GRAND MASTER'S MESSAGE

E. DARREN WILSON
Grand Master 2022-2023

Brothers, with the month of May being upon us we have many exciting things to look forward to and to be thankful for. I am looking forward to the Grand Master's Golf Scramble which will be held on Saturday May 13th at the My Old Kentucky Home Golf Course. The proceeds of the scramble benefit both the Veterans and Masons Helping Masons funds. Thank you in advance for the sponsorships and donations that have been pledged for these two worthy programs.

I am very thankful to be able to honor My Mother and Wife on Mother's Day, I hope that you make this a special day for the mothers in your life and a day of remembrance for those special ladies of the past. One of my favorite quotes is "All that I am, or ever hope to be, I owe to my angel mother." —Abraham Lincoln

I want to express my thankfulness and appreciation for the awesome reception that Brenda and I have received at the District Meetings. Brenda enjoys the fellowship and visitation as much as I do and she looks forward every week to attending as many of the District Meetings as she can. The turn out and participation at the District Meetings this year has been remarkable. These meetings are like a family reunion to me; I love to see my brothers in active participation through their show of pride in their districts and lodges and their support of their District Deputy Grand Masters. Our District Deputies have worked diligently to fulfill their duties this year, every one of them have represented me, their lodges, districts and Grand Lodge far beyond my expectations and I am very appreciative of them. I believe the return, at District Meetings, to the tradition of introducing all who are traveling and working hard for the Grand Lodge and Masonic Homes of Kentucky has been time well spent to acknowledge their commitment and dedication.

I believe, as Grand Master, it is important for me to be a good steward of the funds you have entrusted to my care and oversight. As many of you may have heard, I made the decision to donate the unsold t-shirts from the previous Masonic year to the DeMolay in hope that these young men would benefit from the opportunity to sell the left-over shirts. The decision to donate these shirts, which would have otherwise been discarded, has indeed paid off. As of this writing these young men have sold several hundred shirts and they now have funds for conclave that they may have not had otherwise. I encourage you, if you see these young men selling these shirts, be your Brother's Keeper and support their efforts.

Stay safe in your travels this month, enjoy the sunshine and warm weather this spring has brought us. Please remember our active-duty military and first responders in your thoughts and prayers. Brenda and I look forward to seeing you down the road soon.

Fraternally Thine,
E. Darren Wilson

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

Brethren,

I write this message with a prayer beforehand, as with all of my articles and with this one in particular. There is something that is very heavy on my heart and is going on in our Fraternity that saddens me very much. We all knelt at the altar and promised to honor and respect our fellow Brothers and groups of Brothers. There are members of our Fraternity that allow themselves to be suspended from an Appendant Body of Masons, sometimes owing several hundred dollars and not doing the honorable thing by demitting and settling their debt.

There is a line spoken by one of the actors in the third degree, legend of the temple, where he says "Honor is the greatest attribute of a mason and when honor is lost all else is in vain". I sincerely hope some of these Brothers read this article and do what is right. If finances are the issue, I am sure something can be arranged.

Your Scottish Rite Consistory has or is about to begin their Reunion schedule. What a great time to rejoin your brethren and celebrate those Ancient Degrees and witness some very dedicated work at the Temple. Your help in making the Degrees and the Business Meetings a success would be most appreciated.

May our Father in Heaven continue to Bless you, your Family, our Nation, our Service Members, First Responders and our Honorable Fraternity !

Terry L. Bowman, PGM, 33°
SGIG, Orient of Kentucky

ARE YOU READY?

The members of West Kentucky Consistory are dedicated to the growth of Freemasonry in every lodge and unity throughout our fraternity. Unfortunately, unity is oftentimes mistaken for an attitude of complacency or "can't we all just get along." True unity involves oneness in thought and action.

The best example of unity is found in Genesis 11. (Now I'm using a negative thought process, but it makes the point even stronger.) God's word says: "the whole world had one language" (Gen. 11:1) and they agreed (unity) to build a "city, with a tower" (11:4). Because they were speaking the same language, and they had agreed in their hearts to build this city with a tower it was going to happen. Where's the proof? In Genesis 11:6 GOD said, "If as one people speaking the same language they have begun to do this, then nothing they plan to do will be impossible for them.⁷ Come, let us go down and confuse their language so they will not understand each other." GOD had to stop them or they would have succeeded in their hearts' desire.

Likewise, if we have GODLY desires in our hearts, such as the obligations we took when we knelt at the altar, we can rebuild the membership rolls, but it starts with being unified. Even the motto of our great Commonwealth bears this out, "United we stand, divided we fall." We have the privilege of belonging to the greatest fraternity the world has ever known. There are good men looking for what our fraternity offers, and they will be attracted. That's why I joined; I wanted more out of life, and I can never repay all that I have received by being a member.

Are you ready to see growth in your lodge? Are you ready to mentor new brothers? Are you ready to let your light shine even brighter in a dark world? We must unite in words and action to strengthen the foundation of our fraternity. Our mission on this earth is to make it a better place every day. Are you ready to work together?

May GOD Bless You as we reach toward the future in unity,

Douglas W. Bunch, 32° KCCH Personal Representative

COVINGTON SCOTTISH RITE

“I Didn’t Know That.....”

Although a poor rendering, the above illustration is of the October 21, 1731 Grub Street Journal No. 94, depicts the very first known Masonic book review. The 292 year old appraisal is of Anderson’s 1723 “The Constitutions of the Free-Masons” and authored by “Spondee.” Two questions arise: Why was the review written 8 years after the Anderson published the book? Who was “Spondee”?

In London, writings of Masonic related material were prevalent in pamphlets and newspapers. Plays dedicated to a Masonic Lodge were also advertised with the dedication as a hand-out. Knoop, Jones and Hamer’s, “Early Masonic Pamphlets,” provides a reprint of sixty-six news articles and pamphlets; with some being anti-masonic /mockery and others, pro-masonic. Several attempts were made to tie Freemasonry with Rosicrucianism. Other newspapers or broad sheets, played upon the Gormogons opposition to the Freemasons. The anti-masonic Gormogons, founded by the Duke of Wharton, a Past Grand Master of the Masons (1722-23); lasted from 1724 to at least 1731 (see MHJ April, 2020).

The Masons would frequently attend the theater as a group and the play would often be dedicated to them. One example, the ballad opera “The Generous Freemason” was performed at five or six locations around London and contained the popular song “By Mason’s Art the Aspiring Dome.” It was said to be “one of the best ballad operas of these years”. The Dedication was to “The Right Worshipful GRANDMASTER, Deputy Grand Master, and the rest of the Brethren of the Ancient and Honorable Society of FREE and ACCEPTED MASONS.” The play was followed by the August, 1731 printing of “Verses on The Generous Freemason.” Around London and Wales, Freemasonry was definitely in the news.

“The Grub Street Journal” was one of several news outlets to report on Freemasonry. In its #94 edition, the review of Anderson’s Constitutions contained sections of the History, Charges and Regulations and presented with light humor, but was a very favorable review. Spondee’s review seemed to dwell more on the numerous songs included at the end of the now 300 year old Constitutions. The October 1731 issue of “The Gentleman’s Magazine” would print a summary of Mr. Spondee review, brief and more serious.

Samual Pritchard’s 31 page exposure “Masonry Dissected” had been released in 1730, and to the dismay of the Grand Lodge, was extremely popular with the citizenry of London. So it seems, Mr. Spondee felt the need to put forth a favorable image of Freemasonry through his review, the songs showing the enjoyment Masons shared at the table. Perhaps, just maybe, Mr. Spondee was a Brother.

.....What do you think?

A photo copy of an original October 21, 1731 edition of the 6 page “Grub Street Journal #94” is available by email, upon request. A more legible reprint can be found in the 1945 edition of “Early Masonic Pamphlets”.
