GRAND MASTER'S MESSAGE

TIMOTHY D. SANDERS
Grand Master 2017-2018

My Brothers, Summer has started (a little quicker than normal this year) and I hope all of you and your lodges had the opportunity to help and to be involved with the Veterans cemetery or graveyard projects. This was a great opportunity to give back to those that had paid the ultimate price of freedom so that we all can enjoy the benefits of living in a free country and to honor our loved ones that have pasted on.

Thanks to all the Brothers who attended the District meetings. It seems that the turnout has been an overall success with the attendance being higher this year in several districts. More importantly, we all had a chance to meet and greet old friends and make some new ones.

As we go into the summer months, which have always been the growing months, let us enjoy the warmer days and nights along with the start of the many outdoors degrees and events while we also continue to help our great fraternity grow too. Take the time to travel to lodges you have never attended and ask your Brothers to go with you and make it a road trip so you all can reflect back on the great fellowship you will enjoyed while traveling from Lodge to Lodge.

Brothers remember to reach out to your own lodge Brothers who are inactive or shut in by letting them know it's their lodge too, asking them to come fellowship together with their Brothers making them feel welcome and needed as they should be, offer them a ride, go by their homes and visit with them, we need each and everyone of our Brothers from the man that cuts the grass to the master ritualist remember there is strength in unity and the more horses you have the easier it is to pull the cart. Remember this is one of the mandatory requirements of the "Lodge of Excellence Award".

The annual birthday celebration of our great nation is this month, July 4th, we all need to celebrate the birth of OUR country and those great men, women, and Masons who helped form this great country in which we all live. Remember their sacrifices and the trials they endured in the forming of this United States of America. These same morals, virtues, and principles, for which they so proudly fought to establish this great country, are still in place today, alive, well and should be respected as such.

Brothers in today's world, just as it was then, Freemasons were, and still are, upright men to be respected. We must continue to be those men who stand out from the crowd, for who we are and for what we stand for, while working in our communities for the good of ALL mankind. Our morals and teachings are just as important today as they were back then, especially in today's world with all the attacks and hatred which seems to be at our very doorsteps, in our schools and in the communities we all call home.

We have made great strides in the past few years reaching into and letting our lights shine by being involved in the communities in which we all live, but we can't stop now. Not only by helping where we should, but by the awareness we are broadcasting into the public about who we profess to be, the interest in Free Masonry continues to grow.

I ask each of you to help and do your part in keeping this fraternity of ours the greatest in the world!

Remember what I always say;

"We need to love one another, Take care of our widows and orphans, and be the Men we professed to be when we knelt at that alter"

Fraternally Thine,

Masonic Homes of Kentucky becomes Masonic Communities Kentucky

MASONIC COMMUNITIES

K E N T U C K Y

Masonic Homes of Kentucky is a place where tradition and heritage meet the latest in aging services, senior living and quality care. After a year spent looking back and celebrating our momentous 150th anniversary, we decided it was time to turn the attention to the future. The Masonic Homes team wanted a way to better reflect the progressive, modern organization that we are today, while still honoring the Masonic tradition that has served our residents well for so long.

Thus, Masonic Homes of Kentucky will now be known as Masonic Communities Kentucky. To go along with the new name, we also have a new look, one that embodies our values and embodies how all the parts to a whole make up a community.

How did the new name come about? It started when the term “community” began to arise repeatedly several months ago, when talking with residents, employees and community partners to learn more about the impact Masonic Homes has on their lives.

Communities bring people together, are supportive, open and inclusive to all. Communities also bring all the resources together so that people can spend their entire lives there and need nothing else.

Along with adopting the word “community,” we knew we needed to keep the word “Masonic” in our name. From the Masons who established the home to care for widows and children, to our incredible Masons today who continue to give back to the community, it’s a key part of who we are. It’s a word that tells the larger community that we are a group with an incredible legacy, one that has served this community and so many around the country.

So while we may have a new look, the incredible legacy of care that is delivered will stay the same. This new brand will carry our organization forward into the next 150 years of creating community for those we serve.

ORPHAN'S FRIEND LODGE #523 AND N.H. SHAW LODGE #608

Orphan's Friend Lodge of White Plains and N.H. Veteran Chad Funkhouser, P.M., Secretary of N.H. Shaw Lodge opened up the event with a short history about Decoration Day and then the pledge to the flag was given by all in attendance.

It gave all in attendance pause to reflect on the freedoms we have due to the sacrifices made by these veterans.

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

VALLEY OF LOUISVILLE

Brethren, The Louisville Scottish Rite had a very successful two-day Spring Reunion in March of this year, and by the time you read this article we will have initiated several more Masters of the Royal Secret in our one-day Summer Reunion on June 9th. The newly received Brothers of the Scottish Rite expressed a great deal of excitement and interest in their initiatory experience!

I have participated in the ritual work of the Blue Lodge, York Rite and the Scottish Rite for many years now. As all Masons who have learned and conferred ritual have experienced, learning and presenting the ritual is the best way to absorb the material and begin to assimilate it into our mind and spirit and lives. During a recent conferral of the 14th Degree, the Degree of Perfect Elu, it seemed to me that I was hearing some of the degree's messages and meanings for the first time. I would like to share some of the lessons inculcated with you.

A key lesson in this degree is that we should be determined to be a "Mason without guile," yet somehow this had never registered with me as forcefully as it did at this Reunion. What is guile? The dictionary defines it as "slyness or cunning, craftiness, wiliness" – or in other words, appearing to be something we're not in order to accomplish an end. When I think of guile, I recall a Biblical passage, John 1:47, in which Jesus remarked upon seeing Nathaniel, "Behold, an Israelite indeed in whom is no guile!" This passage serves to inform us as to how rare and remarkable this trait is in a man! Yet, as Masons, and particularly Scottish Rite Masons duly invested with the 14th Degree, Perfect Elu, we hold ourselves out to be such a man. Are we? As "good and true Masons" we are called upon "to reflect upon past actions and future intentions" – in other words, we are expected to regularly make and take time to review our actions, thoughts and character, and see if we are measuring up to our obligations.

Were we to heed the lessons inculcated in this degree, we would put away all "false and feigned professions" from our lips, and wash away all "lukewarmness and indifference" from our hearts. We would be what we profess to be – and what a wonderful and remarkable thing that would be!

A momentary pledge is not sufficient to accomplish such a lofty goal. Rather, it is a lifestyle of reflection, commitment, action and again reflection. There are constant and persistent obstacles to overcome and temptations to resist. When we stumble and fall short, as we must, given our human natures, we may be tempted to harshly criticize ourselves and perhaps give up the effort.

Let us be kind to ourselves as well as to others. Let us remember that we cannot accomplish these goals by ourselves. Let us celebrate and be grateful for the Brotherhood of Man, which is Masonry, under the Fatherhood of God, and know that we are not alone. Recalling that the Psalmist spoke, "Set a watch O Lord before my mouth, keep the door of my lips," we may faithfully and confidently devote and consecrate ourselves "to the service of justice, right and truth."

Fraternally and Respectfully yours,
Randolph Starks, 32° KCCH
Secretary/Registrar, Valley of Louisville

VALLEY OF LEXINGTON

Brethren, It gives me a great deal of pleasure to share with you some of the accomplishments the Valley of Lexington has made in the last couple of years. Importantly, we have shown positive growth. More importantly, we have greater participation from new and older members. We have become more educated on the Degrees of the Scottish Rite. To what do we owe this improvement?

Simply put. The VMAP program. The Valley Membership Achievement Project is a program embraced by the majority of the Valleys in the Southern Jurisdiction. Coupled with the leadership of our personal representative, Ill. Bro. Chris L. Stout, PGM, 330, this project has allowed us to identify our areas of strengths and weaknesses. For example, we are passionate about education. We have education at each stated meeting. But through VMAP, we quickly realized that we should be doing even more. We are now concentrating in that direction.

VMAP also helped to identify that our reunions should be just that, a coming together of Brothers of a similar mindset. I remember when I joined the Scottish Rite back in 1980, Brothers came to the reunions to see each other, to reminisce about days gone by, and generally just to enjoy each other's company, many would come in the morning for breakfast and stay all day until the banquet. They didn't have a part in any of the Degrees, but they came just to be a part of the reunion experience. One of the aspects of VMAP is to achieve that long-lost experience. Much of VMAP is purely social. It really has nothing to do with the Scottish Rite, except to strengthen the fraternal bonds between us. We have enjoyed many gatherings over the last couple years that had absolutely nothing to do with Masonry. We have enjoyed golf tournaments, sporting clay tournaments, cigar nights, bourbon tastings, and even a Man-B-Que. Each of these have brought groups of Brothers closer.

In short, my Brothers, VMAP is intended solely to help you enjoy your Scottish Rite experience even more. It is a member centered program. The Valley and the Orient only benefit when each of you benefit. It is hoped that as your Scottish Rite experience becomes more valuable to you, you will participate more. Most importantly, it is hoped that you will enjoy your experience more. That you will look forward to taking an active part in the business of your Valley. Whether it be on stage, in the kitchen, behind the scenes, or greeting folks at the front door, your Valley wants and needs you. If you have an inspiration to do something that is not being done now, let the personal representative, the secretary registrar, or the VMAP Chairman know. I can assure you, you will be accommodated. I urge each and ever one of you to share your vision with the leaders of the Craft. After all, this is your Fraternity. The success or failure of it is entirely up to you.

Fraternally,
Rick Nation, PGM, 32° KCCH
VMAP Chairman, Lexington Scottish Rite

VALLEY OF COVINGTON

Brethren, The first half of 2018 is rapidly drawing to a close. Our last stated meeting before we go dark for the summer months will be Friday June 15th and we will celebrate a successful first half by holding a casual meeting and cookout. Between our Pikeville reunion and Spring reunion, we now have twenty new Masters of the Royal Secret and a new corps of officers.

Our Spring reunion in memory of David Burns, 320 KCCH was enjoyed by all who attended. We even had an all-star cast performing the 32nd degree (sounds better than saying that Past officers were filling in for new officers on vacation).

A special thanks goes out to Jeff and Vicki Moermond and all who helped in pulling off another outstanding 1200 Club Car Show. I understand that we had the Illustrious DJ Bobby Crittendon, 330 spinning platters. (Thanks Bobby!!!).

I hope everyone has a safe and enjoyable summer and look forward to seeing you at our Feast of Tishri on September 21st where will be installing our Ambassadors and kicking of the second half of 2018.
