RICHARD F. "DICK" SHORT

Grand Master 2023-2024

Happy 4th of July Brothers.

Summer is here and we are busy with family and friends, enjoying the outdoors. What a perfect time to include our families in our lodges. If you just have your family join you at the lodge meal or have a special event like a picnic or trip as a lodge family. We all know we can not do what we do as Masons if we did not have the support of family.

Brothers we all know the importance of living up to our obligations. But we need to be that Mason 24/7. We need to live our morals out in our communities we live and work in. Be known as a Mason by your actions, not by a ring, cap, shirt or license plate on your vehicle. If we live Masonry in our daily lives people will want to be like us and they may make the choice to knock on the outer door and ask to gain admission.

I hope to see many of you at the Open House at your Grand Lodge office July 13th at 2PM ET. Bring your family and friends and take a tour.

Fraternally Thine,
Richard F. "Dick" Short

MASONIC LODGE AT PETERSBURG, KENTUCKY TURNS 100 THIS YEAR

On the first day of July 1924, a group of men, led by a 25 year old farmer named Otway Deck from Petersburg, gathered to form the inklings of a Masonic Lodge in Petersburg, Kentucky. Otway was joined by the following: 28 year old farmer Jesse Gale Louden, 23 year old Merchant Harvey Wilson White, 29 year old Railroad Clerk Claude Hamilton McWethy, 64 year old Cream Tester John Boles, 23 year old Clerk Edward Weindell Keim, as well as Charles E Cox and John Perry Mahan former Postmaster of the old Petersburg Post Office.

On Wednesday, October 22, 1924, these eight men with a vision to form a Masonic Lodge in Petersburg, Kentucky received their charter to open what would be known as Petersburg Lodge #926 F&AM. Inaugural dues were set at $4 per year to help cover expenses of $12 rent for the building previously known as the Knights of Pythias Lodge Hall Workum Lodge #66 along with 65 cents for coal per year.

Through the years, the brethren continued to modernize our lodge with the purchase of a gas lantern in 1927 with a reimbursement of 20 cents for a gallon of gas. Further upgrades came in 1932 with the installation of electric lights at 25 cents per night. The Flood of 36/37 saw the lodge used from January to July of that year for flood refugees.

Our lodge has been honored twice in its storied history to have two members ascend to the honor of Grand Master of Masons in the Commonwealth of Kentucky. Namely brothers L C Harper and Gregory C Powell. During the term of brother Powell in 2006-2007, the lodge requested a name change to Elvin E Helms Lodge #926 to honor two of our dedicated secretaries. Ironically they were father and son and combined for 77 years of secretarial service to our lodge.

After 100 years, may the brethren of Elvin E Helms Lodge #926 continues the tradition of our forefathers for another millennium. We all have our reasons to belonging to the Masonic Lodge in Petersburg, Kentucky, but once a month on the second Tuesday we all make the same winding, twisting trip to that little lodge on the river to partake in what has become to be known as "The Friendliest Little Lodge on the River."

An American Hero-Vietnam ex-POW Gail Kerns has died. Gail Kim and I had the honor to see a couple of weeks ago as we were in Rainelle, WV making plans for the 20th Anniversary of LZ Rainelle/WV Veterans reunion. He was weak and had to have two ladies help him to the bed from his wheel chair. He said he was sorry but he had to rest. I said we understood and we loved him and looked forward to seeing him at LZ Rainelle when we visited the residents at the Nursing Home. I said we love you and he said he loved us. Two years ago when Ray Manzo, founder of Rolling Thunder and I first met him we will never will forget. It was not planned but we all were so blessed and it as the nurse said Gail walked ten foot tall after we honored him with our kind words to a true hero. We all lost a dear friend we will never forget. Walk tall Gail, you earned it. Brethren,

As we celebrate the 4th of July with friends and family may we give thanks for the many Blessings that has been bestowed upon us. We are so fortunate to live in a Country where our freedom was earned by the men and women that fought the many wars and conflicts to keep our freedom.

Let's also keep in mind our brothers and men of the Colonies that drafted the greatest document the world as ever known, our Constitution. A document that as held true for many years. We most protect the Constitution at all costs.

If you have not visited your Scottish Rite, Southern Jurisdiction website, you are missing out on many informative and knowledgeable topics. scottishrite.org

Topics like our VMAP and Master Craftsman program. Many podcasts and on YouTube several documentaries concerning many areas of Masonic interest.

Our Scottish Rite petitions are now online by QR code. This helps our Secretary/Registrar's with communicating enrollment with the Supreme Council Office. Brothers, all we have to do is ask a Blue Lodge member to join us in the University of Freemasonry. Take care and may God Bless!

The Masonic Family is not just about the individual members but also includes family and friends which helps our fraternity to thrive and grow.

Brethren, may we exemplify the principles of Freemasonry and go forth with integrity, compassion, and a commitment to making the world better. Again, thank you for what you do for the Valley of Louisville.

COVINGTON SCOTTISH RITE
"I Didn't Know That....."

August 15, 2024, marks the 200th anniversary of the Marquis de Lafayette's (1757-1834) arrival in New York for his final American tour. Both the 2024 spring issue of the Knights Templar magazine, and the May/June 2024 issue of the Scottish Rite Journal, contained splendid articles regarding the Marquis' visit. These two articles of course, cannot tell the whole story and certainly failed to notice Kentucky's elaborate participation in the nation's celebration of Lafayette's visit. Fortunately, Kentucky historian and Freemason J. Winston Coleman's "Lafayette's Visit to Lexington" and Edgar Erskine Hume's "La Fayette in Kentucky" corrects those omissions.

Brother Coleman's extensive writings on Kentucky history, Kentucky Masonry and biographies of famous Kentuckians, makes his writings the 'go to' for researchers and historians today. Edgar E. Hume, born at the Capital Hotel in Frankfort, Kentucky, studied medicine at Centre College and later at John Hopkins University, was a military doctor who obtained the rank of Major General. He was elected a fellow of the Royal Society and served as President General of the Society of Cincinnati. He died in 1952, and was buried in Arlington Cemetery.

Both authors detail the activities of Marquis de Lafayette's visit to Kentucky. However Hume's work contains reprints of invitations, speeches, responses and prayers, together with detailed descriptions of parades, parties, receptions and visitations. Both Hume and Lafayette shared like interest. The two Major Generals were both were members of the Society of Cincinnati and the event took place in Kentucky, Hume's home state.

Lafayette was born into a long line of military men. His soldier father, a wealthy landowner, was killed in battle when Lafayette was age of two years. His mother's death occurred about ten years later, leaving the twelve year old with a very generous inheritance. In his teenage years, as was the custom in his family, he participated in various military training programs. He is believed to have become a Freemason about age 18 years and supposedly finding the American cause for liberty against England, to his liking, he was soon convinced saying, "My heart is dedicated." The French military wishing to aid America against England, sent negotiators to sail to America, including nineteen year old Marquis de Lafayette. It has been said, many times over, that the war for Independence would have been lost, without the aid of France, and it was Lafayette who provided that link by assisting Bro. Benjamin Franklin in obtaining the needed funds and support from France.

Lafayette arrived in South Carolina in June, 1777, and travelled to Philadelphia to join the Continental Army agreeing to serve without pay. In August, he met and dined with General George Washington. The two Freemasons genuinely admired each other and became great friends. Major General Lafayette would join Washington's staff. In September, 1777, Lafayette would be injured at the Battle of Brandywine, but would recover in time to join Washington during the harsh winter at Valley Forge. The Major General would be involved in many battles against the English, but the last major battle of the Revolution, the Battle of Yorktown fought in August, 1781, was the most significant.

Lord Cornwallis had positioned his troops in Yorktown to protect the English ships. Lafayette's 400 men held Cornwallis restrained until the arrival of George Washington's troops. The French fleet arrived in time to barricade the English ships and Cornwallis was then cut off from the needed support. After some fighting, Lord Cornwallis was forced to surrender on October 17, 1781. A hero in all of America's eyes, Lafayette left for home from Boston that December and arrived in January to a hero's welcome in France. Lafayette would become a key figure in the French Revolution in 1789 and the July, 1830 Revolution. With advice from Thomas Jefferson, Lafayette wrote the "Declaration of the Rights of Man and of the Citizen" which was presented to the National Assembly in July, 1789 and approved, and still in force today. His fight for the common man would lead to enemies. He would eventually spend time in prison for his efforts. However, Lafayette became acknowledged as the "hero of two worlds."

Lafayette's August 15, 1824 Grand Tour arrival in the United States (then consisting of twenty-five states) was marked with much fanfare. While in New York and among the dinners, speeches, honors etc., he took time to receive the Royal Arch degree in Jerusalem Chapter that September. One week after his arrival in New York, August 22, he was invited to visit Kentucky by the President of Transylvania College, Horace Holley. In a letter to Speaker of the House of Representatives, PGM Henry Clay, Lafayette accepted an invitation to a joint meeting of Congress and signified his intentions of also visiting Kentucky. Brother and Governor Joseph Desha felt it necessary for an official invitation from Kentucky and to have a portrait painted of Lafayette.

From Washington, Lafayette visited several states while traveling down the coast to New Orleans and back up the Mississippi by steamboat to St. Louis. Then travelling to the mouth of the Ohio River, and then onward to the mouth of the Cumberland River, Lafayette had officially entered Kentucky on April 30, 1825. At the mouth of the Cumberland River, the entourage changed to a smaller boat, the Mechanic, to meet with General Andrew Jackson, Past Grand Master of Tennessee and future President, in Nashville, where Lafayette attended the Grand Lodge of Tennessee. By May 7, he was back on board on the Mechanic headed toward Louisville, but the Mechanic sank the next day, causing both the passengers and crew to spend the night in Tell City, Indiana. He would again leave for Louisville, Kentucky the next day.
