GRAND MASTER'S MESSAGE

LUKE MARTIN

Grand Master 2025-2026

Greetings Brothers,

As we get together during this special time of year, my wife Amber and I hope everyone had a great Thanksgiving with your loved ones. Sharing good times and conversations really brings us closer as families and as a community. Let's make the most of these moments and remember to show real appreciation for our families and the bonds we share. Gathering around the table helps us connect and reminds us to look out for one another. With Christmas on the way, let's also keep an eye out for anyone who might need a hand—let's be ready to help and show kindness wherever we can and please don't forget to reach out to our widows of our lodges.

This year's theme, "Be the Vision," is for all of us—in our lodges, churches, homes, and communities. Sure, a Master's agenda can guide a Lodge for a year, but having a big-picture vision gives us direction that lasts much longer. When we think about where we want our Lodge to go, it goes beyond just what we want right now. We should ask ourselves: "What are we here for, and what do we want to become?" It's not just yearly planning—it's about building our Lodge's legacy by taking the time to reflect, talk things through, and aim high.

Just like the holidays are about caring and giving, putting together a master Trestle board isn't only about short-term goals—it's about setting up for long-lasting success. Having a shared vision keeps everyone on track and inspired because we know what we're working towards. It connects us across different generations and keeps us growing.

Think of a Lodge's vision as its blueprint—a clear picture of where we're headed. When everyone understands this goal, people feel more motivated and involved, and everyday tasks actually mean something.

The Trestle board stands for what we all want to achieve together. It's not just made by the Master, but with input from the whole Lodge. We talk about things like: "How do we want other Lodges to see us? What strengths should we build over the next five years? How can we make a difference for our members and our community?" By hearing from everyone and not just a select few, we create a vision that truly represents us.

A strong vision makes even everyday jobs—like putting on a fundraiser—feel like important steps toward bigger projects, such as scholarships. It turns routine work into progress and helps us see how everything fits into our larger mission.

But for any vision to work, everyone has to buy in. It shouldn't just come from the top down; it should grow through teamwork, reflecting what we all care about. Getting everyone involved—whether you're new or have been around forever—through surveys, workshops, or meetings helps strengthen our unity and make sure we're all on the same page.

When brothers help shape the vision, they feel connected and responsible. This sense of ownership keeps us working hard together through challenges and successes.

Christmas isn't just about decorations and presents. At heart, it's a time to show empathy, generosity, and care for our families and community. As Masons, let's try to live out these values and set a good example.

For us, "being the vision" means aiming for excellence by growing personally and making a positive impact. It's about showing Brotherly Love, treating each other with respect, helping out in the community, and holding onto Truth and integrity. Our vision covers both becoming better men and making a difference in the world around us.

Let's stick with these guiding principles. If we work together, we can build a welcoming place, help each other and our community grow, and spread hope. Let's keep working towards our vision—not just for ourselves, but for those who'll come after us.

Christmas is just around the corner, so Amber and I wish a very Merry Christmas to everyone!

Fraternally thine,

Luke Martin, Grand Master

Masons Unite to Celebrate the 100th Anniversary of Our Louisville Campus

Masonic Homes Kentucky's history is bonded by significant life-changing memories, momentous milestones, groundbreakings, heartfelt stories and the enduring support of Kentucky Freemasons.

This year, we celebrated another significant moment in Masonic Homes Kentucky's history – the centennial anniversary of its Louisville Campus and the dedication of a commemorative monument and time capsules.

On October 20, exactly 100 years from the day Kentucky Masons gathered to dedicate the Louisville Campus, more than 400 Masons and their loved ones joined together to honor Masonic Homes Kentucky's flagship location.

The Grand Lodge of Kentucky F.&A.M.'s Grand Line performed a time-honored Masonic dedication of the monument which supports the beloved "A Place Called Home" bronze statue depicting a widow and her orphaned children being welcomed by the open arms of a Mason. The statue, a gift from the Masonic Homes Alumni Association, is flanked by two time capsules that hold memories from the past 100 years.

To take part, many Lodges contributed a pin or coin reflecting their history and connection to Masonic Homes Kentucky. The time capsules were interred for commemoration no sooner than Oct. 20, 2125.

Following the dedication, attendees gathered in front of The Olmsted to recreate an image from the original 1925 dedication. The new photo was added to the time capsules and Masons are encouraged to purchase one with all proceeds benefiting charitable care programs at Masonic Homes Kentucky. Scan the QR Code to order yours.

GRAND HISTORIAN'S NOTES

THOMAS J. PICKETT

MWGM 1851 - ILLINOIS

MWGM 1874 - KENTUCKY

Thomas Johnson Pickett was born March 17, 1821, in Louisville, Kentucky. In 1830 his family moved to St. Louis, Missouri, then moved to Peoria, Illinois in 1836. While in Peoria, he apprenticed as a typesetter, then started the Peoria News in 1840. He soon sold the paper and formed the Peoria Transcript. Pickett moved to Rock Island, Illinois, publishing the Rock Island Register. In 1851, he was elected the first president of the Illinois Editorial Association. In this capacity, he oversaw the Editorial Convention that prompted the Bloomington Convention and the forming of the Illinois Republican Party. Pickett served as a delegate to the convention and served as a delegate to the 1856 convention, as well. He was also elected to two terms as State Senator from Rock Island County, Illinois, 1860-1862 and 1862-1864.

Brother Pickett's rise in Masonry was rapid. He was made an Entered Apprentice Mason on February 12, 1846 and a Master Mason in Peoria Lodge #15 on November 26, 1846 and became Master in 1847. He was Master nine years in all, eight in Peoria Lodge #15. After the death of W. B. Warren he was appointed Grand Secretary and had the contract to print the 1849 proceedings. On January 26, 1850, there was an explosion on the first floor of the building where his printing press was located. It started a fire destroying all the 1849 records. William Pickett, his brother, and James Kirkpatrick, publisher of the Peoria American, were killed by falling walls. On April 8, 1850 Grand Master William C. Hobbs called a special session to restore, as far as possible the unprinted and consequently lost proceedings of the last communication. In October of 1850 Pickett was elected Deputy Grand Master and in 1851, he was elected Grand Master of Illinois at 31 years of age, being the second youngest member ever elected Grand Master. He issued dispensations for 11 new lodges and it was during his year that the law was adopted requiring a full year's residence in the state before candidates were eligible to petition for the degrees.

In the 1859 Grand Lodge of Iowa proceedings, Brother T.J. Pickett, PGM of Illinois, and Brother D.T. Monsarat, PGM of Kentucky, were recognized as visitors. Both later installed the newly elected Grand officers. T.J. Pickett Lodge #307, located in Bushnell, Illinois, was named for him.

Pickett was one of the first supporters of Abraham Lincoln's presidential possibilities. On August 13, 1859 Pickett invited Lincoln to Rock Island, Illinois to deliver a lecture. Lincoln decided that his chances of winning the Presidential nomination were best if they were perceived to be non-existent. On August 16th, Lincoln wrote to Pickett this concern and decided not to appear in Rock Island for this "lecture".

Shortly after President Lincoln's election, Pickett was appointed as the Resident Quartermaster on the Island in Rock Island. Upon the outbreak of the Civil War, Pickett was offered a position as Brigadier General but declined. Later in the war, he organized the 69th Illinois Volunteers on June 13, 1862 and served as Lieutenant Colonel. He later organized the 132nd Illinois Volunteers Infantry and served as its Colonel.

At the end of the war he moved to Paducah, Kentucky forming the Federal Union. There, he was appointed postmaster and later served as clerk of the United States district court. He ran for United States Congress in Kentucky's 1st congressional district in 1874 but was defeated by Andrew Boone.

He was a charter member of Plain City Lodge #449 1867, elected Senior Warden in 1868, elected Master in 1869. He was elected Grand Master of Kentucky, October 22, 1873. During his term as Grand Master of Kentucky 18 new lodges were granted charters and 6 lodges were granted dispensations to be formed. (It seems, from reading many of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky proceedings, Pickett had a similar issue with the craft, as his predecessors and the Grand Master's since his term, of the craft calling upon the Grand Master for an answer to their problems when the answer is readily found in the Constitution.)

Pickett moved to Nebraska City, Nebraska in 1879 where he founded the Nebraska City Sun with his sons and then moved to Lincoln, Nebraska the next year, starting The Capital there, then the Franklin County Guard. He demitted from Plain City Lodge #449 in May of 1883 and affiliated with Lancaster Lodge #54 in Lincoln, Nebraska. He moved into his son's house in Ashland, Nebraska, in April, 1891, while helping his son run the Ashland Gazette.

Thomas J. Pickett died from a stroke on December 24, 1891 in Ashland, Nebraska and was buried at Ashland Cemetery. Masonic funeral services were conducted by Pomegranate Lodge #110, Ashland, Nebraska.

October 19, 2021 Pickett-Wilhelm Lodge of Research was set to work. It is named for Thomas J. Pickett and James E. Wilhelm, both Past Grand Masters of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky.

Respectfully submitted,

On Sept. 27th, the inaugural, 100 Masons - A Night of Brotherhood in support of Masonic charities was held by Gateway #109 and Good Faith #95 with Brothers from around the state and tri-state travelers in attendance. RWDGM Luke Martin was the honored special guest Master for the evening. A wonderful meal was enjoyed and the Masonic journey of four fantastic speakers was shared. With brotherly love and charitable hearts, $6,239 was raised for Masonic Homes, Masons Helping Masons, Masonic Care, and St. John's Day League. A special thank you, and congratulations to Bro. Chuck Mills (top right speaker) who breathed this event into existence and provided great leadership in its execution. For those who attended, thank you! For those who couldn't, we'll see you in 2026.

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

Brethren,

Are you ready for the Holidays? Have you purchased all the gifts you need for the members of your family? Did you splurge this year and go all out in buying for the ones you love? Love, sometimes that word gets lost in our everyday situations. We get so busy with all the exterior things in our lives, that maybe we forget to tell that special someone, just how much we care.

Brothers, take time to observe the Blessings that are standing right in front of you. Slow down and take in the warmth of family and friends. Return to the guy who used to come home from work with a pep in his step and a whistle coming from his lips.

Most of this years Masonic Activities are over except for a few Elections and Installations. Let's begin next year with a rededication to our Fraternity. Consider joining the Scottish Rite, The "University of Freemasonry". The many teachings and Masonic Education you receive will enlighten your perspective and advance your knowledge in Freemasonry.

May many Blessings come your way, Merry Christmas and Happy Hanukkah!

God Bless!

MASONIC LIBRARY AND MUSEUM ASSOCIATION

COVINGTON SCOTTISH RITE

"I Didn't Know That....."

RARE BOOK PRESENTATION

In October 2025, the Masonic Library & Museum Association of Covington Scottish Rite received a rare edition of "Poetry of Freemasonry" authored by Robert Morris, LLD, Masonic Poet Laureate. It is an 1884 'Laureate Edition.' This first edition was presented by W.B. Dan M. Kemble (pictured right), a long-term member of the MLMA Board of Directors. On behalf of the MLMA, Librarian Bill Lorenz accepted the rare edition. It is to be placed on display in the Rare Book Section of the Covington Masonic Library.

Rob Morris, a Past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, founder of the first Masonic Lodge in Jerusalem (King Solomon #1), avid Masonic writer and historian, penned over 400 poems. He often wrote odes for lodges across the country for their special events and songs for church use. He created the Order of Eastern Star for the ladies, that they could share in the some of the teachings of Freemasonry. His son Rob served as Worthy Grand Patron of Kentucky, OES. "Poetry of Masonry" contains many poems devoted to Eastern Star use.

Dr. Rob Morris was named Poet Laureate in 1884, as over 500,000 Master Masons worldwide expressed their approval. It had been over 100 years since Brother Robert Burns was named the first Poet Laureate. This book, an 1884 "Laureate Edition" is highly prized. The gold and black stamped, brown cover with gilded pages add to its beauty. It was signed by Dr. Morris 'February 1886', two years before his passing. Future reprints with a blue cover would be handled by son Rob.

Rob Morris, a Master Mason since 1846, soon began publishing his poems. In 1864 under the title of "Masonic Odes and Poems," (a copy of which is in the Library of Congress and can be viewed on-line) contains his most celebrated verse compilation, "The Level and the Square." The poem was heralded for its statement on equality and brotherhood, both valued virtues of the Masonic Order. Originally written in 1854, it is easily found on-line. It is also included in "Poetry of Freemasonry." Most old-timers have either heard "The Level and the Square" over the years or read it. It was often recited at Masonic gatherings. The poem is heralded for its statement on equality and brotherhood, important virtues of the Masonic Order.

Dr. Morris signed the laureate edition, "Rob Morris Poet Laureate Feb 1886" and then inscribed a stanza directed to the first owner.

"And you, dear Fellows, while I linger here -
Be mindful of your Friend

And sometime hither bend - To find an open door, with modest cheer
And a welcome to the end - at the Old Kentucky Home"

The recipient of this book entered his name and Masonic title, W. M. Jess M. Glasco 1879-1880 and 1880-1881, his lodge - Bethesda Lodge 142, Gilmer, Texas. Who was Jess Glasco? We find him in the Texas State Historical Association in an article by Mary Glasco Hawkins and Tommy J. Hicks titled "Jesse Martin Glasco: Life of a Texas Legislator and Naturalist."

Jesse M. Glasco (1818-1886) was born in Giles County, Tennessee. He married Louisa Earp in Upshur County, Texas in 1846, and in 1850, began his work as a surveyor. He also served as deputy county clerk, postmaster of Gilmer, Texas, representative of Upshur Co. in the 11th Legislature and as tax assessor. He served in the Mexican War in 1847, and the Civil War in 1861. His lifelong interest in science, botany, mineralogy and engineering led him to the position of meteorological observer for the Smithsonian Institute, also collecting and assembling local examples of reptiles, insects and Indian pottery for them. Well versed in such varied subjects, Glasco wrote articles for the Texas Almanac.

Masonically, Brother Glasco was initiated in 1851, becoming a Trustee of the Masonic Female Institute and a few years later, he was a signer of the charter to establish the Gilmer Male Academy. His inscription in the book tells us he served two years as Master in Gilmer, Texas and remained a Mason until his death on December 17, 1886. Hopefully, his copy of Morris' poetry gave him some comfort in the last ten months of his life.

The flags at the Court House Annex in Owingsville, KY were getting in really bad shape. The last time they were changed, two Vietnam Veterans did it at their own expense. Tattered and faded flags are not to be flown especially with Veterans Day coming soon. Task Force Omega of KY Inc. decided to change them. Former Judge Ex Walter Shrout became aware of this and said he would pay for the American Flag. Sunday TFO raised new flags in preparation of Veterans Day. Pictured are TFO members and Walter Shrout. God Bless our Veterans and those that care.
