GRAND MASTER'S MESSAGE

TERRY WAYNE BOGGESS

Grand Master 2026-2027

Right Worshipful Grand Master, Grand Lodge Officers, Most Worshipful Past Grand Masters, Worshipful Appointed Grand Lodge Officers, Worshipful Deputy Grand Masters, Grand Lodge Committeemen, Distinguished Guest from Appendant Bodies, Out of State Guests, Wardens, Brothers, Family and Friends:

I am so honored to stand here being the 227th Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F. & A.M. My Promise to the Craft of Kentucky is to do everything in my power to make Kentucky Masonry as good or better than it has been left to me. As the Past Grand Masters have left Masonry in great shape, my goal is to do the same.

I would like to thank the Installing Officers today; Most Worshipful Past Grand Master Chris Stout, Installing Master, Most Worshipful Past Grand Master Tim Sanders, Installing Marshall and Past Grand Master Darren Wilson, Installing Chaplain. I am honored to have these distinguished Past Grand Masters, who I call my close friends, to install me today as the 227th Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F. & A.M.

I would like to thank God and my family for helping me on this terrific journey. God for leading and guiding and my family for putting up with me being gone almost every night, to sometimes days at a time. I couldn't have done any of this without them.

I would like to thank my two lodges, Cadiz 121 and Temple Hill 276, for all the love and support they have given me. Also, thanks for understanding that I missed several meetings as I traveled this great state of Kentucky.

As I think back to where my Masonic career started, I used to go the local store in Almo, Kentucky, walking quite a distance and sitting and talking to a couple of Masons from Temple Hill 276 (friends of mine) about everything from weather to who knows what. I became intrigued with all the good things the Masons of Temple Hill 276 were doing throughout the community, schools, etc. until one day I asked that question, "how can I be a part of this".

I was blessed to have been asked to be District Deputy Grand Master for District 2 in 2018-2019 by Most Worshipful Past Grand Master, Gary Rose and Grand Junior Deacon by Most Worshipful Past Grand Master, Ernest Jackson in 2020-2021. I served on committees for the Grand Lodge prior to being elected as Grand Junior Warden in 2023-2024. To say I've been blessed by the craft would be an understatement in my eyes, which I say Thank You.

I personally would like to thank the military for the freedom they provide us so we can meet as Masons throughout the United States of America. Thanks to the police men and women, first responders out there protecting and taking care of us daily.

A special thanks goes out to all the Appointed Officers, District Deputies and Committeemen who have accepted positions to serve the craft for the ensuing year. In my eyes, you are the best Masons throughout the state. I look forward to working with each of you this year.

My theme for this year is "Be That Best Mason."

Be the best Mason you can be. Let's hope and pray that God allows our actions, our character, and the way we serve others to speak louder than our words. May those outside of Masonry see who we are, how we conduct ourselves, and the positive impact we make in our communities—and become intrigued by what they see.

As Masons, we have all taken the same three oaths and obligations and received the same teachings. Now, let's take those teachings beyond the four walls of our respective lodges and put them into action for the world to see.

Let's show our communities what it truly means to be a Mason—not just by what we say, but by how we live, serve, lead, and treat others.

To all I have served with, I thank you for all the knowledge you have bestowed upon me.

It will be my honor to serve this great Commonwealth as your Grand Master and with that being said, please remember, I serve you, the craft. I'm working for you, the craft. You're not working for me.

May God bless each and every one of you and your lodge. May the blessings of heaven rest upon us and all regular Masons! May Brotherly love prevail and every moral and social virtue unit and cement us. I Love You All.

Fraternally Thine,
Terry Wayne Boggess

THE CRAFT AT WORK

In July, Gateway Lodge #109 came together to work our annual 4th of July fireworks sale and organize and host the Vito Casullo Memorial Golf Scramble and we're proud to announce we raised nearly $13,000 in support of our charitable endeavors which include support for the Northern Kentucky Emergency Shelter and Moore Activity Center to name a few. Well done, Brothers!

On September 12th, Gateway Lodge #109 held their 5th Veteran, Military, and First Responders' Appreciation dinner. Pictured is WM Paul Word presenting guest speaker, Army veteran, and retired Covington assistant Police Chief Jim Liles the 2026 Gateway Freedom Eagle. Bro. Jim Liles sharing his story of his time in Vietnam and what it meant to serve his country. DDGM (18) Greg Johnston and MWGM Luke Martin attended to share their application of our Veterans and First Responders. A wonderful time was had by all.

Dear Brethren, Families, and Friends,

It is with great excitement and gratitude that we share some wonderful news: Owensboro-Yellowbanks #130 is moving to a new home at 2339 W. Parrish Avenue Owensboro, KY 42301.

Our new building offers 10,000 square feet on 2.5 acres. That is room to grow, gather, and serve in ways our current space never allowed. It includes space for our stated meetings and degree work, and room for fellowship dinners, family events, and community programs. The grounds give us space for outdoor gatherings, ample parking, and future improvements as our lodge continues to grow.

This move is more than a change of address. It is an investment in the future of our fraternity. The Brothers who built this lodge left us a legacy of brotherly love, relief, and truth. With this new home, we are laying a cornerstone for the generations of Masons who will follow us. It gives us the chance to welcome new members, to do more for our community, and to keep the light of Freemasonry burning brightly for years to come.

A project of this size succeeds only with the whole lodge behind it. In the coming weeks we will share more about our moving timeline, workdays, and ways you can help, whether that means lending a hand, sharing your skills, or contributing wherever you can. Every effort, large or small, helps make this new home ours.

Thank you for your continued dedication to our lodge and to one another. Together, we are building something that will stand the test of time.

Sincerely and fraternally,

Jerry Maggard Sr.

ST. JOHN'S DAY LEAGUE
MASONIC HOMES KENTUCKY

November 1, 2026

Dear Masonic Brothers, families, and friends,

Since its founding, St. John's Day League campaign has modeled itself after the example of two saintly men – St. John the Evangelist and St. John the Baptist. You have celebrated their spirit, followed the example of generous love, and provided support with a donation for the St. John's Day League to provide charitable care for fellow Brothers and wives or widows who live at Masonic Homes Kentucky. We thank you for always coming alongside to provide relief and charity.

Our communities are designed to encourage a healthy lifestyle for aging residents and children. The goal is to offer compassion, care and life enrichment so aging adults remain as independent as long as possible. Activities for seniors are not just to fill up the hours of the day or keep them busy. They are designed to nurture the body, mind and spirit. When we bring together the children at Sproutlings Pediatric Day Care & Preschool located on our Louisville Campus and our residents, it lifts spirits and brings life to our outdoor spaces.

This year we want to create an interactive musical garden on the campus that will be located just under the large beech trees for residents, visitors, and children to enjoy together. With your help, we can create an intergenerational music garden for the young and young at heart to enjoy together for decades to come! Music brings people together, prevents loneliness, stimulates the brain, is good for the soul, while being in nature boosts energy and reduces stress.

As St. John wrote, "Let us not love with words but with actions." Your gift today will make a lasting difference in the lives of our 429 residents and 125 students. An addressed reply envelope is enclosed in this Masonic Home Journal for your convenience. Please send in your reply today or you can give securely online at masonichomesky.com/giving (select St. Johns Day League in the dropdown.)

You will ensure that love, gratitude, and hope continue to shine brightly in our community for all Kentucky masons- but we can't do it without you! Wishing you a blessed and joyful season.

GRAND HISTORIAN'S NOTES

WHY FREEMASONRY HAS ALWAYS FRIGHTENED FASCISTS

Tonight, I want to talk about an old idea that has, again and again, made tyrants nervous.

Not an army or a weapon. A room where men of different backgrounds sit as equals, swear to look after one another, and refuse to let any single authority tell them what to think. I'm talking about Freemasonry and about why, wherever fascism has risen in the modern world, it has moved quickly to crush the Lodge.

This isn't speculation. It's history.

When Benito Mussolini consolidated power in Italy, one of his earliest targets wasn't a rival political party or a foreign enemy. It was the Masonic Lodges. In 1925, his government passed a law effectively banning Freemasonry outright, forcing members to choose between the Lodge and the Fascist Party. Masons were purged from the civil service, the military, and public life. Grand Orient Lodges were raided and shut down.

A decade later, when Franco's Nationalists took Spain, Freemasons were named alongside communists as enemies of the new order. They were hunted, imprisoned, sometimes executed, in a campaign so explicit that Franco created a special tribunal, the "Tribunal for the Repression of Freemasonry and Communism," to prosecute them by name.

And in Nazi Germany, Freemasons were rounded up and sent to concentration camps, forced to wear an identifying badge much like the ones assigned to other targeted groups. Hitler wrote about Masonry with open contempt, treating it as part of a shadowy web he believed was working against the German nation.

Three different fascist movements, three different countries, three different decades, and every one of them arrived, independently, at the same conclusion; the Lodge had to go.

That's not a coincidence. That's a pattern. Patterns tell us something true about the nature of the thing being suppressed.

So, what is it about Freemasonry that fascist regimes found so threatening? I'd point to four things.

FIRST: INDEPENDENT ASSOCIATION:

Fascism, by its nature, wants to be the only organizing principle in a person's life, the party, the state, the leader, fused into one loyalty that swallows every other. A Lodge is a competing loyalty. It's a place where a man's obligations to his brothers don't run through the state at all. Any regime that wants total control over its citizens' inner lives has to be suspicious of any institution it doesn't own.

SECOND: EGALITARIANISM ACROSS CLASS AND CREED:

Freemasonry, since its modern founding in the eighteenth century, has organized itself around the idea that a man's worth is measured by his character, not his birth, his rank, or his religion. That idea is quietly radical. Fascism depends on hierarchy of nation, of race, of party rank. A tradition built on a brotherhood of equals is a standing rebuke to that entire worldview.

THIRD: INTERNATIONALISM:

Lodges have historically maintained fraternal ties across borders. A

Mason in Rome could feel a real kinship with a Mason in London or Paris. Fascism is built on the supremacy of the nation above all else, often defined against foreign influence. An organization whose loyalties cross borders looks, to the fascist mind, like a foreign body inside the national organism — which is precisely the language Mussolini, Franco, and Hitler all used to describe it.

FOURTH: ENLIGHTENMENT INHERITANCE:

Freemasonry carries the intellectual DNA of the Enlightenment: reason, free inquiry, religious tolerance, the rights of the individual conscience. Fascist movements have historically defined themselves in opposition to exactly that inheritance, preferring myth, unity of will, and submission to a single leader over deliberation and pluralism. A society that keeps alive spaces for open inquiry and private conscience keeps alive the antidote to fascist thinking.

One might say that this is history, not the present. But the value of understanding it isn't nostalgia; it's recognition. Fascist regimes had to be suspicious of independent civic institutions, private associations, and cross-border solidarity. This isn't unique to the 1920s and '30s. It's a recurring feature of authoritarian movements whenever they arise, because the underlying logic never changes; total power requires the elimination of competing centers of loyalty and meaning.

Freemasonry is one example of many kinds of civil society such as churches, unions, universities, independent press, and service clubs that authoritarian movements have targeted throughout history, for the same underlying reason. What made the Lodge specifically threatening was its combination of secrecy, solidarity, and its old commitment to liberty of conscience. It offered its members a place to stand that wasn't handed to them by the state.

So, when we ask why Freemasonry has been a target of fascist governments, the honest answer isn't about secret rituals or hidden symbols. It's about something much simpler and much more durable; fascism cannot tolerate a citizenry with independent bonds, independent institutions, and independent conscience. Freemasonry, whatever else it is, has historically been exactly that; a network of ordinary people tied to each other by oath rather than by obedience to the state.

That is why Mussolini banned it. That is why Franco's tribunals hunted it. That is why Hitler's camps imprisoned its members. Not because a Lodge could raise an army. But because a Lodge could raise a conscience, and a government that demands total loyalty has no room for people who've already sworn an oath to something else.

R.W. Grand Junior Warden Bobby Griggs presented this on the evening of August 22, 2026, at the 200th Anniversary Celebration of Clinton Lodge #82. It has been reprinted here with his permission.

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

Brethren,

As we go into November, there are many dates to remember, just to name a few, Veterans Day on the 11th. Let's do what we can to honor the men and women who gave their all for our Country. Many gave their lives to keep our Nation free and our way of life. Remember them when you see the flag of our country and lift all our Veterans in prayer.

We also celebrate the Holiday of Thanksgiving and Bahe'I Faith, Day of the Covenant of the Jewish Faith. Both Holidays are celebrated with family and friends, to share food and the closeness of one another. To worship God and thank Him for our many Blessings.

Brothers and Sisters, love one another. This life is too short for petty differences that usually do not amount to anything. Settle your differences as Masons are taught to do.

God Bless you and your Family and may His Blessings shine upon you!

Mission Statement

It is the mission of the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, SJ, to improve its members and enhance the communities in which they live by teaching and emulating the principles of Brotherly Love, Tolerance, Charity, and Truth, while actively embracing high social, moral, and spiritual values, including fellowship, compassion, and dedication to God, family, and country.

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

Greetings My Brothers All:

As we head into Thanksgiving and the holidays, it's a good time to slow down a little and appreciate what truly matters. In Masonry, we talk a lot about light, growth, and service—but this season reminds us of something just as important: gratitude.

Gratitude for our families. Gratitude for our communities. And of course, gratitude for each other.

The Scottish Rite gives us a place where men from all walks of life come together with a shared purpose. When we gather in the Valley of Louisville—whether for degrees, fellowship, or just a cup of coffee—we're reminded that Brotherhood isn't just a word. It's something we practice. It's the way we show up for one another, lend a hand, share a laugh, and keep each other moving forward.

We also want to take a moment to welcome the newest members of the Valley of Louisville. We're genuinely glad you're here. Every Brother who joins us adds something unique—new ideas, new energy, new stories. You strengthen our Valley just by being part of it.

As the holiday season unfolds, let's keep that sense of gratitude close. Let's enjoy time with our families, support our communities, and continue building the kind of Brotherhood that makes the Scottish Rite special.

From all of us in the Valley of Louisville, we wish you a warm, joyful Thanksgiving and a holiday season filled with peace, laughter, and light.
