be useful for unique circumstances, such as an EpiPen if you are aware of someone with extreme allergies. Finally, don't forget to check the kit regularly for items to be replaced due to use or expiration.

Want to take your preparations to the next level? Visit www.ready.gov/kit for a robust list of items you should consider having at home, at work, and in your vehicle.

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

Brethren,

I would personally like to thank all the very dedicated Brethren who participated in the Unity Festival and Reunion. What a great event for both Organizations. We witnessed excellent Degree Work and I am sure the candidates were impressed.

As summer is beginning to wane, let's not let our disinterestedness take over our obligations. Please remember what was said at the altar of Freemasonry.

If have not witnessed some of the impressive You Tube presentations by the Supreme Council, you are missing some very important Masonic information. Most of these are presented by newly elected 33°, Brother Maynard Edwards.

Please continue to remember those less fortunate, our Military Veterans and our men and women at arms, we are our Brothers Keeper, so let's continue adhere to our Masonic Principles and Values.

May our Heavenly Father continue to Bless you and yours!

Terry L. Bowman, PGM, 33°
SGIG, Orient of Kentucky

Fraternal greetings,

I hope this message finds each of you happy, healthy, and filled with love and admiration for your fellow brethren. As Summer fades and Fall gets closer with each shorter day, I hope you'll take a moment to reflect on the friendships and brotherhood that our great fraternity promotes. Sometimes, with the fast pace of today's society it is easy to take for granted the things that mean the most in our lives. It's easy to forget that relationships take effort and we're all responsible for putting in the work. I was reminded of this recently while attending the Unity Festival at the Valley of Louisville. I witnessed members of all four Valleys come together, not to strengthen their own Valley, but to promote and build Scottish Rite Freemasonry. It was a tremendous event, and I commend everyone involved in the planning and execution of such a successful weekend. I look forward to future collaborations between our Valleys.

As I continue to reflect on the wonderful relationships I've made since first becoming a Mason, I found myself thinking about some of the great men that have gone above and beyond in their service to this fraternity. I can think of no two men any finer or worthy of admiration than PGM and Illustrious Bro. Keith Dreier, 33° and Illustrious Bro. JD Reeder, 33°. These brothers have served the Valley of Covington with great distinction and impeccable devotion for several decades. Both brothers have elected to retire from their longtime respective positions of Secretary-Registrar and Director/Venerable Master of the 4th Degree. The devotion to their positions and commitments to the Valley has been instrumental in our success and longevity. Decades from now, when all the faces that currently roam our halls and continue the work of Freemasonry are only memories for those who have taken up the torch, it is the names of these great men who will still be echoed. Their contributions, mentorship, and examples will serve as their legacies and live on in those they influenced. I congratulate each of them on well deserved retirements and can't begin to offer enough gratitude for their impact on my life. I look forward to the fellowship we will continue to enjoy. When you see these brothers, please, offer your gratitude and congratulations for their many years of service and dedication.

I'd like to also take a moment to extend my gratitude to the brothers of Morehead Lodge #654 for hosting the first section of our Fall Reunion. We greatly appreciate your hospitality and look forward to future collaborations. We had a fantastic weekend and a great lunch provided by the brothers of the Morehead Shrine Club. Thank you to everyone who comes together to make our reunions a success. Let's finish 2023 strong and remember to reach out to those you haven't spoken to in a while. Take pride in being your brother's keeper!

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

MASONIC LIBRARY AND MUSEUM ASSOCIATION
COVINGTON SCOTTISH RITE

“I Didn’t Know That.....”

Definitely one of the most religious of the Masonic orders is the “Holy Royal Arch Knight Templar Priest.” The ‘invitational only’ order is conferred upon Christian Templar Knights, who have served as the Commander of their respective Commandery. Membership in a “Tabernacle” is limited to 33, thus restricting itself to only the most dedicated and long serving York Rite members. Kentucky has two such Tabernacles, Golgotha XIV, and Centurion LXXVI. Beside the Preceptor, seven officers are styled as ‘pillars’ (Proverbs 9:1 Wisdom has built her house/she has set up its seven pillars.)

The ceremonies draw upon the basic teachings and allegories found in Masonic tradition and instruct on the importance of virtue, humility and devotion to God, resulting in spiritual enlightenment to the candidate. The regalia and jewels of the Order are also spiritually symbolic. As a member of the Priestly Order, one does not minister to the public, but should nurture the principles of chivalry and the pursuit of spiritual growth.

The history of this exclusive Christian Order is confusing. Like many of the eighteenth century Masonic degrees, it is found under many names: White Masons, Priestly Order, Templar Masons, are a few that have met in Melchizedek Lodges, White Lodges, Holy Wisdom Conclaves, Conventions, Union Bands, Tabernacles, etc. The old Knight Templar Priest rituals vary somewhat in content and at least one has no relation at all, to today’s American ritual.

English Masonic historian John Yarker states that the degree, “Priestly Order” was practiced in Ireland under the York Grand Lodge, while Masonic scholar and author William James Hughan believed that the Knights Templar Priest or Holy Wisdom was not ‘York’ at all. Arthur Edward Waite writes that the degree Priestly Order or White Mason was conferred under the Early Grand Scottish Rite. Yarker also believes that the degree was first conferred in 1686, but records do not appear until almost 100 years later.

Perhaps Harold V.B. Voorhis’ history from “Proceedings of the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar of Missouri – 1957” is the most reliable. Ireland appears to be the country of origin, possibly around 1770, and later found in Manchester, England (May 20, 1795). Old minutes from 1812-1816 in Manchester state in their history, “The degree of United Sacred Band of Royal Arch Knights Templar Priests is an old York degree, as they printed warrants first in 1786...” and goes on to say, “The degree with the Bands or Unwarranted Encampment dated its year from the year of the Revival, or 1686, and it is interesting to read the names of the members of the Priestly Order and, as in many cases gives the occupations.”

Save for English Royal Kent Tabernacle in Newcastle, organized in 1809, the Order nearly ceased its existence in the mid nineteenth century, as other tabernacles in England, Ireland and Scotland were no longer functioning. In 1923, the Royal Kent Tabernacle would form the Grand College of England to issue warrants for eighteen tabernacles.

Interestingly, an 1829 document in the archives of the Northern Jurisdiction of the Scottish Rite, is a notice of the Priestly Order. On the other side of the document is a record of two meetings of the Order of High Priesthood. Kentucky Mason Frederick Weber, who served the Supreme Council Southern Jurisdiction for 48 years as either Treasurer-General or Secretary-General, had in his possession, a notice of a meeting of the Priestly Order dated 1840. Another notice, dated October 19, 1897, reveals that Illustrious Weber conferred the degree on Brother Millard R. Hicks, in Washington D.C., who returned to Maine and conferred the same on six more candidates.

Unaware of the previous American history, the order officially came to the United States on May 14, 1933, with the forming of “The Great Priory of America, Priestly Order of the Temple” with John Raymond Shutte II, as the Grand Preceptor. Later it would arrive in Kentucky in 1946 under the direction of Conrad Cates, with Golgotha XIV Tabernacle formally erected on February 10, 1949 and Centurion Tabernacle LXXVI, erected on February 2, 1996.

The HRAKTP has since been highly prized, with five Kentuckians serving as Grand Preceptor of the Grand College of America, Holy Royal Arch Knight Templar Priests. It has been my pleasure to associate with each of these fine gentlemen and outstanding Masons.

Grand Preceptors from Kentucky include: Wylie B. Wendt (1957) author/editor of the Grand Encampment Knights Templar Tactics; Charles K.A. McCaughey (1975) a Past Grand High Priest who served many years as Grand Secretary of the Grand York Rite Bodies of Kentucky; Donald H. Smith (1991) after serving as Grand Commander of Kentucky went on to be elected as the Grand Master of the Grand Encampment, USA; and William G. Hinton (2003) who served as Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky as well as Grand Commander of Knights Templar. Our current Grand Preceptor is J. William Riggs (2023-2024). He served as both Grand Commander of Kentucky Knights Templar and Grand High Priest of Kentucky Royal Arch Masons. Bill totally dedicates himself to all Masonic bodies on the local, state and national level. He also works diligently to promote their philanthropies. Congratulations to you Billy Riggs. We wish you the very best during your major accomplishment this year in your Masonic life.

Bill Riggs

The Unity Festival and Reunion held in August was a success. The Personal Representative from the Valley of Madisonville, Douglas Bunch witnessed the proud moment when his son Isaac Bunch became a member of both the York Rite and Scottish Rite Masons of Kentucky. Father and son together in the Fraternity through shared experiences and values is a treasured memory.

...even on our worst day, we are blessed to live in America.

13 October 1775, the Continental Congress voted to fit out two sailing vessels, armed with ten carriage guns, as well as swivel guns, and manned by crews of eighty, to intercept transports carrying munitions and stores to the British army in America. This was the original legislation out of which the Continental Navy grew and as such constitutes the birthday of the Navy.
