To all my brothers across this great Commonwealth of Kentucky,

It is that wonderful time of year that we call holiday time. I hope you all had a Thanksgiving filled with family and friends, and that you have plans to be with them again at Christmas. There's a lot of traveling to be done, and I hope you all are safe in your journeys

As we continue our journey together in Freemasonry, I am reminded of the many blessings we share through our fraternity. Each of us comes to the Craft with different experiences, talents, and beliefs, yet we are united by a common bond and a desire to become better men. This brotherhood gives us the opportunity to make a lasting difference in our lodges, our families, and our communities.

As Masons, we understand that our obligations extend far beyond the doors of our lodge rooms. The lessons we learn must guide our actions each day as we practice Brotherly Love, Relief, and Truth. It is easy to speak of these principles among our brothers, but the true measure of our Masonry is found in how we treat others in our daily lives. Let us strive to demonstrate kindness, integrity, and compassion wherever we go.

During holiday time especially, we need to remember our communities. There are families facing hardships, neighbors who feel forgotten, and individuals who need a helping hand. We must also remember the widows of our departed brothers. A simple phone call, a visit, or an offer of assistance can remind them that they remain part of our Masonic family. Relief is not always measured by the size of a gift, but by the sincerity of the heart that gives it.

Each lodge is made up of brothers with different talents and abilities. Some are great at ritual, others in leadership, education, or fellowship. Many work quietly behind the scenes, ensuring our lodges continue to grow and prosper. Every contribution is valuable. Just as individual stones must be properly dressed to form a strong foundation, our combined efforts build strong and successful lodges. Never underestimate the difference one brother can make through his willingness to serve.

The future of our fraternity depends upon the foundation we build today. The Trestle board reminds us that every worthwhile undertaking begins with a plan. We must ask ourselves what kind of lodges we want to leave for future generations and what legacy we hope to build. This responsibility does not rest upon the Master alone. It requires the wisdom, participation, and commitment of every brother. When we listen to one another and work toward a common purpose, we strengthen our fraternity and prepare it for the future.

Remember, the Great Light of Masonry provides lessons that encourage us to live with wisdom, humility, and compassion. We need to continue to seek its guidance in our decisions and find strength in its teachings when challenges come up. Although we may not always understand another brother's journey, we can offer patience, respect, and encouragement as we walk with him.

Building a lasting legacy does isn't just grand gestures alone. It happens one meeting at a time, one act of kindness at a time, and one brother helping another when help is needed. It happens when we welcome a new Mason, encourage a discouraged brother, support a family in need, and conduct ourselves in a manner that brings honor to our fraternity. It is taking the opportunity to "Be That Best Mason" every day.

My brothers, those who came before us worked diligently to preserve the principles of Freemasonry. Now it is our turn to carry it forward. Let us remain committed to our obligations, strengthen our fellowship, and continue making a positive difference in the world around us. May we never become so focused on the business of our lodges that we forget the purpose behind our labor. Brothers, get out and travel! Visit each other's lodges, share that bond of fellowship we all have. I hope you can support your District Deputies, and look for the Grand Lodge Officers out and about in your lodges.

May the Great Architect of the Universe grant us wisdom to lead, humility to learn, and compassion to serve. May He bless our lodges, our families, and the communities of this great Commonwealth. Above all, may we leave behind a legacy of men who live their obligations, care for one another, and make the world a better place.

Fraternally thine,

Fraternally Thine,
Terry Wayne Boggess

Grand Historian's Notes

Did you know the Masonic Homes of Kentucky has a U.S. Post Office? Here is a little history of how it came to be:

In 1931, the U.S. Post Office at Saint Matthews, KY, was made a substation for the Louisville Post Office. Up until that date, the Masonic Widows and Orphans' Home had used the St. Matthews Post Office for its U.S. mail matters, as this Post Office was only one mile from the Home. Since the St. Matthews Office was made a substation for the Louisville Post Office in 1931, the Post Office Department compelled the home to deposit their mail in the Louisville Post Office. The cost of mailing the Masonic Home journal in the Louisville Office is one cent per copy. The cost in the St. Matthews Office was 1½ cents per pound (eight Journals weigh one pound), which amounts to about $80.00 per month extra postage on the Journal. This extra postage cost is very unjust, as the Journal is not published in Louisville, and if St. Matthews had a Post Office today, the cost of mailing the Masonic Home Journal in it would only be 1½ cents per pound of eight Journals.

That is not all. The Post Office Department compels the Home to carry its mail over the Star Route from the Home to the Louisville Post Office, which is five miles without compensation. The drayage on sixty thousand Masonic Home Journals, twice per month, is expensive. I recommend that the Superintendent of the Home file claim against the Post Office Department for Star Route Service of at least $1,000.00 per year, for the past two years; and if not allowed, to refer it to the Department of Justice.

Last February I made application for the establishment of a Post Office at the Masonic Widows and Orphans' Home. After continuous and persistent effort, and with the assistance of Senator Barkly, the First Assistant Post Master General has agreed to the establishment of the Office. This Post Office will not only eliminate the extra expense caused by the Home in the use of the Louisville Office, but it will profit by the cancellation, which two items should be worth from $1,500.00 to $2,000.00 per year to the Home. I recommend the establishment of the Post Office in the Home.

Through the splendid efforts and untiring work of Past Grand Master John L. Philips, a post office has been established at the Masonic Home, known as "Masonic Home, Kentucky," with our superintendent, Brother James C. Morris, as the postmaster. The thanks of this Grand Lodge are due Brother Phillips for his labors in this behalf. The establishment of the post office results in a large saving in the expense of mailing out the Masonic Home Journals.

In the 1935 Grand Lodge of Kentucky Proceedings, Past Grand Master and President of the Masonic Widows and Orphans Home and Infirmary, James Ganett reported:

During the year, the Post Office, Masonic Home, was established and our Superintendent was appointed Postmaster. Mr. Morris is not only Superintendent, he is also Editor and Manager of the Masonic Home Journal and Postmaster, and is Generalissimo of the Institution and all its activities, keeping close contact and familiar with what is being done in each Department.

Worshipful Brothers and Brothers ALL,

This year The Grand Lodge of Kentucky F.&A.M. Committee on Scholarships has designed a simple but informative Information sheet for submissions to Most Worshipful Grand Master Terry Boggess's Scholarship Program. The Info sheet will be placed on the Grand Lodge Website by our RW Grand Treasurer and Webmaster, F. Keith Dreier, PGM, for all to use. Simply fill the form out and submit to one of the committeemen for consideration. The committeemen's contact can be found on the website as well, but their email(s) are as follows: (Chairman) MWPGM, Todd Jones toddjones3333@yahoo.com, WB Eddie Hazelett CommDet24@hotmail.com, and WB Steven Henderson stevenhenderson1554@hotmail.com. The information gathered from this submission sheet will assist future Grand Lodge Officers and Committeemen in the collection of data, such as, how many of our submissions are attending college/universities versus trade and technical schools? How many of our submitted students have family members involved in Freemasonry or its Appendant Bodies? How many of our submitted entries have held membership in any of our Masonic Youth Groups?

Thank you in advance for your continued support for this program and the students in which it serves.

On Sept 26th, the 2nd 100 Masons - A Night of Brotherhood was held with great food, fellowship, and Masonic Brothers and families gathered together in the support of Masonic charities (Masonic Homes, Masons Helping Masons, Shriners Children's Hospital Lexington, & St. John's Day League) that will bring aid, relief, and support to Brothers and families who'll need it. We had 110 Masonic Brothers and families in attendance for a wonderful meal and presentation from Ms. Cambry Gossett from Shriners Lexington Hospital. There were Brothers from around the state of Kentucky and Ohio who sat in Lodge demonstrating Masonic Brotherhood. We had five superb speakers, Worshipful Brothers Kevin Schneider, Larry Payne III, Mike Cummins, Alex Gallucci, and Jerry King, who shared their stories of their Masonic journey. A special thank you to Good Faith #95, Gateway #109, Bradford #123, and Trinity #163, who were full sponsors for 2026 event which raised $6000. We were honored to have RWDGM Terry Boggess to sit as the special guest Master and we were also honored to have MWGM Luke Martin in attendance for his 2nd 100 Masons Night. Brethren,

What a tremendous time of year to gather with family and friends and celebrate our Blessing and moments with each other. Holding our children, grand children and possibly great grand children is what much of life is all about.

The Masonic year is narrowing down and many great things have happened. Congratulations to our newly elected Grand Lodge Officers and may their travels be safe and fulfilling.

Your Consistory is preparing their schedules for next year for more exciting Scottish Rite Freemasonry. Your Temple could use your help in some capacity. There many areas of service that may pique your interest. Let`s make next year our duty to turn in a Scottish Rite petition, all we have to do is ask!

Happy Holidays to all and please continue to keep our Members, our Country and our Fraternity in your thoughts and prayers.

May God Bless!

At Lexington Lodge #1 the Entered Apprentice Degree was conferred on Kevin Levesque and Russell Neely at the Nov. 2nd Stated Communication. Bro. Levesque's father made the trip from Maine to be present. Acting Master Tracy Burdett presented the book "Introduction to Freemasonry - Entered Apprentice" by Carl Claudy (courtesy of WB Dan Kemble) to the new EA's.

The Arlington Elementary School in Lexington held their 2nd annual Trunk or Treat event last month on the school campus so that the youngsters could have a safe and fun Halloween event. When the Brothers of Lexington Lodge #1 and Devotion Lodge #160 learned that the faculty of the school was responsible for providing the candy at this festive event, they knew that simply was not right and offered to supply candy for the kids. The brothers of both Lodges, along with the help of the Sigma Chi Fraternity at the University of Kentucky, donated over ten thousand pieces of candy for the event. It looks like the kids had a great time! Attached is a photo of WB Tristan Root of Devotion Lodge #160 and Brother Darrin Gulla of Lexington Lodge #1 before several hundred pounds of candy as well as a photo of some happy students of Arlington Elementary.
