GRAND MASTER'S MESSAGE

TIMOTHY D. SANDERS
Grand Master 2017-2018

My Brothers, This will be the last article I will write as the Grand Master of Kentucky Free and Accepted Masons.

It is with great pride and honor that I have had such a rewarding opportunity to have humbly served you, the Brethren of Kentucky. I wish to thank each and every Brother across this great Commonwealth for all the memories you have given me and the love each of you have displayed to me these past years as I have traveled as D.D.G.M., Grand Marshal, and the four years as an elected Grand Line Officer, meeting and having fellowship with all of you in your lodges.

You have all touched me and my family with the out pouring of Brotherly love and kindness for which I will always be grateful to you, the Craft of Kentucky.

We will soon be meeting at The Galt House in Louisville for our 219th Grand Communication and there we will elect a new Grand Master and his core of Officers. Brothers lets all rally behind them and continue to make this fraternity the best in the world of which we all can be proud of. Support these men so they can do the work of governing, leading and securing our future and very existences. I wish them all my best and pledge my total support to each of them.

Brothers please be safe in your travels as you crisscross this great state, driving into the wee hours of the night promoting this great fraternity, it's teachings and way of life for all the world to see.

And one last time before I lay down the gavel, let me say as I have stated all year long...

"We need to love one another, Take care of our widows and orphans, and be the Men we professed to be when we knelt at that altar"

I love each and everyone of you and will never forget the love you have shown me my Brothers...

WM. O. WARE LODGE OF RESEARCH

Dan Kemble (pictured left) will be installed as Master of Wm O. Ware Lodge of Research Wednesday, November 7, at the Masonic Temple, 1553 Madison Avenue, Covington. Installing officer for the evening will be M.W. Gary C. Rose, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky. Dinner will be served at 6:15 pm followed by the Installation of Officers. (The Lodge will open at 5:15 pm by retiring Master Bill Lorenz, for a brief meeting to complete 'end of the year' business). Acclaimed Masonic scholar and author, John Bizzack, Master of Lexington Lodge No. 1, will be the guest speaker for the evening.

Brother Dan Kemble, a fifth generation Freemason, is well suited to hold this important position, having served the Grand Lodge of Kentucky as District Deputy Grand Master, Grand Pursuivant and Grand Lodge Parliamentarian. He also served two Lodges as Master and is currently a member of Hays Lodge No. 517 (4th generation) and Good Faith Lodge No. 95. Interestingly, Dan's father, Robert Kemble, served as a District Deputy Grand Master under M. W. Grand Master William O. Ware.

Brother Kemble served Wm O. Ware Lodge of Research as one of the planners of the four successful "Sewing Seeds of Freemasonry" symposiums that took place across the Commonwealth; Chairman of the WOW-LOR Website (in process), as well as holding various offices within the Lodge. Dan and his lovely wife, Holly, reside in Covington.

You and your lady are invited to attend.

Reservations are required for the catered Dinner library.covsr@outlook.com

APPALACHIAN PAST MASTERS

On Saturday, March 31st, 2018, the Appalachian Past Master's Society held their annual meeting at Thomas DeVenny Lodge No. 929 in Freeburn, Kentucky. The meeting was opened by the Appalachian Past Master's Society Degree Team with President Mitchell May (also of Thomas DeVenny Lodge) presiding. A great time was had by all, followed by a super meal provided by the APMS and the Brothers at Thomas DeVenny Lodge. A large gathering of members were in attendance to watch a total of 16 current or Past Masters join the Appalachian Past Master's Society that day, and receive the "Order of Solomon." Officers elected for the ensuing year were President Mike McQueary of Somerset Lodge No. 111/ Sievers Lodge No. 491;

Vice President, Anthony Skeans of Paintsville Lodge No. 381 and Secretary/Treasurer Bobby Danner of Krypton Lodge No. 905. A special thanks goes to the Appalachian Past Master's Society Degree Team, outgoing President Mitchell May for a job well done, Most Worshipful Past Grand Master Terry Bowman, and the wonderful Brothers of Thomas DeVenny Lodge for their assistance and hosting of the event and their superb hospitality. The Society was then closed, with a proposed date of holding next year's event, at Somerset Lodge No. 111 in Pulaski Co. on June 29th 2019.

SYMBOLISM OF THE BEEHIVE - DAN KEMBLE, HAYS LODGE #517

SYMBOLISM OF THE BEEHIVE

The Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, Most Worshipful Bro. Tim Sanders, has been the most visible proponent of Masonic Education among elected Grand Lodge officers in recent years. This year alone, Most Worshipful Bro. Sanders has generated a robust discussion of the Ancient Landmarks of our Order, granted his permission for the state's Lodges of Research and other similar societies to engage in the jointly sponsored "Sowing Seeds of Freemasonry" project, and has made it a requirement for his Lodge of Excellency Award that a Lodge must have at least one member pass the Masonic Scholar Quiz.

To promote visitation among Lodges this year, the Grand Master adopted a "Traveling Beehive," thereby incorporating into his program one of Masonry's oldest symbols.

Most Worshipful Grand Master Sanders said, "I chose the beehive because it is an important, but often overlooked, symbol that we've introduced to in the Third Section of the Master Mason Degree. The beehive represents industriousness, and we should all be industrious in our efforts, especially towards a Brother in need."

The Bee Hive appears as an early emblem in Masonry. It was adopted as the symbol of industriousness by the Grand Lodge of England at its founding in 1717. Later, following the schism between the Ancients and the Moderns, and the subsequent establishment of the United Grand Lodge of England in 1813, the Beehive fell out of use as an emblem. Leadership in the United Grand Lodge cited the use of the Beehive as a symbol in many other organizations and religions and felt that it was not sufficiently exclusively Masonic in its nature to be considered a symbol of the Craft.

It is true that the Beehive is a very traditional symbol, appearing prominently in Egyptian hieroglyphics, Roman literature, one of Shakespeare's plays, Mormon scripture and many other places as well.

Professor David Harrison refers to the Beehive as a lost symbol of Masonry and points out that while it is no longer used in most of the world, the 1813 decision of the United Grand Lodge had no effect in the United States. American Lodges continue to use the Preston-Webb lectures which include the Beehive as a symbol. Thus, American Freemasonry is the only place where the Craft is instructed in its meaning.

In the lecture of the Master Mason Degree, Pirtle's Kentucky Monitor describes the Beehive as follows:

The Bee Hive is an emblem of industry and recommends the practice of that virtue to all created beings, from the highest seraph in the heavens to the lowest reptile in the dust. It teaches us that as we came into the world as rational and intelligent beings, so should be ever be industrious ones; never sitting down contented while our fellow-creature around us are in want, especially when it is within our power to relieve them without inconvenience to ourselves.

When we take a survey of nature we view man in his infancy more helpless and indigent than the brute creation; he lies languishing for days, months, and years, totally incapable of providing sustenance for himself or guarding against the attack of the wild beasts of the field or sheltering himself from the inclemencies of the weather. It might have pleased the Great Creator of Heaven and Earth to have made man independent of all other beings; but as dependence is one of the strongest bonds of society, mankind were made dependent on each other for protection and security, as they thereby enjoy better opportunities of fulfilling the duties of reciprocal love and friendship.

Thus was man formed for social and active life -- the noblest part of the works of God; and that he will so demean himself as to not be endeavoring to add to the common stock of knowledge and understanding may be deemed a drone in the hive of Nature, a useless member of society and unworthy of our attention as Masons.

There are two specific characteristics of the Beehive that deserve our attention. First, the Beehive is usually depicted with seven bees around its opening. Seven was traditionally believed to be the number of a perfect (complete) Lodge and, of course, is the lawful quorum for a Lodge of Entered Apprentices.

As we know, Lodges were originally intended to labor on the Entered Apprentice Degree. Our practice of mandating that Lodge business be conducted exclusively on the Master Mason degree is a deviation from the original practice. Ironically, it is only in the United States that this rule exists. Outside the United States, Lodge business is generally performed on the Entered Apprentice Degree. While the symbol of the Beehive may be missing, the seven bees (Entered Apprentice Masons) are still representative of the manner in which Lodge business is conducted.

Second, the Beehive is a call to study and knowledge. The lecture tells us that it is demeaning not to add to the common stock of knowledge and understanding. It further tells us that one so demeaned is useless and not worthy of our attention as Masons.

How does one add to the common stock of knowledge and understanding? By reading, studying and discussing Freemasonry with one's peers. By committing oneself to engagement in Masonic Education programs. By ensuring that good and wholesome instruction are present in every Lodge meeting. Albert Mackey's words about Masons that read echo the message found in the lecture of the Beehive.

As our Grand Master's Traveling Beehive makes its way across our Commonwealth, let it be a standard by which we measure our own industriousness. May our Lodges be a Beehive of industry, ruled and governed by those who are committed to rendering assistance to our fellows and adding to the common stock of knowledge and understanding.

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

VALLEY OF LOUISVILLE

Greetings from the Valley of Louisville.

When was the last time you attended a Scottish Rite event in your Valley. If it has been a while or even if the only time you attended was the day you joined, I want to invite you to return. This is your Valley. You are a member and can attend any of our stated meetings or special events. We want you to enjoy and value your membership in the Scottish Rite. Before each stated meeting we have a light meal, and there are special events where we have a sit down dinner where your family is invited to attend. These are at no cost to you. All we ask is for you to make a reservation for the special dinners, so the kitchen crew, lead by Bro. Larry Mann, 32°, KCCH will know how much food to prepare.

Our first meeting in October is one such special meal where the family is invited to attend. It is our annual Feast of Tishri which is hosted by the Louisville Lodge of Perfection and its officers. It is an evening where Scottish Rite members come to be reminded of the purpose of the Feast of Tishri. There will be a short educational program held after the meal.

On November 16-17 we will hold our annual Fall Reunion. This year's reunion is named in honor of Ill. Robert M. Josephson, 33°. Bro. Josephson was a very active member in the Valley of Louisville for many years. He was a Past Venerable Master of the Lodge of Perfection and a Past Master of Kadosh for the Consistory. He was also a mentor, an educator to new and older members alike, and a friend to all. Please help us to make this a very successful reunion to honor his memory. Successful means we need petitions for membership, so speak with your Master Mason friends about continuing their Masonic education. Successful also means to come and continue your own Masonic education by sitting through the degree conferrals. You are also invited to sit through the communications of the degrees that will not be conferred on stage.

We ask that if you sign a petition that you also be willing to be a mentor to the Brother whose petition you signed. This means being there throughout the degrees to sit with the new candidate through the meals and be available during those times when the class may have a break to look around the facility. This does not mean you have to know the answer to all of the questions. It just means you are there to support the Master Mason whose petition you signed and who trusted your judgement enough to want to continue his Masonic education.

Reunions are for members to come to the Valley to participate in the degrees. Participation does not necessarily mean actually being in the degree itself. It can mean assisting in the robing room, being a greeter at the front door, working in the dining room, helping the ritual director, helping the class directors keep the candidates on schedule, working with the stage crew and many other areas in the Valley. It can also mean just attending so you can renew friendships and make new ones. Come early for the coffee and light refreshments. You never know who you will get to meet and don't be shy about introducing yourself.

Let me take this opportunity to thank each member of the Valley of Louisville for the support you have shown to Bro. Randolph Starks, 32°, KCCH and myself over the past year as we have stepped into our appointed positions. It takes the support of the members to make the running of our Valley a success. We have had a steep learning curve, but with your assistance we are starting to feel comfortable. I would also like to personally thank Ill. Bro. J. William Ryan, 33°, Personal Representative of the Orient of Kentucky for his patience, guidance, and assistance. It is greatly appreciated.

We look forward to seeing you at one if not all of our upcoming events.

Fraternally,

David L. White, 33°
Personal Representative, Valley of Louisville

MASONIC LIBRARY AND MUSEUM ASSOCIATION COVINGTON SCOTTISH RITE

“I Didn’t Know That.....”

The Grand Lodge of Kentucky issued its first “Masonic Constitutions or Illustrations of Masonry” eight years after forming Grand Lodge. Previously, to that date, Virginia’s “Grand Lodge Ahiman Rezon (help to a brother)” was utilized. Kentucky’s 1808 Constitutions not only contained the “Regulations and Government of the Subordinate Lodges”, the Installation Ceremonies, the Traditional History, Foundation Stone Ceremonies, etc. as one may expect, but surprisingly the ritual for the Charges of the first three degrees, the Lectures, and working tools. Although almost exactly ‘word for word’ to present day usage, the work is not coded as found in later ‘rituals’. As a matter of fact, this section of ‘Illustrations’ is not really in ritual form at all, as it contains no floor work, obligations, or officers ‘parts’, but is written as “Remarks” on the degrees.

Also surprisingly, there are “Remarks” on the Degrees of Master Mark Mason, Super Excellent Master, and Royal Arch Masons” including the Order of High Priesthood! This is ten years before the Grand Chapter, Royal Arch Masons was formed!!

Today, only three original copies are known to exist. However, the Masonic Library and Museum Association – Covington, has two spiral bound copy prints on its shelves.

You can visit your MLMA – Covington every Wednesday, 6:00 to 8:00 pm or for an appointment just email Bill Lorenz, Librarian:

YORK RITE OF KENTUCKY

Brothers, I’m very pleased to write to you as the Grand Commander of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Kentucky and I would like to this opportunity to ask each of you where you are on your York Rite journey? Now many of you will simply reply, “I’m not a member of the York Rite”. And while this is understandable, it is also incorrect.

You see, your York Rite journey began when you took the obligation of an Entered Apprentice. That’s right, you have been a York Rite Mason ever since. Because Symbolic Freemasonry, our “Blue Lodges”, are the first Bodies of the York Rite.

Many of the unanswered questions of Symbolic Freemasonry are answered in the other York Rite Bodies. The Senior Warden’s claim of payment of wages, the completion of the Temple, the True Word of a Master Mason, and why Grand Master Hiram could not communicate it when accosted. These and many more questions are all answered as you advance in York Rite Freemasonry.

And, just as you were encouraged to advance from an Entered Apprentice or Fellow Craft, I can ask and encourage you to advance farther in your York Rite Journey. To be Exalted in a Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, Greeted in a Council a Cryptic Masons, and, if you are a Christian, to be Knighted into the Commandery of Knights Templar.

In addition, each new member that is Knighted as Knight Templar will receive a commemorative coin, designating you as a member of the Grand Master’s Class of 2018 -2019.

Please consider seeking more Light in Freemasonry by completing your York Rite Journey.

If you have any questions, just let me know at billriggs@hotmail.com.

Or just ask any member of the Chapter, Council or Commandery. Hope to see you as you seek further Light.
