GRAND MASTER'S MESSAGE

GEARY F. LAIRD
Grand Master 2019-2020

Greetings Brothers,

It is hard to believe that it is already September and our Annual Grand Lodge session will be here before we know it. Where has this year gone? There have been many questions and concerns about holding our Annual Grand Communication in October. Many jurisdictions have either cancelled or postponed their Grand Communications. Due to the circumstances and the uncertainty of the months ahead, the plan going forward is to have a one-day Grand Communication Session at the Galt House scheduled for Monday, October 19, 2020 pending approval from the delegates. Registration will be on Sunday, October 18, 2020 and the morning of Monday, October 19, 2020. With the current restrictions and mandates in place, we will be unable to hold the session at levels that we have been accustomed to in the past.

At the present time, due to the health risks associated with COVID-19, attendance will be limited to elected and appointed Grand Lodge Officers, Past Grand Masters, DDGM's and one delegate from each subordinate Lodge and other essential members needed to conduct the business of the annual session, including the election. Due to limited capacity, the Ritual Competition scheduled for Sunday, October 18, 2020 will be cancelled. It is of utmost importance that each lodge has a delegate and is represented at the upcoming Grand Lodge Session. We will be following the CDC guidelines and the Governor's directives.

An abbreviated session with only essential business will be addressed. We will provide lunch to all the delegates in attendance. Unfortunately, it is necessary to cancel the John E. Moyers Master Masons Dinner on Monday evening. It is disheartening that we are unable to hold this dinner and invite the Appendant Bodies and other Brothers who regularly attend our Annual Grand Lodge Session, hopefully this pandemic will soon be a very distant memory.

Due to the inability to hold Lodge meetings, we used the internet to host our first ever virtual Town Hall meetings as we navigated through the issues due to the coronavirus pandemic, keeping the craft apprised of the situation. Also, there were two virtual Grand Junior Warden Candidate Forums held enabling the craft to meet the candidates and ask questions concerning their views for Freemasonry here in Kentucky.

As a means to continue our masonic education during the down time, various lodges and individuals provided Masonic educational material for reference through different web pages including the Grand Lodge Website and I would like to thank all that made this possible. The Committee on Masonic Scholars used this platform to reach out to those who wanted to increase their knowledge pertaining to our Book of Constitution. We have had four hundred thirty members who have passed the constitutional quiz since October 2019. My sincere thanks to the Committee on Masonic Scholars for creating an opportunity to continue providing education to our members.

As I look back over the past year, even after being shut down for several months, we were still able to accomplish things that enhanced Freemasonry in Kentucky. The program that the Committee on Masonic Education provided for us was outstanding. Their passion for our fraternity and its history was evident by the enthusiasm they had shown and the many hours they put into the program to ensure its success. My heart-felt thanks to the Committee.

Many times, I have expressed my passion for our ritual in Freemasonry and after having attended the Ritual Competitions in August, it was a pleasure to see others who had that same passion. Masonry teaches many lessons which need to be exemplified in our everyday lives. Now more than ever, we need the lessons of Freemasonry to be more prevalent to overcome the problems we face today. Thank you to the Committee on Ritual Competition and everyone who participated in the competition.

Brothers, I encourage you to hold lodge, if you can do so safely in order that we may take care of business and prepare for our upcoming Annual Communication Session. Continue to follow the guidelines in place and if you are sick please remain at home. Thank you for your continued patience and support.

May God continue to bless our great fraternity and may God Bless America! Brothers, as always, I encourage you to BE THAT MASON THAT MAKES A DIFFERENCE!

Fraternally Thine,

Geary F. Laird,
GRAND MASTER OF MASONS,

Brethren,
I sincerely hope and pray this note finds you and your Families well during these times of trial and hardship.

As we return to our Business Meetings, your attendance would be most appreciated. Especially when we resume having Reunions. There are many areas in your Consistory where you can assist, such as, degree work, staging, kitchen crew, robing room, greeting, just to name a few. By volunteering you will definitely increase your Scottish Rite experience.

Again, allow me to introduce you to a very exciting website sponsored by the Southern and Northern Jurisdictions of the Scottish Rite and Shriners International. (BeAFreemason.org) This new website brings a wealth of knowledge to a man interested in joining Freemasonry.

Please continue to check in on our senior members and keep our Families, Nation and our Fraternity in prayer. Take care and may God Bless!

Sincerely and fraternally,

Terry L. Bowman, PGM, 33°
Deputy of the Supreme Council
Orient of Kentucky

VALLEY OF LEXINGTON

Scottish Rite Brethren,

I hope everyone and your families are doing well. This month we want to talk a little about our Scottish Rite history here at the Valley of Lexington. The following is a timeline and a rendering of our temple.

The History of Lexington Consistory consists of:

- January 18, 1971: Letters Temporarily issued for all four Scottish Rite Bodies in the Valley of Lexington
- January 25, 1971: Officers of all Bodies were installed by Ill. Robert Kinnaird 33°
- May 15, 1971: First Reunion was held, class totaled 408, the largest in nearly 120-year history of Scottish Rite Masonry in KY.
- October 18, 1971: Supreme Council issued charters to all four Bodies
- April 15, 1973 (Palm Sunday): Groundbreaking ceremonies for new Temple
- May 1, 1973: Work begins on new Temple
- May 5, 1974: Dedication and Cornerstone laying ceremonies
- May 18, 1974: First class held in Temple
- December 5, 1977: Payments completed on Building

*Current Location of Scottish Rite Lexington Consistory #4
553 Rosemont Garden, Lexington KY
Meets 3rd Thursday of each month, dark Jan/Feb*

I am continually looking for degree cast members, kitchen staff, and other appointed officers. If you are interested or think you may be interested, please contact me (859-492-4496) or any officer at the Lexington Scottish Rite (859-277-7856). We need more involvement from members to keep the fraternity alive!

Fraternally and faithfully thine,
Roger L Trent, Jr. 33°, Personal Representative

VALLEY OF MADISONVILLE

Brethren,
It is with regrets that I inform you that the Ill George Combs 33° Reunion has been postponed due to the ongoing pandemic. We will keep you posted as things progress.

May God bless you and our Country!

MASONIC LIBRARY AND MUSEUM ASSOCIATION COVINGTON SCOTTISH RITE

“I Didn’t Know That.....”

It has been 30 years since the publishing of John J. Robinson’s highly regarded book “Born in Blood – The Lost Secrets of Masonry” was written. The unmatched impact of this book and the two that followed, “Dungeons, Fire and Sword -The Knights Templar and the Crusades” and “A Pilgrims Path-Freemasonry and the Religious Right”, was felt throughout the Masonic world. Both “Born in Blood” and “Pilgrims Path” have been included in several top ten lists of the most important Masonic book of all time.

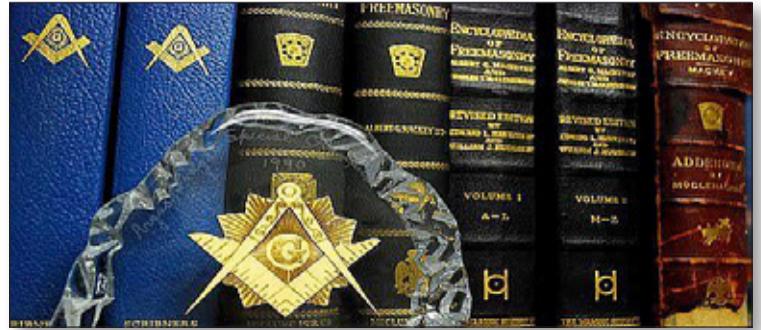

I will never forget the day my friend and brother, Jerry Davis called. Jerry and I were friends since high school and he had signed my lodge petition. He was quite excited saying “A fellow from Northern Kentucky had written a book and was on radio talking about Masonry”. “Oh no!” the thought came to me, “not another anti-mason on the radio”. After advising Jerry not to listen to that trash, he informed me that this fellow was saying ‘good things’ about Freemasonry and I should turn on the radio and listen.

For the first time on radio, a non-Mason was intelligently explaining the Masonic Order, in a very positive way. He was tough on Masonic critics but also tough on the Masonic membership, whom he chastised for having so little knowledge of their own origin. It was true as my own Instructor had told our lodge class many years ago, that Freemasonry began at King Solomon’s Temple! The radio show had so many ‘call-ins’, that the program was extended for an extra hour. John Robinson had an answer for every caller, whether pro-Mason, critic or undecided.

It was announced John Robinson would speak at the Syrian Shrine Temple in Cincinnati, and a group from our lodge decided to attend. Again John answered every question and kindly signed every copy of his book. Covington Scottish Rite definitely wanted John Robinson to visit. As Public Relations Chairman, it was my responsibility to extend the invitation and make the arrangements on behalf of Fred Bryant, our Personal Representative. John graciously accepted and a large crowd was present to hear his talk. He spoke of his fascinating findings on Masonic symbols in Hieronymus Bosch’s painting ‘The Wayfayer’.

John was extremely popular with the Craft who seemed thirsty for Masonic light, but others found fault in his findings and his Masonic knowledge, as he was not a Mason. Fortunately, these leaders of the Craft began to see what a wonderful impact the “Born in Blood” book and John Robinson was making on Freemasonry, and John was invited to speak before many national Masonic groups across the nation. Both young and old members were returning to their lodge, with a new sense of pride and understanding of what Freemasonry is and what Freemasonry means.

John Robinson and Ray Evans PGM (Ohio) and Secretary of the Valley of Cincinnati, became very close friends. The Cincinnati Masonic Library had been used by John with no restrictions other than “Be fair”. Ray and Al Rice, Deputy of Ohio - Grand Lt. Commander NJ, frequently had lunch with Brother Bryant and Ed Vardiman (Secretary/Registrar), and I would tag along.

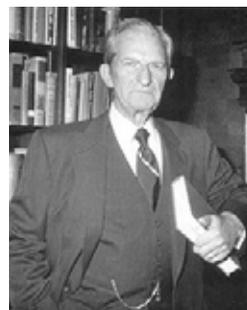

On occasion, John would join us and we would talk Masonry. John had sold his Kentucky farm and now lived in Cincinnati (Mt. Adams). He wished to join Freemasonry as a member, but also realized his impact on public opinion would naturally be less, knowing he was a Mason, with favorable opinions of Freemasonry. His buddy Ray ‘jokingly’ told him if he wrote any books after becoming a Mason, he would have to have him expelled.

John did join the Fraternity, Cincinnati’s Nova Caesarea Harmony Lodge No. 2, in November 1992 and the Scottish Rite, the following spring. John was already ill and he continued to worsen. John Moyers, Sovereign Grand Inspector General for Kentucky, accompanied Fred, Ed, and me to lunch with Ray Evans and Al Rice. We then stopped by to visit Brother John. John Moyers presented John a lifetime membership gold card in Covington Scottish Rite, Southern Jurisdiction and I, as Prior of Kentucky Priory KYCH presented John an honorary membership. Two days before his death, in an unusual emergent session with Sovereign Grand Commander Robert O. Ralston 33° and Alfred E. Rice 33° presiding, John Robinson was created a 33° Honorary Inspector General. The John J. Robinson 33° Memorial Class Reunion was held by the Valley of Cincinnati, in April 1995. Ray Evans continued to be a friend to John’s widow, Bernice.

John final book “A Pilgrim’s Path” was published in 1993, which many believe has become the definitive laymen’s guide to Freemasonry and is widely used by Masonic Lodges as an orientation resource for new members. On the front cover in full color, was Hieronymus Bosch’s “The Wayfayer”, the same painting John had presented as copy machine prints with a typewriter description of Masonic symbols in the painting, at the Covington Scottish Rite.

John’s legacy does still live on. Not only are all three of his books still very popular with the Craft, he is credited with being the ‘founding visionary’ of the Masonic Information Center run by the Masonic Service Association of North America. Whether one believes in the ‘Templar’ theory’ or not, John Jamieson Robinson made a huge impact on Freemasonry.What do you think?

All three of John J. Robinson’s books are available in the Masonic Library. You can visit your MLMA – Covington and receive a free library card, any Wednesday, 6:00 to 8:00 pm or for an appointment just email: Bill Lorenz, Librarian: library.covsr@outlook.com.

VALLEY OF COVINGTON

Greetings Brethren, We are entering the fall season of 2020 and we have now lost the ability to experience winter, spring, and summer of this year. We have not been able to practice those beliefs of our beloved fraternity and share in the social and theological themes that brought us together.

The “pandemic” has slowed us but not stopped us. We simply do what freemen do; adapt, overcome, and persevere. I have to wonder why Influenza and HIV were never classified as “pandemic” with the resulting shutdown of our entire country. Just food for thought.

Even though we have not been able to meet as a group, there has been a lot of activity at the Temple. The dining room has been cleaned and upgraded, the “Red Room” has been completely refurbished, the parking lot cleaned and weeded, fencing and guard rails cleaned and painted and some of the smaller rooms cleaned and debris removed. By the time you read this, we should have a big and beautiful Square and Compass, which was donated by one of our blue lodges, gracing the wall of the north side of the Temple. Having said that, there is still a lot more to do. For those who have been to the Temple, you know that there are lots and lots of doors. Each of those doors is closed by some type of hydraulic closer. They need maintenance and/or repair. If you have experience in that sort of thing or know someone who does, please contact me or the Secretary/ Registrar. We could use your help.

Since the Temple is the topic of our article this month, we will use the following space to share a little history of it.

For those who have been to the Temple, you know that there are lots and lots of doors. Each of those doors is closed by some type of hydraulic closer. They need maintenance and/or repair. If you have experience in that sort of thing or know someone who does, please contact me or the Secretary/ Registrar. We could use your help.

Since the Temple is the topic of our article this month, we will use the following space to share a little history of it.

The Cornerstone laying of the Covington Scottish Rite Temple occurred on October 18, 1953. It was performed by the Grand Lodge Officers of Kentucky and was attended by many other Masonic affiliated organizations and a huge contingency of Northern Kentucky Masons and their ladies. In 1956, a parade was held to officially move the “old” Temple in downtown Covington to its current location at 1553 Madison Avenue, Covington, Kentucky. At that time, other Masonic lodges in Northern Kentucky also began meeting in the Temple.

Although this is only the introduction to the history of our Temple, I plan to include other bits of historical trivia in future articles. My thanks to Debbie Dreier and Joyce Baker for their assistance in preparing the historical & pictorial information in this write-up and future articles.

Don’t forget that we will hold the stated communication on Friday, September 18 and celebrate the Feast of Tishri prior to our meeting.

In the Bond of Brotherhood,
Ray Murphy, 33°
Personal Representative,
Valley of Covington

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

VALLEY OF LOUISVILLE

Greetings Brothers,
The Grand Consistory of Kentucky, AASR, received its charter from the Supreme Council on August 20, 1852 - 168 years ago!

From that date to 1931 the Consistory rented space in various buildings in downtown Louisville, Kentucky, until finally laying the cornerstone in 1930 for the glorious Louisville Scottish Rite Temple we know and love today.

I hope you enjoy the excerpts that follow, taken from the fine History of our Consistory written by my predecessor, Ill. Stanley W. Crawley, Jr., 33°, Secretary/Registrar. I have also included some photographs of our Temple, taken by our member John W. Adkins, II, 32°.

I close these brief remarks with the fervent hope that we will very soon meet again within the walls of our glorious Temple, and see again the beautiful words above the proscenium arch placed there to inspire us as Scottish Rite Masons:

"What we have done for ourselves dies with us; What we have done for others and the world remains and is immortal." -Albert Pike-

"Let everyone who fares forth from the portals of this Temple preach brotherhood, spiritual and educational Liberty, high ideals, and Righteousness." -John H. Cowles-

Randolph Starks, 33°
Secretary/Registrar, Louisville Scottish Rite

EXCERPTS from HISTORY of the GRAND CONSISTORY of KENTUCKY, later changed to the LOUISVILLE CONSISTORY by Ill. Brother Stanley W. Crawley, Jr., 33°, Historian

NEW TEMPLE DEDICATED IN 1931

About 1900, provisions were made to accumulate a fund for use in building a new Scottish Rite Temple in Louisville, Ky. This fund increased slowly but surely until 1930, when it was thought that a Scottish Rite Temple could be erected. Accordingly, plans were drawn up and bids called for, and the Temple was completed and dedicated in 1931. Not only was the building and equipment entirely paid for when it was dedicated, but some $200,000 remained in the treasury of the Scottish Rite bodies in Louisville.

The erection and management of the new Scottish Rite Temple in Louisville were largely due to the energy and influence of Brother Isaac T. Woodson, 33°, who was Grand Master of the Grand Consistory at that time. Ten years later, on January 1, 1940, Brother John H. Cowles attended a memorial service for Brother Woodson in the Scottish Rite Temple at Louisville.

The "Blue Room" was planned to be a place for a lodge room for Louisville Lodge No. 400, Daylight Lodge No. 760, and as a meeting room for Daniel Boone Chapter, Order of DeMolay for Boys. It was also to be used as an assembly room and classroom for members of the Reunion Classes of the Scottish Rite.

CEDAR OF LEBANON ROOM

DEDICATED TO INSPECTOR GENERAL IN 1935

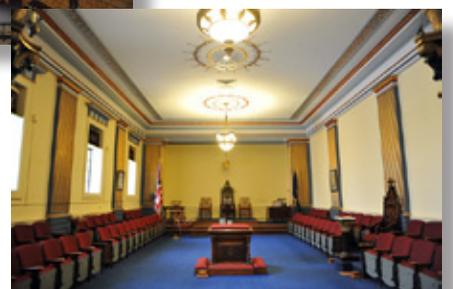

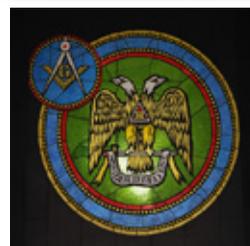

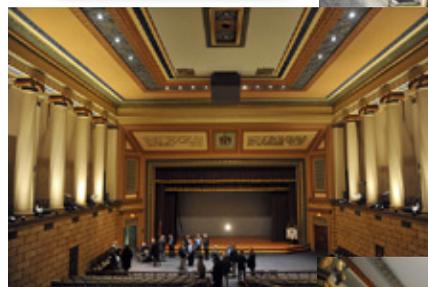

On January 1, 1935 the Inspector General's room in the Scottish Rite Temple was dedicated. In the dedication of this room to the Sovereign Grand Inspector General in Kentucky, it was the purpose of the brethren of the Grand Consistory to express their best and highest thoughts toward his high office.

Then entire room is paneled with genuine Cedar of Lebanon, the same as used in the building of Solomon's Temple. It was the only extant Cedar of Lebanon known at that time.

CEDAR OF LEBANON

The far-famed Cedar of Lebanon is a tree which, on account of its beauty, stateliness and strength, has always been a favorite with poets and painters and which, in the figurative language of prophecy, is frequently employed in the Scriptures as a symbol of power, prosperity and longevity. It grows to a height of 50-80 feet, and often the branches cover a compass of ground greater in diameter than the height of the tree.

The trees are found at an elevation of more than 6,000 feet above sea level, and with the rest of the fir tribe except the larch, are evergreen. In shape, the leaves are straight, tapering, cylindrical and pointed. They are about an inch long and dark green in color. The general shape of the tree might be termed "clump-headed." The Cedar flourishes best in sandy, loamy soils. It still grows in Lebanon, though for several centuries it was believed to be restricted to a small grove in Kactisha Valley at about 6,000 feet elevation, about 15 miles from Beyrouth (modern Beirut).

MAYSVILLE LODGE #52 - Bro. Donald Faul, receives his 60 year pin from Bro. Roy East on left, and Bro. Charles Doughman on right. Bro. Faul is a dual member of Lexington Lodge #1 and Maysville Lodge #52. Photo by Bro. Randal Cooper.

This is a scene of MOUNT OLIVET LODGE, No. 291, placing flags on veterans' graves in Robertson County just before Memorial Day. Members and their families joined in this event. For many years, Mount Olivet Lodge has provided flags and placed them on all veterans' graves in the county for Memorial Day. This year, over 400 flags were placed in 16 cemeteries. Veterans of the Revolutionary War to modern times are honored.
