Thanks for your help.

I hope you liked the change to format I used this year for the district meetings. I felt it was important to offer some education presentations which I think was well received. I think the Lodgers of Research did an excellent job at both the online and the district meetings by putting forth some quality education. Also, I opened the floor for questions from the craft. It brought some questions from the craft, and I think it was needed. Thank you to all that attended the district meetings.

This Spring I noticed two Dogwood trees on my farm. One was hidden under the overstory of the woods. Its branches bent and twisted looking for the light. The other was in full light and was well formed and strong. The same thing applies to us as masons. We need the light of Masonic knowledge to grow strong and continue to grow in the right direction. Please take the time to introduce some education into your regular lodge meetings. It doesn't have to be long, just meaningful.

As the warm weather is upon us its outdoor degree time again. It's important we give our candidates good quality degree work. Remember it's for the candidate not for our entertainment. Please visit an outdoor degree if you never have and enjoy the fellowship with brothers.

Fraternally Thine,

Brethren,

How important is Masonic Education to you and why do we not go back to our Lodge or other Masonic Venue after completing our degrees? What did we do wrong when candidates do not return after receiving our final Degrees in other Masonic Orders? This has been a subject of concern for me for many years. Was the Degrees not presented in a meaningful way? Did more of the Cast Members read their parts instead of Memorizing them? Did we not pay more attention to the candidate while receiving their degrees or did we think we have their money and simply don't care?

These are some very serious questions that need to be addressed. Every candidate needs to be contacted by phone, preferably, after receiving their Degree Work and asked how their experience went during their journey. What could we have done better to make it more enjoyable? Are we asking them would they like to become involved in an area that piques their interest. Also, we need to call our Members List every few years or so to ask how they are doing and not simply asking about being late on their dues.

This Fraternity deserves more from ourselves! The days of resting on our laurels with roles gushing with members are over. Brethren, we are members of the greatest Fraternity the world has ever known. We own it to our Fraternity to give it the very best we can.

May our Heavenly Father continue to Bless you and yours!

Terry L. Bowman, PGM, 33° SGIG, Orient of Kentucky

Fraternal greetings,

As Summer rapidly approaches, it is amazing how quickly these months fly by as we all work diligently to improve our lodges and valleys. It is impressive to see the various pictures and articles from across the state of the community involvement that our brethren are involved in. It's a great time to be a Mason and I'm privileged to be counted amongst such wonderful men. With most of our Spring reunions now complete, I'd like to welcome our newest Masters of the Royal Secret! I encourage each of our newest members to stay active and become involved with your new valley. There is much to do, and we have a place for each of you!

I would like to take a moment to congratulate the Valley of Covington's newest fellows for 2024. Brother Austin Hall, 32° and Brother Shawn Coots, 32° have been nominated to join our Sovereign Grand Commander's Fellow Summit in Washington DC this August and we are proud to have them represent the valley. Both brothers were also able to attend the Framing the Future Rite Way leadership conference in Jacksonville, FL in early May. We are excited about the energy and fresh ideas that these brothers will contribute to ensure the future success of our valley and fraternity.

As a reminder, the Valley of Covington will be dark in July. However, our work will go on! We are excited about our Florence Y'all's baseball game on July 26th and our Annual 1200 Club car show on July 27th. Please, join your brethren in support of these fundraising events. These will both be wonderful opportunities to invite family, friends, and prospective new Masons and Scottish Rite Masons to enjoy our fellowship. The events are open to everyone, and we look forward to your company. Have a blessed summer. Take care of your lodges and take care of each other!!!

Michael J. Barnett, 32° KCCH Personal Representative Valley of Covington

GREETINGS BROTHERS,

On Saturday, April 6th, West Kentucky Consistory initiated 6 new members. We congratulate these Brothers for their commitment to pursuing more light in Freemasonry. As our Consistory continues to grow at each reunion, we are overcoming the same plague that has attacked all of our masonic lodges throughout the Commonwealth, the decrease in MEMBERSHIP. We have had consistent growth since the 2020 Covid outbreak.

If there is anything that we can do to help your lodge, we would be more than glad to be of assistance to you.

MASONIC LIBRARY AND MUSEUM ASSOCIATION
COVINGTON SCOTTISH RITE
"I Didn't Know That....."

Books on Kentucky Masonry should be of extreme interest of every Kentucky Freemason. Kentucky Masonry has an extensive history, a history filled with drama and passion, and exciting to read. The Covington Masonic Library, in the last six months has added a nice collection of books to its already extensive "Kentucky Freemasonry Collection."

Of course we have included W.B. John W. Bizzack's latest, extremely popular and important work, "The Canker Worm on the Rose." This book is a gathering of written remarks of 46 Past Grand Masters of Kentucky who in their own words, warned that we are "making members, but not making Masons." Unfortunately, attempts of these Grand Masters to correct the problem went unheeded or quickly died, despite the 46 Grand Masters' concerns. I loved this book, and you will too. Perhaps it is Brother John's best book thus far. The Covington Masonic Library has on hand, a nice selection of 'John Bizzack writings.'

The Covington Library has added three books authored by Kentucky his6orian, Brother J. Winston Coleman. Jr. viz: "The Last Days, Death and Funeral of Henry Clay." In all probability, one of the greatest displays of National mourning was for Kentucky's most famous Mason, Henry Clay, the renowned Senator, orator and Past Grand Master of Kentucky. For Civil War buffs, Coleman wrote "Lexington During the Civil War" and he also penned "Lafayette's Visit to Lexington." We have also recently obtained "La Fayette in Kentucky" by Edgar Erskine Hume. The titles are self-explanatory of the contents.

For the contemplative Mason, "Transactions of the Rubicon Masonic Society – Volume 1" compiled by John W. Bizzack and Dan M. Kemble, has been acquired by the Library, as has "Societas Rosicrucian in Civitatibus Foederatis: Anthology of Essays, Volume 1" arranged by the Kentucky College, SRICF. Lexington's Rubicon Masonic Society is internationally respected for its many thought provoking programs and presentations, while the Kentucky College, SRIC delves into a more religious aspect and a deeper understanding of Freemasonry as it relates to one's self.

Those interested in Masonic Architecture will enjoy, "Art and Architecture of Freemasonry: an Introductory Study" authored by nationally known writer, James Stevens Curl, or possibly you will like "Masonic Temples: Freemasonry, Ritual Architecture and Masculine Archetypes" by William D. Moore.

Digging around the archives of Covington Scottish Rite, we discovered about 30 copies of the monthly magazine of the Grand Consistory of Kentucky (now Louisville Scottish Rite) dated between 1904 and 1918.

Concluding our Kentucky Masonic books and authors, Henry Pirtle, of 'The Kentucky Monitor' fame, offers "The Lost Word of Freemasonry," an interesting concept on Freemasonry, the meaning behind the lost word and its religious significance.

Other lately secured Masonic books that are currently well received publications, are "Short Masonic Lectures" a grouping of 31 essays on selected Masonic topics, by B. Elltay; "Voice of Freemasonry: 300th Anniversary of the 1723 Constitutions of the United Grand Lodge of England," and a number of books encompassing lodge and Grand Lodge histories, specifically "Cincinnati's Freemasons" by Donald I. Crews, and "Freemasonry in Winchester, Virginia 1768-1948" by William Mosely Brown. Both have a connection to Kentucky Freemasonry. The Grand Lodge of Kentucky chartered Cincinnati Lodge #13, while the lodge at Winchester was the first lodge in Virginia. Masonry came to Kentucky through the institution of Lexington Lodge by the Grand Lodge of Virginia. Masonic histories outside of Kentucky, also obtained a short time ago by the Library, include: Rhode Island, Washington, Kansas, and Texas.

A few non-Masonic books, but of religious significance, should not be omitted: "The Dead Sea Scrolls Uncovered" composed by Robert Eisenman and Michael Wise and "The Nag Hammadi Scripture" by Marvin Meyer. If religious archaeology has your interest, you may enjoy "Rivers in the Desert: A History of the Negev" or possibly "The River Jordan," both scholarly written by famed archaeologist Rabbi Nelson Glueck, who also served as President of the world renowned Hebrew Union College in Cincinnati, Ohio. As an archaeologist, Glueck discovered over 1500 ancient sites.

There is one other recent acquisition to the library to be mentioned; "Oak Island: A Masonic Conspiracy," committed to paper by James A. McQuiston. Mr. McQuiston is not a Freemason, and his writing shows it. Some may feel his book belongs on the 'fantasy" shelf. However, if you are a fan of the History Channel's "The Curse of Oak Island," to which McQuiston has on occasion contributed, you may find this book a 'fun and entertaining' read!!

.....What do you think?

Flag Day is observed annually on June 14th. It is a day that commemorates the adoption of the US flag in 1777 by resolution of the Second Continental Congress. The flag of the United States represents freedom and has been an enduring symbol of the country's ideals since its early days.

The U.S. Army, founded on 14 June 1775, began when the Continental Congress authorized six infantry companies of volunteer riflemen to serve for one year.

The Korean War began on 25 June 1950

Approximately 3 million people died in the Korean War, the majority of whom were civilians, making it perhaps the deadliest conflict of the Cold War-era.
