GRAND MASTER'S MESSAGE

E. DARREN WILSON
Grand Master 2022-2023

September is one of my favorite times of year. As we leave the summer months behind and enter the first days of fall the leaves start to change colors, temperatures begin to drop and the evening light gives way to earlier sunsets. The changing of seasons certainly provides some beautiful views of God's creation while traveling to visit and fellowship across the Commonwealth.

One of my favorite events in September is Bib Over all night at McNiel lodge in Lebanon Junction. This meeting, for the most part, is truly about fellowship and brotherly love. What other meeting would you find your Grand Master in Bib overalls frying eggs? There is a time and place for everything, and I know we need to make the best of impressions when we are performing rituals and ceremonies, but we also need to make a special time when we can just be brothers with nothing more than enjoying each other's company and breaking bread together. This is a time of bonding and a time to laugh; the pressure of dress codes and titles are not needed and we are just brothers all on the same level.

On September 19, 1794, George Washington became the only sitting U.S. president to personally lead troops in the field when he led the militia on a nearly month-long march west over the Allegheny Mountains to the town of Bedford. Brother Washington's example should encourage all leaders to remain engaged in active service and to provide those who are called to follow them an example of true servant leadership.

Among the many established traditions that we as Kentucky Freemason have embraced is to honor our members who have reached the significant milestone of 50 years of service by no longer requiring them to pay membership dues. They have for decades been termed "Free-Masons." These dedicated men have spent the largest part of their adult life contributing to our lodges and our grand lodge with the belief that that promise will be fulfilled. It is my belief that despite whatever rationale a lodge would use to choose to renege on this promise, whatever gray area they chose to exploit, one basic truth is clear; they have broken established traditions that as Past Masters we promised to uphold when we were installed. One of the gravest realities of this, is when a 50+ year member is suspended for non-payment of dues. We are then prevented from affording him what I believe is the basic right of a Mason, a Masonic burial. Consider this, a member reaching the milestone of 50 years of service does not incur the local lodge any expense in the form of Grand Lodge assessment and in all likelihood very little, if any, expense to his lodge at all. We need to rethink this and quickly! As of this past July there are now 10 "Free-Masons" who, if they passed away today, would not be afforded a Masonic Burial. My Brothers, what have we become?

On a more celebratory note, I had the honor of presenting M.W. Brother Carol Curtis, PGM with his 70-year service pin, during a ceremony held in his honor on August 15; this was one of the highlights of my Masonic career. The turnout was remarkable! It is a testament to M.W. Brother Curtis' dedication, service, and love for the Craft that so many attended to celebrate this significant milestone with him. Brother Curtis is our Senior Past Grand Master having served as Grand Master in 1969-1970 and continuing to serve our fraternity in many ways. M.W. Brother Curtis still actively travels to present educational material about our ritual, takes an active part with degree teams presenting the Legend of the Temple, and always makes time to have discussions with his brothers, who are as ready receive as he is to give instruction. What an example to emulate!

As always, "We are our Brother's Keeper" and remember our active-duty military and first responders in your thoughts and prayers.

Fraternally Thine,
E. Darren Wilson

Myths and Misconceptions

Masons know all too well that an organization with a rich history is often presented with myths or misconceptions about its creation and actions. Masonic Homes Kentucky, with history extending more than 150 years, is no exception.

To help dispel misinformation, Masonic Homes created Myths and Misconceptions, a program designed to decipher fact from fiction, and to give Masons a better understanding of the community.

Common misconceptions uncovered include the Grand Lodge of Kentucky F.&A.M. owns Masonic Homes, or you have to be rich to live in one of Masonic Homes communities. Both untrue.

Want to hear more? Masonic Homes' Senior Vice President of Development & Fraternal Relations Rick Reeve and Vice President of Fraternal Relations Travis Short are taking the Myths and Misconceptions on the road. ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

Brethren,

Your Scottish Rite Valley's have been very hard at work on your behalf by bringing about a very successful One Day Statewide Reunion with a York Rite and Scottish Rite Class. Many thanks to the Candidates who witnessed excellent Degree work and pageantry and all the brothers who assisted with the event.

The Supreme Council Session has come and gone and was again, held in a Brotherly and Professional manner. My congratulations to those who received their 33 Degree, Inspector General Honorary at the Session. The other 33rd's and KCCH's elects will receive their Honors on November 18, 2023, Honors Weekend at the Valley of Louisville.

Please remember your Valley's RiteCare program that provides assistance to children with non-operable language issues. This program gives them the tools they need to be successful in school and in life.

Let's do what we can to embrace our new members and offer them a place to participate in the Valley. Also new members, do not be bashful in requesting to work where you would be comfortable.

There is still much of the year left to make your Valley even more successful by attending meetings and helping where you can.

Thank you all for what you do for Scottish Rite Freemasonry. Take care and may God Bless!

Terry L. Bowman, PGM, 33°
SGIG, Orient of Kentucky

Brethren,

With a successful Spring Reunion well behind us and Summer in full swing, we look ahead to what promises to be a busy but fulfilling Fall season. This year has brought many changes and the hope of a genuine resurgence of energy and brotherhood for the Valley of Covington. We began the year with a new reunion format designed to increase fellowship and enhance the overall experience for our degree teams and new candidates. Like any new process, we will continue to adapt and make necessary modifications to make our reunions as enjoyable and meaningful as possible and we welcome any new ideas and suggestions. John Maxwell once said, "The pessimist complains about the wind. The optimist expects it to change. The leader adjusts the sails." As Scottish Rite Freemasons, we should all strive to be leaders in our lodges and communities. I believe our Valley is demonstrating our ability to lead and adapt to the changes our fraternity faces.

The year began with a successful Magic Show at the Temple highlighting the talents of Hon. Bro. Billy Hall, 32° KCCH. On July 22nd our 1200 Club Car Show was held at the Furniture Fair on Alexandria Pike in Cold Spring. The car show proved to be a successful fundraiser and re-introduced our Valley to the community. We are blessed with a beautiful Temple and these fundraisers are necessary to help maintain such a magnificent building that we all cherish. As the old saying goes, "many hands make light work." The burdens we share will be small if everyone contributes and we work together.

We look forward to kicking off our 1st Section of the Fall Reunion schedule at Morehead Lodge No. 654 on September 22nd and 23rd. We will observe the 4th through 18th degrees and eagerly look to increase the number of our proselytes, as we are so charged in the 30th degree! It will also be our privilege to celebrate the time-honored tradition of the Feast of Tishri. This obligatory observance is the epitome of the tenets that our Rite stands for and offers an opportunity for each of us to recommit ourselves to building Freemasonry "in the hearts of men and among nations."

In closing, I want to offer the utmost esteem to our brothers across the state who have been elected to receive the honor and rank of K.C.C.H. and 33rd Degree. The dedication and service to your Orient and our Rite have warranted such worthy recognition. We each know that the true meaning and reward of Masonry resides in our hearts and not on our heads, but we hope that this honor serves to remind each of us that our best contributions to the fraternity lay ahead of us and not behind us. Well done, my brothers!

73rd Grand Assembly

The International Order of Rainbow for Girls in Kentucky had their 73rd Grand Assembly June 23-25, 2023 at the Scottish Rite Temple. Breana Wheatley presided as Grand Worthy Advisory at her "Don't Follow the Herd, Just Be You" session. Her philanthropy during her term was the Ronald McDonald house. We collected supplies, did service activities at the Ronald McDonald, and raised over $1,200 to donate to organization.

Thursday night before Grand Assembly, we gathered and made 77 purses for our Supreme Worthy Advisor's project. These purses were filled with toiletry items and then donated to local domestic violence shelters to help women in need.

Friday night was our opening session with introductions and greetings from our out of state guests. Saturday morning, we had our initiation, memorial service, baby dedication, service degree, and majority degrees. After, we had our Grand Cross Luncheon and then inducted Darren Wilson, Clinton Carrier, Ronnie Waiz, and four of our dedicated Rainbow Girls into the Grand Cross. Saturday night, we had our Grand Banquet. It was great to have so many of our sponsoring orders in attendance. At the session, we had greetings from our sponsoring bodies and received many donations. Thank you to everyone for their support of our endeavors. Kassie Parrish, our Supreme Deputy, appointed the Grand Officers and Grand Representatives for the next year. Sunday morning, we had our Prayer Brunch and installation. We presented 4 girls with $500 scholarships. In the spring, they are eligible to renew their scholarship for an additional $250.

Next year's Grand Assembly will be June 21-23, 2024 with Natalie Gasparac presiding as Grand Worthy Advisor. Her theme is Faith, Trust, and Fairy Dust. Her philanthropy is Alzheimer's Awareness and has asked each assembly to raise $500 to donate to a local nursing home and to assist with the quality of life for those effected by Alzheimer's.

We will also be traveling to Virginia Beach for our biennial Supreme Session in July 2024.

We will be raising funds for Supreme during the next year and for our 75th Grand Assembly Session in 2025.

KY Rainbow would like to say a HUGE THANK YOU to all those who support our girls and organization. With the contributions and assistance for our sponsoring orders we are able to provide scholarships for our girls to "Choose Joy" in their further education goals.

If you know any girls interested in joining Rainbow or have any questions, please contact Kassie Parrish at kentuckyiorg@hotmail.com. More information about Rainbow can be found on our website at iorgky.org.

MASONIC LIBRARY AND MUSEUM ASSOCIATION
COVINGTON SCOTTISH RITE

“I Didn’t Know That.....”

On June 1, 1792, Kentucky split from Virginia, to be admitted to the Union as the 15th state. Freemasonry in Kentucky preceded this date with the Grand Lodge of Virginia forming Lexington #25, chartered November 17, 1788 and Paris #25 chartered on November 25, 1791. After statehood, George Town #46, Frankfort Hiram #57, and Abraham U.D. (Shelbyville) also chartered by the Virginia Grand Lodge, would be the five Lodges that would form the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, the first Grand Lodge west of the Appalachian Mountains. William Murray would be the first Grand Master.

Very quickly, Kentucky Masonry would find itself chartering lodges both in and outside its borders, with Harmony #7, in Natchez, the first lodge held in Mississippi Territory, chartered on October 16, 1801. Natchez was an important partner to Kentucky as goods and merchandise were shipped there to be distributed and resold. William Murray no doubt, had connections in Natchez, as he recommended the chartering of Harmony Lodge and would afterward settle in Natchez, passing away in 1805. Harmony Lodge would surrender the charter on September 3, 1814, but revive itself, with many of the old members securing a new Kentucky charter, as Harmony #33, August 28, 1816, and two years later become Lodge #1, on the Mississippi Grand Lodge Roster with five of the seven Grand Lodge officers, being members of Harmony #33, including Dr. Henry Tooley as Grand Master and Christopher Rankin as Deputy Grand Master.

The first lodge founded in Indiana territory, Vincennes Lodge #15, was instituted by the Grand Lodge of Kentucky on August 13, 1809. Vincennes had been granted a dispensation on August 27, 1807, to form the lodge but had failed to organize.

Indiana Masonic historian Daniel McDonald advises that the G.L. of KY granted the dispensation to form a lodge at Vincennes, “with George Wallace Master, James Adams Senior Warden, and General W. Johnson Junior Warden.” On September 1, 1808, General W. Johnson wrote that several circumstances had prevented organization, and as the dispensation had expired, asked that another be issued, which was done, with the same officers as before—in other words, the dispensation was renewed.”

Both Vincennes #15, and the future Grand Lodge of Indiana, owes much to Brother General Washington Johnson (Johnston). G. W. Johnson was a member of Abraham Lodge #8, in Louisville, Kentucky, and it was through Abraham #8 that the Vincennes’ brothers made a request for their dispensation. Serving as Master of Vincennes on January 18, 1817, Johnson noted for his blandishments, wrote a circular letter “to all Lodges known to exist” to consult on the creation of a Grand Lodge in Indiana. He represented Vincennes Lodge at the Corydon convention in December to form a Grand Lodge of Indiana which would come to fruition with Kentucky native and Charleston, Indiana resident, Alexander Buckler as the first Grand Master, on January 12, 1818. Kentucky, the “Mother Grand Lodge” was the first to extend fraternal recognition. Besides Vincennes Lodge #15, the Grand Lodge of Kentucky would charter five additional Lodges in Indiana to assist in the forming of the Grand Lodge of Indiana, with Vincennes Lodge as #1.

Madison Lodge #21, the second chartered lodge in Mississippi Territory by the G.L. of KY (August 5, 1812) would become the first lodge in Alabama. The city would be later named Huntsville after founder John Hunt, a member of the lodge. In 1812, the lodge reported 31 members, 3 FC and two EA, with Marmaduke Williams-Master, John C. Hamilton -Sr. Warden and Wm Harrison- Jr. Warden. Its Kentucky charter lasted until 1819, with the decision to become Madison #1 under the Grand Lodge of Alabama which was formed 1820. In 1824, Madison #1 and Bethesda #2 consolidated as Helion #1, where it continues to be the birth place of Alabama Freemasonry.

Also in 1819, a group of Masons from Arkansas Post petitioned the Grand Lodge of Kentucky to form Arkansas Lodge U.D. The #59 was assigned sometime in 1820, thus establishing the first lodge in Arkansas, with Robert Johnson as Master. One of the founders was Andrew Scott, then serving as Superior Judge of Arkansas Territory. He was a former Master of Potosi #39, established by the Grand Lodge of Kentucky in Missouri.

In all, Kentucky, the first Grand Lodge west of the Appalachians, would establish eighteen lodges without its borders. The four lodges mentioned above, would be the first in the territory that would later receive statehood, and five others, had no Grand Lodge of their own. Each of these lodges would have their own story to tell, but the all-embracing story is that Kentucky Freemasons significantly influenced the Western Territory. Many of these Kentucky Masons would become leaders in their new communities and states, several reaching objectives as high as Governor.

The seed was sown and the Grand Lodge of Kentucky established lodges, that would grow to form their own Grand Lodge and this early nineteenth century movement would rapidly extend Kentuckians far west, championing the Texas fight for Independence, with many Kentuckians settling there. Author James D, Carter in his history Masonry in Texas lists the lodges that “contributed the major portion of early Texas colonists between 1788 and 1821.” Fifty-seven lodges founded by Kentucky’s Grand Lodge are recorded.

.....What do you think?

Note: Last month’s article on Abraham Jonas, inadvertently mentioned that Jonas had moved to “Columbus, Indiana” and established a lodge there. It should have read “Columbus, Illinois.” I offer my sincere apology to the Masons of Illinois.--B. Lorenz

11th Annual 1200 Club Car Show A Huge Success

Covington Valley Personal Representative Mike Barnett 32° KCCH pronounced the 11th Annual 1200 Club Car Show “a huge success.” Held on a beautiful day, July 22, the Show exhibited 62 cars with 52 eligible to win one of 30 trophies, plus a ‘best truck’ trophy which went to Ray Coffey of Alexandria, KY for his 1947 Chevrolet custom 4-door pick-up. A special “participation trophy” was presented to the 513 Corvette Club for their large turnout.

Tied for “Best of Show” was a 1955 Chevrolet Bel Air two-door, exhibited by Ohio native Terry Buoh, who drove 32 miles to participate; and a 1968 Chevy Camaro Z-28 owned by Matt Fisher of Latonia. Both cars were “all original.” As Bro. Jeff Moermond, 32° KCCH and his lovely wife Vicki announced the winners, Personal Rep. Barnett handed out the 30 plus trophies and congratulated each of the happy recipients.

Hot dogs, door prizes, a raffle, and a silent auction added to the excitement and fun atmosphere to make a perfect day. The families who came to enjoy viewing the beautifully restored cars, as well as the many car enthusiasts who attended, certainly had a good time.

Pers. Rep. Barnett wishes to thank the many car exhibitors, judges, sponsors, workers, and all who participated to support our community and Valley. A special thanks to Bro. Jeff Moermond, 32° KCCH, Vicki Moermond, Bro. Dan Moermond, 32°, Bro. Bobby Perry, 32°, Bro. Bobby Crittendon, 33°, Bro. James Rose, 33° Elect, Bro. Don Catchen, 33° and family, Bro. Ron Allari, 33°, and the wonderful members of the Campbell County Fire Department who so proudly displayed our nations flag.
