GRAND MASTER'S MESSAGE

TIMOTHY D. SANDERS
Grand Master 2017-2018

My Brothers, September and the heat of summer is now here in full force and so are the outdoor degrees and special events happening all across our state. Brothers take the time to travel out to one of these events and fellowship with your brethren.

The time of this year is growing short and we must make every effort to start to prepare for our Grand Communications in October. Brothers we need to take a close look at all that is to come before us and let us discuss these items in our lodges so that we can make the best decisions for the craft as a whole.

Included in this issue are the items proposed for this year and those that were held over from last year for your consideration. Brothers let seek out the sublime wisdom of GOD by asking for guidance for what is best for Masonry so that we continue to grow and remain strong in our beliefs and the morals we hold so dear to our hearts.

I hope to see each of you at Grand Lodge this year.

Remember what I always say and at this time it's more important than ever;

"We need to love one another, Take care of our widows and orphans, and be the Men we professed to be when we knelt at that altar"

Fraternally Thine,

KENTUCKY

Passionate People. Inspiring Lives.

Join us at the Master Masons Dinner

Masonic Communities Kentucky will host the annual Master Masons Dinner during Grand Communication on Monday, October 15, 2018 in Grand Ballrooms B & C at the Galt House Hotel. Doors will open at 6 pm and dinner will begin at 7 pm. Tickets are $15 and can be purchased by contacting the Grand Lodge of Kentucky.

We will be honoring Most Worshipful Grand Master Tim Sanders for his Remember Me campaign. It supports a technology program It's Never 2 Late (IN2L), used by residents in our memory care community. It's built on a picture-based, touch-screen interface allowing users to "touch" their way in to find engaging, educational, spiritual and personalized content that help maintain and enhance their cogitative and physical abilities. Supporters received a pin designed by Tim's wife Sue that features Forget-Me-Not flowers in a heart shape.

Brother Jim DeCesare (Bowling Green Lodge No. 73) will also be recognized with the 1867 Award. Formerly the Friend of the Homes Award, it recognizes a Kentucky Mason who has provided ongoing and long-time support of Masonic Communities. Jim, a retiring member of the Kentucky House of Representatives, has been a key legislator for issues impacting non-profits in aging care and a great advocate for individual senior living service companies. In 2011, Jim supported legislation that helped Masonic Communities better serve its Masonicare residents who receive housing, nursing care and other services but are unable to fully pay for their care.

The Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Kentucky awarded Masonic Communities Kentucky President and CEO Gary Marsh and Chief Operations Officer J Scott Judy with the Most Worshipful Grand Master's Achievement Award.

SECTION 7 - APPEALS.

The Committee on Appeals shall consist of three permanent members of the Grand Lodge with qualification of Judge of the Circuit Court as provided by the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Kentucky to be appointed by the Grand Master, one to serve one year, one to serve two years, one to serve three years, the oldest in point of service to be chairman, and the vacancy each year to be filled for a term of three years. ~~The judicial power of the Grand Lodge shall be vested entirely in this Committee. The Committee on Appeals shall have exclusive and final jurisdiction, subject, however, to the right of any parties aggrieved to appeal to the Grand Lodge, to hear and determine all trials of Masters of Lodges and controversies between different lodges and the trial of all such charges for breaches of Masonic laws by members of lodges as the Grand Master may direct; provided, however, that the Grand Master shall not refer to said Committee for trial charges preferred against a member of a lodge, not an officer, unless requested by the lodge in which the accused holds membership so to do. Provided, further, that upon the failure of such lodge to request such reference, members of the lodge constituting ten percent of the entire membership may, in writing, request such reference to the Grand Master, in which event he shall be authorized to refer the charges to the Committee, which shall have jurisdiction of the trial of the offense.~~

If the Committee on Appeals of the Grand Lodge shall declare a trial irregular, or the sentence illegal, the trial is thereby made void, held for naught and the accused is ipso facto restored to the same status in his lodge and the fraternity that he held at the time charges were preferred, but he may be retried on the same or new charges.

If the Committee on Appeals of the Grand Lodge shall restore to good standing a Mason who has been suspended or expelled, he is not thereby restored to membership in his lodge, so far as it affects his standing with the Craft at large, and he may obtain certificate of that fact from the Grand Secretary, which certificate shall operate as a demit.

SECTION 1 - AFTER SUSPENSION FOR NON-PAYMENT.

A brother suspended for non-payment of dues shall rest under suspension until he has submitted a petition for reinstatement to the lodge from which he was first suspended, which petition must be referred to and be reported on by committee the same as any other petition for membership, paid the amount owing up to the time of suspension, and re-elected to membership by unanimous ballot of the membership present.

In case of a Brother who has been suspended for non-payment of dues, at the request of any Brother in said Lodge presenting grounds set forth in this paragraph, the Master shall order an investigation to determine the reason for the non-payment resulting in suspension. The decision to reinstate shall be made by a three-fourths majority vote of those present and eligible to vote.

In the event the Brother is reinstated under these circumstances, both the Grand Lodge and the subordinate Lodge shall reinstate the Brother to good standing effective as of the date of the suspension, and, if the family is unwilling or unable to pay, shall waive the dues of the Brother for as long as he remains under said disability.

If funeral services are requested for the Brother while under suspension, the guidelines set forth in Article 13, Section 6 shall govern, regardless of whether the Brother is, or is not, reinstated under this section. (2018)

ARTICLE 1-DECLARATION (Declaration) SECTION 1.

The Grand Lodge of Kentucky, Free and Accepted Masons, acknowledges a belief in God to be the great fundamental principle and Landmark of Freemasonry upon which our fraternity is erected. Without an avowal of such belief no man shall be initiated in a lodge of Free and Accepted Masons, and if a Freemason shall renounce or forsake his belief in God, or if he does not continue to entertain such belief, he shall not remain a member of any lodge and shall be expelled.

ARTICLE 1- DECLARATION AND LANDMARKS SECTION 1.

The Grand Lodge of Kentucky, Free and Accepted Masons, acknowledges a belief in God to be the great fundamental principle and Landmark of Freemasonry upon which our fraternity is erected. Without an avowal of such belief no man shall be initiated in a lodge of Free and Accepted Masons, and if a Freemason shall renounce or forsake his belief in God, or if he does not continue to entertain such belief, he shall not remain a member of any lodge and shall be expelled.

The Grand Lodge of Kentucky, Free and Accepted Masons has adopted the following as fundamental Landmarks of the Order:

1. The Belief in a Supreme Being (A belief in the existence of God as Grand Architect of the Universe is one of the most important Landmarks of the Order. It has been always deemed essential that the denial of the existence of a Supreme and Superintending Power, is an absolute disqualification for initiation. The annals of The Grand Lodge of Kentucky F. & A. M. never yet have furnished or could furnish an instance in which an avowed atheist was ever made a Mason. The very initiatory ceremonies of the first degree forbid and prevent the possibility of so monstrous of an occurrence.)

2. The Belief of Immortality of the Soul (The Immortality of the Soul, Freemasonry offers no argument. It states the principle as an unquestioned integral part of the Institution. The hope that life does not end with the physical body, but continues through a boundless future, has through past ages been an inspiration to brightness of life, patience, perseverance and process. As a life force it has throbbled through the inertia of savage existence and quickened man to those extraordinary efforts that produced civilization. A shining pillar of cloud by day, of fire by night, the beacon of humanity is Immortality.)

3. The Volume of Sacred Law (The "Book of Law" shall constitute an indispensable part of the furniture of every Lodge. I advisedly say, a Book of Law, because it is not absolutely required that everywhere the Old and New Testaments shall be used. The "Book of Law" is that volume which, by the religion of the initiate, is believed to contain the revealed will of the Grand Architect of the Universe. Masonry does not attempt to interfere with the religions of its disciples, except so far as relates to the belief in the existence of a Grand Architect of the Universe, and what results from that belief. The "Book of law" is to the Speculative Mason his spiritual Tresle-Board, without this he cannot labor; whatever he believes to be the revealed will of the Grand Architect of the Universe constitutes for him this spiritual Tresle-Board, without this he cannot labor; whatever he believes to be the revealed will of the Grand Architect of the Universe constitutes for him this spiritual Tresle-Board and must ever be before him in his hours of Speculative labor, to be the rule and guide of his conduct. The "Book of Law," a religious code of some kind, purporting to be an exemplar of the revealed will of God, shall form in essential part of the furniture of every Lodge under the auspices of The Grand Lodge of Kentucky F. & A. M.)

4. The Legend of the Third Degree (The Legend of the Third Degree is an important Landmark, the integrity of which has been well preserved. There is no rite of Masonry, practiced in any country or language, in which the essential elements of this "legend" are not taught. The lectures may vary and indeed are constantly changing, but the "legend" has ever remained substantially the same; and it is necessary that it should be so, for the Legend of the Temple Builder constitutes the very essence and identity of Masonry.)

5. Secrecy of the Institution (Which includes: The necessary words, signs, and tokens, whereby one Mason may know another to be such, in darkness as in light; that every regular Lodge must be Tyled while at labor; that every visitor seeking admission to the Lodge must be examined and prove himself a Mason, unless duly and properly avouched for; those other matters which cannot be written in any language.)

6. Symbolism of the Operative Arts (THE FOUNDATION OF A SPECULATIVE SCIENCE UPON AN OPERATIVE ART, and the symbolic use and explanation of the terms of that art, for purposes of religious or moral teaching. The Temple of Solomon was the cradle of the Institution, and, therefore, the reference to the operative Masonry, which constructed that magnificent edifice to the materials and implements which were employed in its construction, and to the artists who were engaged in the building, are all component and essential parts of the body of Freemasonry, which could not be subtracted from it without an entire destruction of the whole identity of the Order. Hence, all the comparatively modern rites of Freemasonry, however they may differ in other respects, religiously preserve this temple history and these operative elements, as the substratum of all their modifications of the Masonic system.)

7. A Man must be of Lawful Age (Every initiate that comes to the door of any Lodge under the auspices of The Grand lodge of Kentucky F.&A.M., must be of lawful age (eighteen years of age) and coming to said Lodge under the "tongue of good report," meaning well recommended.)

WILLIAM O. WARE LODGE OF RESEARCH

Who Am I?

The following is taken from an early eighteenth century Masonic manuscript. Guess the three answers and win yourself a 'free' dinner ticket to the Wm O. Ware Lodge of Research, October 31st meeting.

Clue: Only one is H.A.

(Note: language, spelling, and punctuation edited for ease of reading)

1) "go to .... 's grave for to try if they could find anything about him to lead them to the valuable secret which this famous preacher had" ..... "they had already agreed, if they did not receive the secret .....taking a grip at the finger.... Who am I?"

2) "The word 'cunning' renders ingenuity as for wisdom and understanding. When they are both found in one person, he can want nothing....so the widow's son's name was..." Who am I?"

3) "Here lies the flower of Masonry, superior of many other, Companion to a King and to princes brother, Here lies a heart, its secrets could conceal, Here lies a tongue that never did reveal....." Who am I?"

So, who are the 'famous preacher', this 'widow's son', and the 'flower of masonry' and how are they related in the same Masonic manuscript? Whence came the 'Legend of Hiram'? Also, what significance are the 'paying the craft their wages' and "communicating with a triple voice" all found within this one early Christian, Masonic Manuscript? Every masons should want to know. All of this will be discussed! Your input is important!

Make your reservations now and plan attend WOW LOR on Wednesday, October 31st. Dinner begins at 6:15 pm, at the Covington Scottish Rite.

Reservations and answers should be sent to Lodge Master, Bill Lorenz
