GRAND MASTER'S MESSAGE

ERNEST C. JACKSON
Grand Master 2020-2021

Greeting Brothers,

For those who do not know me, I am Ernest C. Jackson. My wife is Jackie Jackson, she is the love of my life, my rock.

First and foremost, I want to thank God for the Blessing, He has bestowed upon me to serve as Grand Master, at this time in my life. I am extremely honored to serve as Grand Master for the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, Free and Accepted Masons.

Thanks to my Brothers of James W. Alley Lodge #869 for their support and encouragement throughout the years.

I am overly excited as we are starting into a new Masonic year. I have traveled and visited several lodges this past months and I'm pleased to report that our lodges are not only having their stated meetings, but also doing Masonic activities. I want to commend each brother of their lodge for doing a GREAT JOB keeping SAFE while doing their Masonic duties. Not only I, but brothers across this great state have missed each other, the fellowship and Brotherly love.

Brothers in today's world we, as Freemasons, must continue to be those men that show our morals and teachings which are just as important now, as they were before this pandemic, the protests and the hatred in our great nation.

As Freemasons we need to take care of not only our families, ourselves, but our Fraternity. We need to keep our lodges operating and safe for our future generation of Freemasons. In our history of Freemasons, we have survived trials and tribulations. We will overcome this pandemic. We have a lot planned for this year.

I want to apologize for not having the Grand Masters ties and caps. I was told by the sales representative at "Design Your Tie" the pandemic is the reason I have not yet received the order. Once the ties and caps are delivered to me, I'll distribute them to the DDGMS, and the Committeemen on Masons helping Masons, who in turn will make them available to you.

Brothers, The Grand Masters Traveling Level is on the road. Please read the requirements of the Grand Master Traveling Level rules. To receive the scholarship that goes with the most pickups, from start date to the last date of pickup. This year I wanted to make it little challenging, whichever lodge has picked up the Level will receive a thousand dollars to go toward a scholarship of a high school student of your lodge's choice. Please brothers travel safe while visiting other lodges.

My Brothers, as we start a new Masonic year, I will NOT be continuing the restrictions that have been handed down this past year. Each individual Lodge will strictly follow the Constitution, their Bylaws, and the Governor's directives. I am confident, that under the Governor's directives, there is not a lodge in Kentucky that 3 brothers of a lodge cannot open and do business as Master Masons. Brothers if you or your lodge does not feel safe doing degree work, then don't do degree work. I am asking each Mason if you are sick, or don't feel safe to go to your own lodge meeting or any other lodge meetings, PLEASE do not go. I am confident that you have brothers in your lodge, that will step up and keep things going until you can get back to your lodge.

Your Stated Lodge meetings will be observed as the Constitution states. If you meet twice a month and want to meet only once a month, then change your bylaws. We have been through many trying times in this fraternity. This pandemic is one we will get through as well. I do not want anyone to get sick and I know in my heart all Masons feel the same. We are men of character and principle, God and Family First.

I'm asking again please keep yourself safe, and brothers if you don't feel you or your lodge can perform degree work safely, it's simple don't do any degree work. Use common sense, the Constitution, your bylaws, and the Governor's directives as your guide. Your lodge makes the decisions. I hope all Masons can come together to make your decisions as Masons always have.

In closing Brothers, thank you for letting me serve as your Grand Master for this up-coming year. I am humbled and extremely honored to have the privilege to work with all my Brothers across this great state of Kentucky.

Jackie and I hope everyone had a HAPPY THANKSGIVING, and we send our best wishes for a Safe Holiday Season! May God Bless each and everyone and this great Fraternity.

Let us go out on the Level and have a great year.

Fraternally Thine,

ERNEST C. JACKSON

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

MASONIC LIBRARY AND MUSEUM ASSOCIATION COVINGTON SCOTTISH RITE

“I Didn’t Know That.....”

Brother James A. Hodges (Hiram #4) began teaching the printing trade to boys of the Masonic Widows and Orphans Home in 1878, and with-in five years, Volume 1, No.1, of the Masonic Home Journal was published on June 14, 1883, under the editorial guidance of H.B. Grant, Grand Secretary. However several Masonic news publications had previously been available and privately printed in Kentucky, including: The Masonic Miscellany and Ladies Literary Magazine; The Masonic Mirror; The Kentucky Freemason and of course, PGM Rob Morris’s publications.

According to Kentucky Masonic historian Charles Snow Guthrie (Kentucky Freemasonry 1788 – 1978; pages 215-216), little is known about The Masonic Miscellany and Ladies Literary Magazine other than it was published by William Gibbs Hunt at Lexington in 1823. In this period, newspapers could easily “be here today and gone tomorrow”.

The Masonic Mirror published in Covington by Brother David Crookshanks, was referred to a Grand Lodge Committee and was adopted as the official Organ of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky. Unfortunately Brother Crookshanks passed away within a year, and The Masonic Mirror publication of W. C. Munger, was then recommended to the Masons of Kentucky (See Proceedings of The G.L. of KY 1843-44-45-47).

Albert G. Hodges a Frankfort printer and Grand Treasurer of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky began publishing The Kentucky Freemason with the first issue in January, 1868. Within a year, the Grand Lodge recommended it to the Craft and a year later, the local Lodge Masters were requested to appoint a Committee of one to secure subscriptions from the lodge membership and that each lodge should also subscribe. As the magazine grew, Masonic news, poetry and short essays filled the expanded 16 page monthly magazine. A failed attempt was made by some members for the Grand Lodge to take control of The Kentucky Mason and then print the Grand Lodge Proceedings and Magazines. Of course some controversy prevailed. The remedy came when the boys of the Widows and Orphans Home printed their first Grand Lodge of Kentucky Proceedings in 1878, and in 1883, the first publication of The Masonic Home Journal.

Fortunately, William O. Ware Lodge of Research has obtained a nice selection of the extremely rare issues of The Kentucky Freemason, and preserved these nearly 150 year old issues on their website for the benefit of all the brethren who visit. This is certainly a great opportunity to take a look back and learn about Kentucky Freemasonry in the past. All of brethren who take advantage will definitely find it most enjoyable as well as immensely interesting. Just visit the William O. Ware Lodge of Research web page. williamowarelodgeofresearch.com Check it out! You will be glad you did!

(It should be noted that Rob Morris had previously published his own magazine with the same name, “The Kentucky Freemason”, beginning in May, 1853, but several years later changed the name to The American Freemason in order to win over more subscribers outside of Kentucky.) -----What do you think?

Some copies of The Kentucky Freemason are also available at the Covington Masonic Library. You can visit your MLMA – Covington, 1553 Madison Avenue, and receive a free library card, any Wednesday, 6:00 to 8:00 pm, or for an appointment, just email Bill Lorenz, Librarian: library.covsr@outlook.com Want to start a Masonic Discussion Group at the Library? Days, Times, and Books are available. We also welcome our new “Friend of the Library”, Brother Michael Barnett.

Support your Masonic Library by being a lifetime “Friend of the Library”! Simply donate $50.00 and the Library will purchase a new Masonic book and your name will be placed in the front of the book as a “Friend of the Library”. You can also support the Masonic Library by purchasing an EZ removal $5.00 Bumper or Rear Window Sticker. Send your check with return address to:

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

VALLEY OF LOUISVILLE

Greetings Brothers,

If you are a Louisville Scottish Rite Mason you are aware that our philanthropy is known as Rite Care, which provides speech therapy to children between the ages of 2 and 5, through the Kids Center for Pediatric Therapies in Louisville, Kentucky. The mechanism for supporting this great and good work is our Louisville Scottish Rite Foundation.

The Louisville Scottish Rite Foundation raises funds for Rite Care through events like our Scottish Rite Golf Scramble each year, our Gala Banquet, Dance & Auction in October, and our Bowl-a-Rama each November.

In addition to these efforts our Scottish Rite members make individual donations to the Foundation. A list of our donors for 2020 is listed below. Brothers contribute according to their means and ability, but every donation helps our children get a better start in life and education through developing the means to communicate effectively.

As you can see from the information (on right) about Rite Care and the Kids Center, a large number of children receive speech therapy on an annual basis through this program, without regard to their family's ability to pay, due to the generous support of the Scottish Rite Foundation.

We ask all Masons, whether you are a member of the Valley of Louisville, or have not yet joined us in the Scottish Rite, to consider making a donation to the Scottish Rite Foundation and help a young child overcome their disability and learn to speak clearly to their family, their teacher, and their world.

Fraternally and respectfully yours,

Randolph Starks, 33°
Secretary/Registrar
Louisville Scottish Rite

“Chloe uses a high-tech communication device in order to say things that she can’t with speech and nonverbal communication. A trial with a high-tech device at Kids Center enabled Chloe to take part in conversations in a way that she hasn’t always been able to do.”

Communication is at the heart of all our human experiences. Reading, writing, listening, speaking, gesturing - these are “codes” we use to navigate the world, build relationships, and succeed in school. Children with speech and language disorders must work a hundred times harder to learn these skills. You make it possible for us to offer transformative speech therapies to children (ages 2-5) in need who would otherwise not receive the proper treatment.

VALLEY OF LEXINGTON

We hosted a reunion on October 3, 2020 at the Lexington Scottish Rite between the Valleys of Madisonville and Lexington. We had 11 candidates total; 6 from Lexington and 5 from Madisonville. This reunion was different than our normal reunion as we had to make modifications due to the restrictions set forth by the Supreme Council. We weren't able to have degree teams as we typically would, but we made the best out of a complex situation. The Supreme Council provided the virtual material for the reunion. Thank you to the Deputy Grand Inspector General of Kentucky, Illustrious Sir Terry Bowman, PGM Grand Lodge of KY, for your key role in making this reunion successful. We could not have done it without you.

We meet the third Thursday of the month. However, please watch the Lexington Scottish Rite Facebook page and website for updates on meeting notifications, as Fayette County is in the red zone for Covid-19.

I am continually looking for degree cast members, kitchen staff and other appointed officers. If you are interested or think you may be interested, please contact me (859-492-4496) or any officer at the Lexington Scottish Rite (859-277-7856). We need more involvement from members to keep the fraternity alive! You only get out what you put in!! Come out and support your Lexington Scottish Rite.

VALLEY OF MADISONVILLE

Greetings from West Kentucky Scottish Rite Consistory.

MERRY CHRISTMAS, BROTHERS

It is an honor I never expected when I was asked to be the Personal Representative for the Valley of Madisonville. Several Brothers have talked to me about what my plans are for Western Kentucky. My answers are very simple.

#1. Scottish Rite Masons and the Madisonville Consistory will do everything within our abilities to support the Masonic lodges. We want growth and propriety for every lodge. Our building is available for District Meetings, Educational Meetings, or anything that will help you improve your lodge.

#2. Peace and harmony will prevail with the other appendant bodies. I've never understood why a brother would have a problem with any of our Masonic fraternities. I can understand having a problem with another brother, but that lesson is taught in the Entered Apprentice Degree. We should strive for unity, peace, and harmony throughout all Masonic bodies.

#3. Scottish Rite Masonry is a Philosophical branch of Freemasonry. The first document, "Morals and Dogma of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry" was written by General Albert Pike, a Confederate soldier, and the ONLY Confederate soldier to have a statue in Washington D.C. Recently, this statue was toppled and set on fire. Our history is being stripped away in front of us. We need to preserve our history and learn from it. My desire is to grow our fraternity in wisdom and knowledge together. May God bless the USA, our families, and our fraternity.

Sincerely,
Douglas W. Bunch, Personal Representative
Valley of Madisonville
