GRAND MASTER'S MESSAGE

GEARY F. LAIRD
Grand Master 2019-2020

Greetings Brothers,

As we continue to face these unprecedented times, I hope you and your family are healthy and safe. With our strong faith and your continued support, we will overcome one of the biggest crises our nation has ever experienced during our lifetime. We all look forward to returning to our respective lodges and getting back to the basics of Freemasonry.

Due to the coronavirus pandemic, we were unable to hold the majority of our scheduled District Meetings and it is unclear at the present time whether we will be able to have the remaining meetings. Hopefully we will be able to re-schedule the District Meetings at a later date.

During these difficult times, there is no precedent in which to rely on to address the many issues caused by this pandemic, which has adversely effected our Masonic Fraternity. While we are working through this, we need to prepare for the future, should we ever find ourselves in similar circumstances. There should be some definitive wording in our constitution which would allow us the ability to function as a lodge during times like these. We should have discussions on ways to accomplish this goal. I would like to remind everyone that all Amendments to the Constitution must be received in the office of the Grand Secretary by July 15 prior to the Grand Lodge Communication.

Due to the extenuating circumstances we are facing, I have implemented the following changes concerning the Grand Master's Lodge of Excellence Award.

THE GREAT DAY OF SERVICE Since the Great Day of Service was cancelled, any Lodge making a monetary donation to the Masonic Homes Kentucky will earn 30 points towards the Grand Master's Excellency Award. Several lodges have reached out to assist our Masonic Homes during these challenging times and I want to thank them for their support.

THE BICYCLE PROGRAM This program has been affected because of school closings. In lieu of donating a new bicycle to your local elementary school as an attendance or incentive award, your lodge may donate the cost of these bicycles to the local school student resource center which will benefit those students. Ten points per bicycle for a maximum of 40 points.

THE RITUAL COMPETITION To qualify for the Grand Master's Excellency Award, all requirements must have been completed from September 1, 2019 through August 16, 2020. However, we have Ritual Competition dates scheduled for August 21, 22, 28, 29 - which is after the August 16 deadline. With this being an opportunity to fulfill one of the mandatory requirements, I will allow those participating in the competition only, to count this toward the requirement to achieve the award. Again, this only pertains to the Ritual Competition and all other requirements must have been attained by August 16, 2020. In order to process all applications and to ensure that the awards will be able to be presented at our Grand Lodge session, all applications must be received by the Grand Lodge Office by August 31, 2020.

To continue to keep our membership engaged in masonic education, we have enhanced our Grand Lodge website "Members Only Section" under the Navigation label "Extended Education".

GRAND MASTER'S MESSAGE

This is a place where you will find information of interest to all Freemasons. Every mason should strive to make advancements in masonic education.

While on the Grand Lodge website, I encourage you to check out the online store for items that we have for sale. Purchasing items will help fund our Masons Helping Masons Program and our Veterans Program.

HONORING OUR VETERANS Brother John Phillips along with the Veterans Affairs Committee has come up with another way to say "Thank You" to the United States Armed Forces Veterans, who have honorably served our great nation.

We are asking for the collection of "trial size toiletry items" to be donated by the lodges and brought to the district meetings where they will be collected, organized, and dispersed to the inpatient Veterans of VA Hospitals within the state. Any brother attending the district meetings is encouraged to donate items also.

Such toiletry items include comb, shampoo, conditioner, toothbrush, toothpaste, floss, denture cleaning tablets, shaving cream, razor, after shave, body wash, lotion, powder and deodorant.

When the inpatient Veteran receives these collected items, a small sticker will be attached to each container or bag stating,

"Donated by the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F&AM".

I ask for your support in this great venture. Feel free to contact Brother John Phillips if you have any questions or concerns. We are all in this together. Please remain safe and remember that your Grand Lodge is here for you, your family and your lodge during these difficult times. Our country and our fraternity have a long history of overcoming adversity. I have no doubt that we will prevail and come out stronger than before.

May God continue to bless our great fraternity and may God Bless America! Brothers, as always, I encourage you to BE THAT MASON THAT MAKES A DIFFERENCE!

April 2, 2020

Greetings Brothers,

I'm sure each of you are aware of the escalation of coronavirus (COVID-19) cases here in Kentucky as well as other states and countries. According to the World Health Organization, the CDC and other health professionals, we still have not reached the peak of this pandemic.

It is crucial that we do our part to prevent the further spread of this highly contagious virus which has impacted so many lives. Therefore, I am extending the suspension of all masonic activities including district meetings, regular lodge meetings, outdoor degrees and masonic funerals until May 15, 2020. There will be further updates as we get closer to this date.

Brothers, it is my hope that by the middle of May, the Governor of Kentucky will lift the restrictions and we can get back to business as usual. The health and safety of you and your family will always be my primary concern. May God continue to bless our fraternity and the United States of America.

Fraternally,

Geary F. Laird

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

VALLEY OF COVINGTON

Greetings Brethren,
Nature is a wonderful thing. It brings us the beauty of Spring and the warmth of Summer. She can also be quite ugly while doing that, as in floods and hot, oppressive days. Right now, it is the Coronavirus virus that she has hit us with. Because of that, we have been forced to hunker down and wait out the “storm”. It is in times like these that I like to refer to the words of Clint Eastwood. We must “adapt, overcome and persevere”.

A lot of the things planned for the Valley for this year, have by necessity, been put on hold, or canceled. I am sorry to report that the May, two-day reunion scheduled for the 15th and 16th has been canceled. The elections and installation of officers of the Lodge of Perfection and Knights Kadosh are now tentatively scheduled for the stated communication in June, if we can meet at that time. We will report more on these events as updates on our ability to meet become known.

I would like to take this time to showcase a lesser known entity in the Valley of Covington. A lot of members are not aware of the “Covington Scottish Rite Foundation” and its purpose. Currently, we support four programs in the Valley. Below is an update from the Vice-President and Clinical services chairman, Kevin Sell. In this and future issues, you will become more aware of the many wonderful things our Valley does for the RiteCare Program of the Scottish Rite.

COVINGTON SCOTTISH RITE FOUNDATION UPDATE

Kevin Sell, Vice-President/Clinical Services Chair

The Foundation is busy weathering the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic in terms of planning for our fall sporting clay tournament and managing investments to insure the best outcome for our funding needs. We are delighted to see launch of Covington Scottish Rite newsletter, “The Rite Way”, and support its purpose of providing communication to our Valley Members.

Here is an update of our RiteCare service providers in the Valley.

ASHLAND/RUSSELL

Our Lady of Bellfonte (Bon Secours) has moved up their closure to April 30. We are waiting on confirmation of this along with the status of the Pediatric Rehab unit that provides our services. We received word another health care group may pick up the pediatric services including speech therapy. If a service disruption is inevitable, we will notify the Valley office and our Personal representative.

NORTHERN KENTUCKY

Speech and Language Therapy Services LLC is in Cold Spring and continues to provide the RiteCare speech services. Just last fall, the Foundation awarded a matching grant to this site that helped purchase an ultrasonic (UT) diagnostic machine. This piece of equipment shows the tongue location which allows therapists to be more effective in the treatment plan.

Breaking The Code is located in Wilder and provides our Dyslexia Tutoring. We were one of the first Valley’s in the Southern jurisdiction to add this service.

Sandy Valley / Big Sandy

Our original provider was Highland Regional Medical Center, but they were acquired by Appalachian Regional Healthcare (commonly known as Highlands ARH). Our therapists and coordinator remained after the transfer, so there were no changes to our RiteCare operations and provided services. Special thanks to both of our clubs, Sandy Valley and Big Sandy, for really stepping up to get this service in a much-needed area.

The Foundation equipped all of our centers with iPads several years ago to advance the therapy and tutoring. Little did we know that years later, these iPads (along with other devices) would be used for tele-therapy due to COVID 19. This type of innovation allows us to continue RiteCare and help our kids.

If you have any questions, you can reach Kevin at email: kgsellnky@gmail.com

VALLEY OF LEXINGTON

Spring has finally arrived! After being dark in January and February, I was ready to begin 2020 with our March meeting. Sadly, the COVID-19 virus caused the meeting to be cancelled and has brought Masonic activities and so much of our daily routines to an abrupt halt.

Although we cannot be together, we must continue to help others, assist neighbors, Brothers that are shut in, and our widows, many who cannot leave their homes due to health issues.

The Summer Lexington Scottish Rite Reunion is tentatively scheduled for June 5th at the Lexington Scottish Rite Consistory. The Reunion will be named in honor of Richard T. Nation, Past Grand Master 32° KCCH. He was Past Master of Shelby Lodge No. 662 and Secretary there for many years. He served the Grand Lodge of Kentucky in many capacities.

We must recognize Brother David Gillespie 32° KCCH who lead the Valley of Lexington in completing the VMAP program for 2019. Thank you for your work and dedication to our Valley.

Until Masonic activities were temporarily halted, our Personal Representative, Ill. R. L. Trent 33° was visiting our Scottish Rite Clubs. Our Clubs are an important part of the Scottish Rite. Supporting them is vital our success.

When we can begin activities again, please come join us at the Valley of Lexington on the 3rd Thursday of each month for fellowship and gain more Masonic knowledge.

I would like to close with a quote often used by Past Grand Master Wilson K. Wilder, "Let Your Masonic Light Shine".

Fraternally,

Jimmie N. West, 32° KCCH
Secretary/Registrar, Valley of Lexington

VALLEY OF LOUISVILLE - MASTER CRAFTSMAN PROGRAM

During the August 2017 Biennial Sessions, Sovereign Grand Commander Ronald A. Seale, 33°, released a new addition to the Master Craftsman Education Program. This addition is different from the previous format, though. With the current programs, you complete a number of quizzes. The numbers vary from course to course, and you mail them in to receive a certificate and pin. The new program, however, is a set of PowerPoint presentations on each of the 29 degrees of the Scottish Rite, which have been pre-loaded onto a USB Flash drive (shown here).

These quiz-format courses, though they can be, and often are, done in groups, are meant to improve the individual's understanding of our organization's rituals and history. It is for this reason that, under the guidance of the Supreme Council 33°, we created Master Craftsman Group Studies. We wanted a program that engages a group in discussion about the degrees and their lessons. Each presentation has slides posing questions to engage the membership to think about what they have seen and heard in the degrees of reunions they have attended. At the end of each presentation is an open-ended question meant to encourage the members to discuss. This program was designed to be used in several different ways:

- Individuals may purchase it to improve their own knowledge as well as to start a discussion group among their fellow Scottish Rite Brothers. (Purchase online from the Supreme Council or in person from Ill. Brother Jim Bullis at the Louisville Scottish Rite once we reopen)
- The Valley Education Officer, or any member, may use it to supply the educational program for their monthly Valley meeting.
- The Valley can use it to communicate the degrees during their reunions.

VALLEY OF LOUISVILLE

Scottish Rite Brethren,

At the time of this writing our fraternity remains constrained from assembly in person, and all meetings and events have been canceled or postponed. Nevertheless, true Masonry resides within, and “the mysteries of Freemasonry are safely lodged in the repository of faithful breasts.”

We are experiencing and enduring one of the most unusual and difficult challenges of our generation, a worldwide pandemic and national calamity. But such challenges to our prosperity, health, peace and happiness are not unique in the human experience – they have occurred before under different guises – yet “Freemasonry, notwithstanding, has still survived.”

Let us all be encouraged by our Masonic brotherhood, be strengthened in our resolve by our obligations, and manifest our faith through love for one another in these difficult times. The Scottish Rite has reached out to our elderly members to determine if they require assistance and to offer the balm of fraternal care. Each of us can do likewise for our brothers, our neighbors and our family members.

In this manner, and through extending ourselves in other acts of service, we will pass through this dark time to a brighter day of renewed fellowship.

For this Brotherhood of Man, under the Fatherhood of God, does not falter or fail when manifested by true Masons, and it is for that reason that – “through evil report as well as good, Freemasonry has maintained its benevolent influence, spreading wider and wider over the earth.”

During these times we ask that you not make personal visits to the Scottish Rite office until further notice. Our Staff is taking precautions and following established guidelines during this crisis. Please call me directly, or the office at (502) 584-6185, or my email, to conduct business.

Fraternally and faithfully thine,
 Randolph Starks, 33°
 Secretary/Registrar, Louisville Scottish Rite

Brethren, Once this pandemic has passed and things get back to normal I'd like you to consider the following.

If you are a Scottish Rite Member and not a member of a SR Club in your area or if you are a Blue Lodge Mason and are interested in joining the Scottish Rite, “the University of Freemasonry”, please contact the Scottish Rite Valley or Club in your area.

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

MASONIC LIBRARY AND MUSEUM ASSOCIATION COVINGTON SCOTTISH RITE

“I Didn’t Know That.....”

One of the most interesting, as well as highly coveted Masonic honors is the Royal Order of Scotland. Containing two degrees, Heredom of Kilwinning and Rosy Cross, their ritual is based upon the Robert Bruce tradition, that at the Battle of Bannockburn, the Scottish forces were aided by the Knights Templar (some say Freemasons) who appeared on top of a hill at just the right time to assist in the defeat of the English who outnumbered the Scottish army, three to one.

Legend has it that King Robert Bruce rewarded 63 Knights for their assistance at the Battle of Bannockburn, into the membership of Knights of the Rosy Cross on St. John’s Day, 1314. The constitution states that the King of Scotland is the hereditary Grand Master and today, at every meeting of the order, a chair is left vacant for the King of Scotland, should he appear. Regardless of legend, the Rosy Cross is the first masonic degree of Knighthood, and the Order may well be the first of the “high” degrees.

The Order of Heredom of Kilwinning supposedly corrects the irregularities that had crept into the three degrees of St. John’s Masonry. St. John’s Masonry was the established masonic lodge traditions before Grand Lodge was formed, and was held onto after the Grand Lodge sought to make changes. Heredom (Hebrew =harodim) means ruler, and there-for the order was prepared for those who have been leaders in Masonry.

Heredom of Kilwinning explains the first three degrees in a purely Christian setting, and the majority of which is in an irregular rhyming verse. This quaint style was used to memorize large portions of verse through the “rhyming method” and was very effective in its ability to teach, as well as learn in the sixteenth, and seventeenth century. In the ritual, both York and Scottish Rite Masons will notice bits and pieces of degrees they have obtained. With very minor exceptions, the original ritual is precisely as used in today’s ceremonies. This original ritual, written in French, is in possession of the Grand Lodge of the Order in Edinburgh.

Removing all legendary history, the degrees appear to have been created in England, sometime after 1725 (the first known Master’s degree) and before 1741. The Order refers to the Master’s degree in its ritual and in 1750 documents of the Order show that the order existed at least as early as 1741. Some hints of evidence place it in France around 1735 - 1740.

As the King of Scots is the hereditary Grand Master of the Order, a ‘Deputy Grand Master and Governor’ is in place to act in his absence. The Grand Lodge of the Order is located in the Chapel of St. John, St. Johns Street, Edinburgh, Scotland, the oldest (1735) building in the world, built for Masonic purposes. Lodge Canongate-Kilwinning held their meetings there. Of course other buildings were used previously by Masons, but none built with that specific intention. Archibald Donald Orr Ewing, Bart, MA is currently the Deputy Grand Master and Governor of the Order.

Since 1753, Provincial Grand Lodges have been put in place around the world to confer the degrees and conduct business in their local. The Provincial Grand Lodge of the U.S.A. was chartered on October 4, 1877, with Albert Pike as the Provincial Grand Master. Sir James E. Winzenreid is currently the Provincial Grand Master. Kentucky’s Committee Chairman is Sir Terry Bowman, PGM.

It is of little wonder that in the United States, the Royal Order of Scotland is a highly sought after Masonic honor. The degrees are like no other, done in a most impressive and formal manner, rhythmic and beautiful. Members from throughout the U.S.A. and some from abroad attend. A formal banquet with the ladies always follows.

Membership requires one to be a Trinitarian Christian, with five years as a Master Mason, a 32° Scottish Rite Mason (the Provincial Grand Lodge will accept a Knight Templar) and having distinguished one’s self in the Craft, one’s Church or public affairs performed for the benefit of fellow-man. However, admission is by invitation only.

The Provincial Grand Lodge of U.S.A. has two meetings set for 2020. A Special Meeting is to be held in Nashville Tennessee on Saturday, May 30, 2020, and their Annual Meeting in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania on August 29, 2020. Candidates will be received at both meetings. -----What do you think?
