

GRAND MASTER'S MESSAGE

GEARY F. LAIRD
Grand Master 2019-2020

Greetings Brothers,

As we begin to resume our Masonic meetings and activities, I want to take this opportunity to thank each of you for your patience, understanding and support during this difficult time. Please continue to adhere to the mandates and guidelines in place to assure that we have the safest environment possible for our membership.

Freemasonry through-out Kentucky, our country and the world has been adversely affected due to the coronavirus pandemic. It is once again time for us, as men and masons to come together and push forward as we with-stand the test of time. Masonry throughout history has overcome many obstacles, the Morgan Affair, The Great Depression, just to name a few, and our situation will be no different, we too will prevail.

When I went out as Master of Shawnee Lodge in 1983, I am embarrassed to say, I was inactive for a while. The first meeting I missed, I felt bad and kept telling myself to go, but made excuses not too. As time went on, it was easier and easier to miss and it got to the point, that I did not give it much thought at all.

I have always been one who thinks things happen for a reason. I happened to be at my father-in-law's house one day and we started talking about lodge. He told me that he had not been to lodge in quite some time and had really missed going. He looked at me and said, "Is Shawnee Lodge supposed to meet next Tuesday?". I looked at the calendar and sure enough, they were scheduled to meet. Without hesitation, he gave me that serious look (the one I remember well) and said, "Be ready I will pick you up". Somehow, I did not remember him asking me if I wanted to go. One might ask why this would be relevant to mention. If I had not went by his house that day and had that discussion, I am certain that I would not be serving as your Grand Master today.

The other reason I share this with you, is to remind you that we all could persuade, encourage, and inspire others. We should use these traits to encourage those who have not attended lodge in a while, to attend and change the complacent attitudes and routines we have developed over time which keeps us from attending lodge. Reach out to the members of your lodge, let them know you are thinking of them and invite them to a meeting. That day was a turning point in my life, and I have been active and engaged in Freemasonry ever since. I am so grateful that he saw the need to give me a reality check that has changed my life forever.

I look forward to the many opportunities ahead to meet with you and strengthen our fraternal bond as we continue to teach the lessons of Freemasonry.

As I have stated before, if you are sick, have underlying medical issues or feel that it might jeopardize your health to attend a meeting, please stay home. Anyone who participates does so at their own risk.

May God continue to bless our great fraternity and may God Bless America! Brothers, as always, I encourage you to BE THAT MASON THAT MAKES A DIFFERENCE!

Signers of the Declaration of Independence

Of the 56 men that signed the Declaration of Independence, it appears that nine were Freemasons, or masons with verifiable records of association.

On the Cover and above

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

VALLEY OF LOUISVILLE

With the anniversary of D-Day (June 6, 1944) we are reminded of a talk given by Ill. Brother Wendell M. Littlefield, 33° the Chairman of the Heritage Committee of the Louisville Scottish Rite. The talk was given in November 2019 in recognition of Veterans Day.

Ill. Bro. Littlefield begins; "I would like to tell you about my experience with meeting up with the Tokyo Raiders, also known as, The Doolittle Raiders. In 1942, I was 12 years old and my home was about 50 miles from Columbia, South Carolina. Airplanes at that time were infrequent and a sight to behold! One day a plane flew over our home. It flew so low everyone was afraid it was going to crash. Some time later, news went around that these airplanes were B-25's and were practicing at Owens Field in Columbia for an important mission".

B-25's also practiced low level flying and dropping bombs over Lake Murray, SC (my favorite fishing lake). Today, there is a large island, known as Bombing Island, where bomb parts and relics can be found today. Some planes also crashed into the lake and several were retrieved and restored and are now in museums. After practicing in South Carolina, this group went to Florida for more practice and then on to California where they loaded onto the US Navy's aircraft carrier the USS Hornet and readied for their mission. The mission, bomb Tokyo, Japan.

There were 80 men that made up the sixteen 5-man B-25 crews. The USS Hornet sailed toward China to a point where the planes could take off from the carrier, drop their bombs over Tokyo and land in China. Radio communication was received that there was a suspicious trawler (maybe Japanese) in the waters where they were to take off. The Hornet came across the trawler and sank it. At this point, they were 600 miles from their target. Not knowing if the trawler alerted the Japanese, orders were given to the B-25 crews to get to their planes and be ready to take off.

The planes took off at 8:00 AM, April 18, 1942, and the Tokyo Raiders (Doolittle Raiders) became part of WWII history. The Doolittle Raiders sent a message to the world, "We will fight, no matter what it takes, and we will win."

Of the 80 Raiders, 62 survived the war. Jimmy Doolittle was promoted two ranks to Brigadier General and was presented the Medal of Honor by President Franklin D. Roosevelt. (see photo)

My wife, Jean, and I were lucky enough to be in Columbia, SC when the Raiders had their 60th Reunion on April 7-14, 2002. We attended the parade that honored the Raiders. There was a fly over of several B-25's during the parade and their sound was wonderful! There were two days of meeting and greeting and autograph signing by the crew that attended the reunion. They were all gracious and good humored, even after signing 100's of photos, newspaper articles, pictures of B-25's, model airplanes and MY HAT!!

The crew members we met were:

Plane 1: R.E. Cole & H.A. Potter / Plane 2: T. Hoover / Plane 5: Davy Jones / Plane 6: Chase Nelson / Plane 7: David Thatcher / Plane 8: Nolan Henderson / Plane 9: Tom Griffin / Plane 11: Frank Kappler / Plane 12: Bill Bower / Plane 14: Jack Sims / Plane 16: R.L. Hite & Jacob DeSharzer. Also in attendance was Tung Sheng Liu who helped the Crew of Plane 2 get to China after landing in Japan.

Ret. Major General Carl D. Black, 33° a member of the Heritage Committee of the Valley of Louisville shared his experience with Raider R.E. Cole, Jimmy Doolittle's co-pilot in Plane 1. Cole and Black were at the same Sons of the American Revolution meeting here in Louisville several years ago when Cole was 98 or 99 years old. In conversation, Black said he had flown a B-25 years earlier in various trainings. Cole was extremely interested, and they had a photo taken. The photo was sent back to Ill. Bro. Black with a personalized note. R.E. Cole, the last Raider died April 9, 2019 at the age of 103.

Seen in the photo are from L-R: Ill. Bro. Randolph Starks, 33° Secretary/Registrar Valley of Louisville; Ill. Bro. Ret. M.G. Carl Black, 33° Heritage Committee; Ill. Bro. Wendell M. Littlefield, 33° Heritage Committee Chairman; Ill. Bro. William Ryan, 33° Past Master of Kadosh, Valley of Louisville; and Ill. Bro. Terry Bowman, 33° P.G.M., Deputy of the Supreme Council for the Orient of Kentucky.

MASONIC LIBRARY AND MUSEUM ASSOCIATION COVINGTON SCOTTISH RITE

“I Didn’t Know That.....”

In reviewing the Grand Lodge of Kentucky’s Centennial history book “Doings of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky 1800 - 1900”, I became curious to learn something about the author-compiler, H.B. Grant. Well aware that he was Grand Secretary for a number of years (10 years Assistant Grand Secretary and 25 years as Grand Secretary); had authored “Vest Pocket Trestle Board”; as well as his work on the above 100 year history. Desiring to learn more about the man, who he was, what he thought and may have contributed to the Fraternity and the Grand Lodge of Kentucky prompted this article. So, who was Henry Bannister Grant? Perhaps that can be answered best in the Grand Lodge Necrology Report of 1912.

Although PGM R.R. Burnam’s Report on Necrology (10/16/1912) mention no dates, he does note that H.B. Grant was born in New York, raised and educated in Michigan and on the “verge of manhood, removed to Frankfort, Ky”, and later moving to Louisville, just before the outbreak of the Civil War. He served as Captain of his Company with the Union, (twenty-seventh Kentucky Infantry) later declined a promotion preferring to stay with his company, and at a different time, Inspector General and Judge Advocate. He rarely spoke about the War, and never spoke critical of the men on the Confederate side.

Brother John C. Mckee (Necrology) noted, “Perhaps no event of recent years has cast such a pall over the Fraternity – the entire Craft is in mourning.” Suffice to say, he has been a Mason sixty-three years; had filled every important office in Lodge, Chapter, Council and Commandery; was Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter of Kentucky in 1889-90; was Grand Master of the Grand Council in 1887; was author of many Masonic publications, and perhaps no better-informed man on Masonic Law and Ritualism ever adorned the Craft.”

W.W. Clarke, PGM, paints an interesting picture of H.B. Grant. “Of the illustrious Masons whose deaths make unclosable gaps in the ranks of Freemasonry...none gave to Freemasonry so fully of his best, so fully consecrated to it his life, as did the late Grand Secretary, Brother Henry Bannister Grant.” PGM Clarke goes on to say, “We often differed in matters of polity, at times we differed widely on matters of Masonic Jurisprudence.....it was always a difference of conviction, a difference growing out of our variant conceptions of the theory of Masonry.....His great desire was to see a Masonry militant for good; his earnest hope was a dominate Masonry” adding “his devotion to the Grand Lodge of Kentucky whose honor and integrity was personal to him. He hoped, he labored that it (G.L. of KY) might be glorious among the Grand Lodges of the world”.

H. B. Grant was a very dedicated member. He served the Grand Lodge of Kentucky for 35 years beginning as Assistant Grand Secretary 1877, and Grand Secretary ten years later until his death on August 29, 1912. His history “Doings of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky 1800 – 1900” is an important book written during the centennial period, to preserve the Grand Lodge’s heritage and the brief biographies of the men who served as Grand Masters; as well as a quick reference book to the most important ‘doings’ gleaned from first 100 years of the Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky. He complimented his ‘history’ with photos (sometimes drawings) of distinguished Kentucky Masons, along with other pictures.

His brief biography of the Grand Masters would prove valuable for future research, by presenting an understanding of each of the men who served as Grand Master.

Besides his compiling Kentucky’s 100th Anniversary history, he wrote about masonic trials, and landmarks for the Grand Lodge and as part of the committee, revised the Grand Lodge Constitution on several occasions. If Grant’s publication, “Early Masonic History” had been dated 2000, instead of 1900, few students of Masonry, 100 years later, would have found fault with it. H.B. Grant was an early member of the Realistic School. He gives a very thoughtful definition of ‘Freemasonry’ as well as ‘Free and Accepted Masons’, stating that it was the “first given as a name to the fraternity in the second edition of the Book of Constitutions, published by Rev. James Anderson, D.D. in 1738”.

In his writings on the origins of Freemasonry, Grant notes the lacking of Masonic education throughout the Craft: “Tradition informs us that Freemasonry originated with the builders of King Solomon’s Temple, and a very large number of brethren, amounting almost to unanimity, give this unwritten history the fullest credence”.

Grand Secretary Grant also found fault with the Grand Lodge of Kentucky’s claim to be ‘Ancient York Masons’, as “a misnomer and misleading” Kentucky issued charters with A.Y.M. while the by-laws used ‘F. and A. M.’ He points out that Kentucky supported the Grand Lodge of A.Y.M. of South Carolina over the Grand Lodge of South Carolina in their dispute. Kentucky refused to “acknowledge or hold communication with any Grand Lodge in South Carolina, but the Grand Lodge of Ancient York Masons”, in disregard to Kentucky’s own by-laws. He did not object to Kentucky’s York Rite degrees, but since they differed from England’s degrees, Grant felt that the degrees of the Lodge, Chapter, Council and Commandery should be known as the ‘American Rite’.

H.B. Grant was a nationally known Masonic figure. He served several years as President of the Grand Secretaries Guild of the United States. His “Tactics and Manual for Knight Templars” was adopted by many other Grand Commanderies throughout the States.

He also was the first editor of the Masonic Home Journal. As Grand Secretary, “Fraternally Thine” always preceded his signature. After his death this phrase was adopted to be used on all Grand Lodge correspondence. H. B. Grant Lodge #610, Etoile, Kentucky, was named for him. H. B. Grant, in his 25 years as Grand Secretary, definitely had a major influence on the Grand Lodge of Kentucky.

Independence Day

Freedom has its life in the hearts, the actions, the spirit of men and so it must be daily earned and refreshed - else like a flower cut from its life-giving roots, it will wither and die.

~Dwight D. Eisenhower
