KENTUCKY MASONIC LAWS

(1) In 1800 the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, then formed, adopted the Virginia Ahiman Rezon (meaning the will of selected brethren) 1792. The Grand Secretary was instructed to purchase twelve copies of it (1802).

(2) In 1806 a committee was appointed “to compile a Book of Constitutions” and report to a convention of delegates from all the lodges. The finished work was adopted, entitled “By-laws, etc.”, and consisted of 46 paragraphs called “Articles.”

(3) The first Kentucky bound book of Masonry laws has this title: “Masonic Constitutions, or Illustrations of Masonry; compiled by the direction of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky and adopted by them for the regulation and government of the subordinate lodges under their jurisdiction, with an appendix, containing remarks on the degrees of Mark Master Masons, Super Excellent Master and Royal Arch Masons. By James Moore and Cary L. Clarke, members of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, Lexington: Printed by Daniel Bradford at the office of the Kentucky Gazette, on Main Street, 1808.” Calf, large 12 mo. 192 pp.

(4) The second edition has the same title to and including the names of the compilers (Moore and Clarke), then follows: “Second Edition with amendments. Lexington, K. Printed by Worsley & Smith, 1818.” Calf, small 8 vo. pp. 218.

(5) A “Digest of the Laws, Rules and Regulations for the government of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky and the lodges subordinate thereto” was “approved in Grand Communication Sept. 2, A. L. 5824, A.D. 1924,” and published in Lexington. Pamphlet, 11 pp. and contains 46 “Articles,” or paragraphs.

(6) The “Constitution, By-Laws and Rules of Order” of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky—together with the Charges of a Freemason,” (1860), 32 pp., printed with the proceedings almost every year, and in pamphlet form frequently.

(7) 1880 Hiram Bassett, H. B. Grant and Rob Morris were appointed to prepare and print 750 copies of the laws of the Grand Lodge, which ordered that the annual publication of the Constitution should thereafter cease. Two of the committee reported that H. B. Grant “Consented to perform the arduous task of preparing the work without assistance from or consultation with us, as he proceeded.”

Also that his work “was so complete and satisfactory it left but few suggestions for us to make.” The title was “Constitution and Digest of Decisions of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F.&A.M., Code and Forms of Trials and act of Incorporation of the Grand Lodge.” 108 pp., 8 vo. cloth.

(8) The book, having the same title, with the addition of the words “Landmarks and Ancient Charges, Prepared by H. B. Grant, and Published by Authority. Second Edition.”—264 pp., 1889.

(9) The “Book of Constitutions, containing the Constitution, Regulations and Code for Trials of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F.&A.M. Also acts of Incorporation of the Grand Lodge, Ancient Charges, Lists of Lodges, Grand Officers, Forms, Suggestions to the Probable Landmarks of Freemasonry, and Rules of Order, with Indexes, etc., Prepared by H. B. Grant and Published by Authority—Third Edition—Enlarged.” 1893, Blue cloth, pp. 404.

THE FOURTH EDITION

(10) In 1905, on recommendation of the Grand Master, the Grand Secretary (H. B. Grant) was “instructed to prepare and have printed an edition of 1,000 copies, following the general make-up and arrangement of the 1893 edition” of the Book of Constitutions, but not to issue it until after the next session—owing to financial conditions. He rewrote the Constitution upon a new plan (substantially the same in style as it now appears) and offered it as an amendment to the Constitution, with other suggestions—all printed in the Proceedings of 1906. The proposed amendment was referred to a committee consisting of W. C. McChord, Jas. Garnett, and H. B. Grant, who reported it back (1907) with amendments—all of which were re-committed, and the committee enlarged by adding to it the names of Geo. B. Winslow, John D. Shaw, the Grand Master, and all Past Grand Masters. When completed, it was to be printed and copies be sent to lodges. The Constitution as reported by the committee was adopted and printed in the Proceedings of 1908. It was engrossed, bound in leather, reported by a special committee (W. C. McChord and H. B. Grant) and deposited in the Grand Lodge vault.

H. B. Grant, Geo. B. Winslow, and E. B. Beard were appointed to revise the Regulations, recommending new ones as deemed proper, have the same printed and sent to lodges. Their report was adopted by unanimous vote.

The same committee was instructed to compile the Book of Constitutions, correct errors and have it printed in proper book form, to include the Constitution, Regulations and Code.

Following the foregoing instructions, with the understood wishes of the Grand Lodge as set out in the adopted recommendations of the Jurisprudence Committee (1905, p. 35), 1,100 copies of this book were prepared by the committee and a copy was sent to each subordinate lodge in Kentucky, to the elective Grand Officers, Past Grand Masters, and Grand Lodges with whom the Grand Lodge of Kentucky is in fraternal correspondence.

(11) In 1916 there was issued a Supplement to the Fourth Edition, bearing the following title: “Supplement to the Book of Constitutions; containing a Digest of the Decisions, Resolutions and Edicts of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, and a list of the Amendments to the Book of Constitutions since the adoption of the present Constitution, October 22, 1908; Prepared by Henry Pirtle. Published by Order of the Grand Lodge.”

The authority for this book is to be found in the recommendation of the Grand Master (1915), as approved by the Grand Lodge:

Brother Henry Pirtle has submitted to me a digest of the decisions and opinions of the Grand Lodge and the amendments to the Book of Constitution made since the publication of the last edition of our Book of Constitutions. I had felt the need of such a work during the year, and had in mind to prepare one for my own use; in fact, I started on the work at one time, but had no opportunity to finish it. I was much pleased when Brother Pirtle submitted to me a typewritten copy of his work. It is a great labor saver, and I reversed myself on two of my opinions after reading it. He agrees to complete it so as to embrace all decision, opinions and amendments up to the close of this annual communication. It will not be a large book, not expensive to print, and would be in the nature of a supplement to our present Book of Constitutions. I recommend that the Grand Lodge have 1,000 copies thereof printed, and that one copy be sent to each subordinate lodge in the state, and the others distributed to such individuals as may apply for same." (Proc., 1915, pp. 63 and 64).

Upon this the Finance Committee made the following report, which was adopted:

"We approve of the recommendation of the Grand Master that a digest of constitutional amendments and decisions be printed in pamphlet form, to be used as an appendix to the Book of Constitutions." (Proc., 1915, p. 157.)

THE FIFTH EDITION

(12) The authority for the Fifth Edition of the Book of Constitutions is to be found in the following resolution, which was adopted in 1918, upon the recommendation of the Finance Committee.

"WHEREAS, It appears from the report of the Grand Secretary that the present edition of our Book of Constitutions is practically exhausted and it will be necessary to print a new edition.

"Be It Resolved, That Brother Henry Pirtle be requested to revise the book, placing therein all new laws and regulations down to date (but without power to change or enact new laws), the revision to be made under the supervision of the incoming Jurisprudence Committee, and 1,000 copies be printed under the direction and approval of the Grand Secretary." (See Proc., 1918, pp. 127,137).

As the editor of this edition was appointed chairman of the incoming Jurisprudence Committee, the proofs were presented to the other two members, who endorsed thereon the following approval:

"Pursuant to the provisions of the resolution adopted December 10, 1918, we hereby certify that we have examined the revision of the Book of Constitutions prepared by Brother Henry Pirtle under the terms of said resolution, and hereby approve the same as being a true, accurate and complete compilation of the existing laws of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky. We furthermore approve the inclusion therein of revised funeral and installation ceremonies, the omission of suggested forms of by-laws for lodges, the insertion of the Old Regulations, forms for Grand Lodge Ceremonies, etc."

JOHN T. COLDIRON (235)

PROCTOR KNOTT McELROY (87).

THE SIXTH EDITION

The authority for the sixth edition of the Book of Constitutions is to be found in the following recommendation of the Jurisprudence Committee adopted in 1925:

"We recommend that the Book of Constitutions, including regulations, code and other matters usually contained therein, be compiled, and annotated and republished to date and that this work be done in the ensuing year by a committee of five members which shall consist of the incoming Grand Master, G. Allison Holland, the Grand Secretary, Fred W. Hardwick, and three others to be appointed by the incoming Grand Master to act with them."

Fraternally submitted,
ORIE S. WARE, Chairman
W. F. NEIKIRK,
RICHARD PRIEST DIETZMAN.

The Grand Master appointed the following committee:
P.G.M.G. Allison Holland, Lexington Lodge No. 1, Lexington.
P.G.M. Fred W. Hardwick, Louisville Lodge No. 400, Louisville.

P.G.M. James N. Saunders, Lincoln Lodge No. 60, Stanford.

THE TWELFTH EDITION

The Twelfth Edition of the Book of Constitutions of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F.&A.M. began with the appointment of a Special Committee for Revising the Constitution by Arnold E. Wyatt, P.G.M., following his installation as Grand Master at the conclusion of the One Hundred and Ninety-First Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F.&A.M. (Grand Lodge Proceedings, 1990, pg. 167).

Appointed to the Committee were: Bros. J. C. McClanahan, P.G.M., P.G.S., Chairman, Roland T. Stayton (951) and William A. Buckaway, Jr. (820). At the same Communication it was a recommendation of the Grand Master—presented by the Committee on Jurisprudence and adopted (Grand Lodge Proceedings, 1991, pg. 182, Item 19)—that the Special Committee for Revising the Constitution, with the same members, be continued until their work was completed.

The Committee completed the Proposed Revision of the Book of Constitutions of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F.&A.M. and presented a draft copy to each of the Delegates at the One Hundred Ninety Third Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge (Grand Lodge Proceedings, 1992, pg. 93). The “draft copy” was duly received by action of the Grand Lodge and referred to the Committee on Jurisprudence with instructions “to develop a new governance document(s) for presentation and reading at the Annual Communication in 1994 and to be held over until the Annual Communication in 1995” (Grand Lodge Proceedings, 1992, pg. 78).

The proposed Revision of the Book of Constitutions was presented to the assembled delegates by the Committee on Jurisprudence (Barber L. Shelton, P.G.M., Chairman; William G. Hinton, P.G.M., and Elroy Johnson, P.G.M.) and received at the One Hundred Ninety-Fifth Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge on October 18, 1994 (Grand Lodge Proceedings, 1994, pg. 186).

On October 17, 1995, the Revised Edition of the Book of Constitutions of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F.&A.M. was presented to the delegates at the One Hundred Ninety Sixth Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge by the Committee on Jurisprudence (William G. (A). JURISDICTION WAIVED.

Waiver of Jurisdiction may be given by any lodge possessing jurisdiction over a candidate for degrees or affiliation, in favor of any other lodge. In such cases, the lodge in whose favor the waiver shall be made may entertain the petition of such candidate as if he had resided within the jurisdiction thereof the required period of time. In all cases where the fee of the lodge granting the waiver of jurisdiction is greater than the fee of the lodge requesting the waiver the candidate shall pay to the lodge which asks the waiver a fee equivalent to the fee he would have been required to pay had he petitioned the lodge which granted the waiver. Immediately after the candidate is elected and initiated, the Secretary of the lodge receiving the waiver shall send the difference in fees to the lodge granting the waiver.

(B). WAIVER OF JURISDICTION—HOW GRANTED.

Waiver of Jurisdiction can only be granted by a lodge having jurisdiction, and upon request made by a lodge, over its seal, to which the petition for degrees or membership has been presented, sent by certified mail with a return receipt. The answer or reply shall also be sent by certified mail with return receipt. Before granting the waiver, the application therefore shall be referred to a committee of three members of the lodge for inquiry into the character and qualifications of the petitioner mentioned in such request. Such request can only be received at a stated communication and one lunar month must intervene between its reception and ballot thereon. The vote on the waiver shall be by ballot, and if as many as three votes be cast against the waiver the request shall be refused.

Within the state, jurisdiction will be waived automatically 90 days after a request for waiver is mailed by certified mail to the secretary of the lodge possessing jurisdiction unless the lodge possessing jurisdiction denies the waiver and notifies the requesting lodge in writing prior to the 90th day. For just cause the lodge possessing jurisdiction may impose one extension of not more than thirty days with written notification to the requesting lodge prior the 90th day. At the end of such extension the jurisdiction will be waived automatically unless the lodge possessing jurisdiction denies the waiver and notifies the requesting lodge in writing prior to the end of the extension.

Automatic waiver of jurisdiction does not apply to requests for waivers to or from other Grand Jurisdictions.

SECTION 99 - INVADED JURISDICTION.

A lodge that receives the petition and initiates a candidate, or admits to membership a brother from a jurisdiction not its own, in violation of the provision of Sections 95-98, shall forfeit and pay the fees to the lodge which lawfully held jurisdiction, and be subject to having its Charter arrested, or such other penalty as the Grand Lodge shall impose.

SECTION 100 - MOVING FROM JURISDICTION.

Moving from the jurisdiction of a lodge does not forfeit lodge membership. If he is an officer of a lodge, a brother does not forfeit such office if he is able to attend with reasonable regularity, otherwise he will be subject to Section 83.

SECTION 101 - PLURAL MEMBERSHIP.

A Master Mason in good standing in a lodge of this Grand Jurisdiction, or in a lodge of a sister Grand Jurisdiction which does not forbid Plural Membership, may apply for affiliation to any lodge or lodges of his choice, or he may join in the application for the formation of a new lodge in this Grand Jurisdiction, and if such lodge be formed, he may retain his former membership, and also his new membership, but shall thereon and thereafter pay all dues and assessments required by each lodge, and shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of membership in each lodge. Suspension or expulsion from any lodge shall suspend or expel him from every lodge with which he may be affiliated in this Grand Jurisdiction, and reinstatement may only be made by the lodge that first suspended him, and upon his reinstatement in that lodge, he shall automatically be reinstated in all lodges with which he may be affiliated, providing he has paid his indebtedness to such other lodges.

Upon election of a Master Mason to Plural Membership as provided in this section, the Secretary of the lodge wherein such election is had, shall immediately notify the other lodges of which the elected brother is a member and thereafter the records of the Secretary of each lodge in this Grand Jurisdiction, shall be so kept as to show plural membership and the monthly reports and annual returns of each lodge shall show the name of each lodge wherein such membership is held.

Should a Master Mason who holds Plural Membership in two or more lodges in this Grand Jurisdiction desire to demit from one lodge he shall be permitted to do so. Provided, that if the brother holds membership in two lodges in this Grand Jurisdiction he shall be permitted to retain his membership in the one of his choice.

A Master Mason who holds Plural Membership in two or more lodges in this Grand Jurisdiction and desires to demit from one or more of said lodges, the demit, if granted, a notice by regular mail of the granting of the demit shall be mailed by the Secretary of the lodge granting the demit to the lodge or lodges in which the member still retains his membership. B) TEMPORARY CHANGE OF MEETING PLACE.

A lodge may hold a special meeting at a place other than its own for the purpose of conferring degrees or for a special occasion as authorized by the lodge, provided the lodge membership is given due notice thereof. The Charter must be present at the place of the Communication. (1998)

Failure of the Secretary to promptly reply to an official communication of the Grand Master, Grand Secretary, or another subordinate lodge, shall be considered a dereliction of his Masonic duty, and the Grand Master is directed to suspend from office the Secretary of any subordinate lodge who fails to comply with this Section.

SECTION 106 - WORK ON SUNDAY.

No communication of a lodge shall be held on Sunday, except on funeral occasions, to attend religious services, to lay cornerstones or to hold dedications.

BURIAL

SECTION 113 - BURIAL IS PART OF LODGE LABOR—CHARTER NOT PRESENT.

A Masonic burial is a part of the labor of the lodge; therefore, it is improper to call from "labor to refreshment" when the lodge leaves its hall to follow the remains of a deceased brother to their last resting place. It is unnecessary to carry the lodge charter from the place of assembling to the grave. The lodge must be regularly closed after the burial. (See Standing Resolution 14)

SECTION 114 - BURIALS UNDER MASTER'S DIRECTION.

In all interments with the formalities of Masonry, the ceremonies should be under the general direction of the Master of the lodge.

SECTION 115 - WHEN COMPLETED.

A Masonic burial service may be considered complete at the pronouncement of the benediction. Nothing in these Sections shall prevent any lodge, in its discretion, from completing the services at the funeral home, the Church, or the residence.

SECTION 116 - RIGHTS TO MASONIC BURIAL.

If a brother was in good standing in his lodge at the time of his death, he is entitled to Masonic burial, as a right of Masonic membership.

SECTION 117 - BURIAL OF A DEMITTED MASON.

Masonic burial of a demitted Mason cannot be demanded as a right, but may be accorded as a favor.

SECTION 118 - RESERVED.CANDIDATES*SECTION 119 - QUALIFICATIONS OF APPLICANT.

A Candidate for initiation, or affiliation in a Kentucky Lodge shall be a man of the age of eighteen (18) years or more and of good report. (2008)

SECTION 120 - RESIDENCE.

No petition for degrees or affiliation by demit shall be balloted on by any lodge, unless the petitioner shall have been continuously a bona fide resident of its jurisdiction for at least six months, or obtained a waiver from the lodge having jurisdiction of him.

PETITIONSPETITIONS FOR DEGREES*SECTION 121 - FORMS.

Petitions shall be made in accordance with the forms prescribed by the Grand Lodge.

SECTION 122 - WRITTEN OR PRINTED.

Petitions must be in writing (or printed), on the prescribed forms, signed by the petitioner, giving his occupation, date and place of birth and the place or places where he has resided during the previous twelve months, also the degrees attained, if any, and whether or not his petition has ever been presented to or rejected by a Masonic Lodge. If it has, then the name, number and location of the lodge petitioned must be given; or the name and number of any lodge of which he may be a member in good standing and accompanied by the fee required by law. Each lodge may decide for itself if it wants a picture and may request one if they so desire.

SECTION 123 - DEMIT ACCOMPANIES PETITION.

A certificate of membership, demit or its equivalent, or a current dues card, must accompany each petition for affiliation, except as provided in Section 151, and shall be retained by the lodge petitioned if the petitioner be elected to membership, except a dues card which shall be returned to him. Every certificate of membership, demit or equivalent, received from or sent to some other Grand Jurisdiction, shall be properly certified by the issuing Grand Lodge. If rejected, the certificate of membership, demit or dues card shall be returned to the petitioner. The provisions of this section shall apply to brothers of any degree.

PETITION FOR MEMBERSHIPSECTION 124 - PETITIONS—WHEN RECEIVED AND BALLOTTED ON.

A petition for initiation or for affiliation shall be recommended by two Master Masons who are members of the lodge petitioned, and be referred to a committee of three other members for inquiry into the character and qualifications of the petitioner. Such petition must be received at a stated communication and one lunar month must intervene between its reception and the balloting thereon. But no ballot shall be taken on a petition until said committee shall have made its report thereon. If, however, the petitioner shall have been rejected by another lodge in this Grand Jurisdiction, a copy of the petition shall be forwarded to the lodge which last rejected him and be referred by it to a committee of three members for inquiry into the character and qualifications of the petitioner, and the report of the committee shall be forwarded under the seal of the lodge to the lodge petitioned and no ballot shall be taken until its receipt of such a report. If said report is not made to the lodge making the request within ninety days, said lodge making the request has full power and authority to proceed to act on the petition and elect or reject the applicant. A ballot must be taken upon a petition for initiation or affiliation, whether the report of the Committee on Investigation be favorable or unfavorable, unless the petition be withdrawn, as permitted in Section 125 of the Constitution. A member whose name appears upon a petition as recommending the petitioner shall not be put upon the Committee on Investigation. The report of a majority of an Investigating Committee is the report of the committee, but if there be a minority report, the fact should be a part of his record. If the committee has taken no action for one or more months after their appointment, the Master may treat their places vacant and appoint others to be the Investigating Committee.

A committee to whom a petition for affiliation is referred should take into consideration not only the moral character and fitness of the applicant, but also the authenticity of his demit or current status if for dual membership.

SECTION 125 - PETITIONS WITHDRAWN.

A petitioner may, by written request to the lodge, withdraw his petition at any time prior to a report by the investigating committee having been made to the lodge, but the request shall be read at the next stated communication after its reception and recorded in the minutes and his fee returned.

SECTION 126 - FOR DEGREES AND AFFILIATION.

The balloting for the degrees or affiliation shall be taken only in a Master Mason's lodge and then only at a stated communication and a favorable ballot on the petition shall elect the candidate to receive all three degrees. (See Section 122)

SECTION 127 - DEMIT PERSONAL PROPERTY.

The rejection of an applicant for affiliation does not affect his Masonic standing. His certificate of demit shall be restored to him if he be rejected.

SECTION 128 - BALLOT SECRET.

In all cases every ballot shall be strictly secret, whether a favorable or unfavorable ballot was cast: and every brother shall be secured in his right to cast his ballot privately for or against a candidate, as between himself and his own conscience. If anyone shall make known or reveal his own or another's vote in secret ballot he shall be guilty of unmasonic conduct and subject to trial.

Balloting is the exercise of a personal right and the performance of an individual duty. No member shall act for another in casting a ballot.

Who Votes. Every member of the Grand or a subordinate lodge to which he belongs, must vote, if present, unless excused.

Candidates for the degrees may be voted upon collectively. If, upon a collective ballot one or more unfavorable ballots appear, then each candidate must immediately be voted upon separately the same as if no ballot had been taken.

How Excused. The power to excuse a brother from voting is not in the Master or Grand Master, but in the lodge or Grand Lodge, and rests with the majority.

SECTION 129 - CONCERNING BALLOTS-TESTS OR INQUIRY.

No vote shall be taken nor any means be used to ascertain, directly or indirectly, the sense of the lodge in reference to any petition, as to whether it will probably be rejected or otherwise.

SECTION 130 - UNANIMOUS.

The Ballot must be unanimous to elect a candidate to receive the degrees or for affiliation.

A member that wishes to reaffiliate with a lodge from which he had previously demitted may be re-elected to membership in that lodge by three-fourths of the members present expressed by ballot, provided the member was not a member of another lodge, or lodges, at the time the demit was granted, and that he had not affiliated with another lodge during the interim. The Certificate of Demit must be the original Certificate of Demit (or proof thereof) first issued to the Brother from the lodge petitioned. (2001)

SECTION 131 - TWO UNFAVORABLE BALLOTS.

If two or more unfavorable ballots appear against a candidate he shall be declared rejected, a candidate so rejected cannot again petition for the degrees or be balloted on in less than twelve months, or for affiliation or reaffiliation in less than six months after such rejection, as provided by Section 124.

SECTION 132 - ONE UNFAVORABLE BALLOT.

In balloting on a petition, if only one negative appears, a second ballot shall immediately take place; if on the second ballot one negative again appears, the petitioner shall be declared rejected.

SECTION 133 - EFFECTS OF REJECTION.

The petition of an applicant for the degrees, affiliation or reaffiliation rejected by a lodge, as in Sections 131 & 132, cannot be received by any other lodge except under the same restrictions. The action of the Lodge shall be final. A Lodge cannot reconsider or rescind a ballot for the degrees or for affiliation and no appeal shall be allowed to Grand Lodge.

SECTION 134 - OBJECTION.

(A) An objection to initiation, advancement or affiliation may be made by a member of the lodge, and the objection to initiation or affiliation shall have precisely the same effect, in every respect, as if the objector had cast an unfavorable ballot on the petition. An objection, to be valid, must be made before the preparation of the candidate in the case of initiation or advancement and before the ballot is taken in the case of affiliation. "Before the preparation of the candidate" shall be defined as before the candidate is conducted to the preparation room.

(B) Objection to advancement shall prevent the candidate from receiving the degree for six months from the date the objection is, or should have been noted in the minutes; and after the expiration of six months the candidate may be advanced upon request without formal petition, but notice shall be given of the proposed advancement in open lodge.

(C) Objection may be renewed, or other objection made in like manner and with the same effect within one week before the end of the six-month period or any succeeding six month period.

(D) Such objection may be made in open lodge or to the Master privately and if made at a stated communication the objection shall be noted in the minutes without giving the name of the objector; and if not made or reported at a stated communication, then in every case the objection must be noted in the minutes of the next stated communication as above provided.

(E) The objecting brother shall not be questioned as to his reasons, but he may give them if he chooses, and if he voluntarily states his reasons in open lodge, or privately to the Master who shall preserve the identity of the Brother making the objection and shall not reveal his identity to anyone, the lodge shall pass upon the sufficiency and validity of the objection, and a majority vote by ballot shall be necessary to sustain the objection. If not sustained the lodge shall proceed with the advancement of the candidate.

(F) Any objection to advancement may be withdrawn by the objector in open lodge, or to the Master privately and the withdrawal must be noted in the minutes at a stated communication and the candidate may then be advanced.

(G) Unless charges are preferred, no objection shall prevent an Entered Apprentice or Fellow Craft Mason from participating fully in any degree which he has attained, or having a demit issued to him as provided in Section 149.

PROFICIENCY EXAMINATIONS

SECTION 135 - EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES.

Before a candidate can be advanced to a higher degree he must be examined in open lodge as to his proficiency in the degree last taken, and such examination shall be so conducted that it can be heard by the brethren present. Two or more candidates for the same degree may be examined at the same time as a class. Each Master Mason raised shall likewise stand a creditable examination in open lodge, and if accepted by the majority of the brethren present, a certificate of approval shall be issued to him under the seal of the Grand Lodge signed by the Grand Master and Grand Secretary; said certificate to be designed and issued through the office of the Grand Secretary.

SECTION 136 - PROFICIENCY.

The term proficiency as regards examination of candidates, means the ability to satisfactorily answer the questions in the first section of the lecture of the degree on which the brother is examined. By first section is meant all parts of the ceremony through the explanation of the working tools in the Entered Apprentice Degree and through the reinvestment in the other degrees. Proficiency in any degree can be declared satisfactory only by an affirmative vote of a majority of the members present, but a re-examination and another vote can be had at any time.

SECTION 137 - IN OTHER STATES.

Examinations made and the vote on proficiency taken in a lodge of this or of any other Grand Jurisdiction shall be governed by the laws of the Grand Jurisdiction in which such examination and vote takes place. If he possesses a certificate of proficiency or equivalent, it will be recognized in this Grand Jurisdiction.

DEGREES

SECTION 138 - ORDER OF SUCCESSION.

The subordinate lodges are authorized to confer the degrees of Entered Apprentice, Fellow Craft, and Master Mason—in the order named.

SECTION 139 - CONFERRED BY ANOTHER LODGE.

On request of a lodge in this jurisdiction, any lodge may confer the degrees, or either of them, on a candidate elected by the lodge making the request; provided, either of said lodges, after due examination, shall have found the candidate proficient in the highest degree he has attained. If the request is to a lodge in a Sister Jurisdiction, said request shall be sent through the Grand Secretary's Office.

SECTION 140 - FORFEITURE OF ELECTION FOR INITIATION.

If a candidate shall have had due notice of his election, and of the time and place when and where he could receive the first degree, but shall fail for a period of six months thereafter to present himself to receive it, his election shall be void, unless the lodge shall declare the reason for such failure to be good and sufficient. In the latter case the time may be extended for six months; after that he must again petition and be balloted for as in the first instance. Provided, however, if a candidate is in the Armed Services, outside the Continental United States, the lodge may grant an extension until he returns to the States and for a period of not exceeding six months after his return.

SECTION 141 - DEGREES WHEN COMPLETE.

REPEALING FORMER REGULATIONS

All Regulations and Decisions of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, here- tofore adopted, are hereby repealed.

TRIAL CODE & DISCIPLINE

SECTION 1 - JURISDICTION.

A Mason is subject to discipline for unmasonic conduct by the Grand Lodge of Kentucky if he is a member of a subordinate lodge in Kentucky or is sojourning within Kentucky.

SECTION 2 - DEFINITIONS.

(A) ACCUSED MASON - He is the Mason or Masons against whom a complaint is filed.

(B) CHARGES - The written, signed and dated statement apprising the accused Mason of the nature and character of the offense or offenses being brought against him.

(C) COMPLAINING MASON - The Mason or Masons filing a complaint.

(D) COMPLAINT - The written, signed and dated statement of the acts or conduct of an accused Mason which the complaining Mason asserts is a violation of Masonic law or constitutes conduct unbecoming a Mason.

(E) IMPARTIAL - Having no direct knowledge of the act or conduct set forth in the complaint or charges; not having formed an opinion as to the merits of the complaint or charges; not being related by blood or marriage; nor being so closely associated with the complaining Mason, the accused Mason or any material witness as to be likely to affect the Mason's judgment.

(F) INVESTIGATION COMMITTEE - The committee of three impartial Past Masters of this Jurisdiction appointed by the Grand Master and charged with the duty of thoroughly investigating a complaint.

(G) MORAL TURPITUDE - Conduct which is socially undesirable and is also base and depraved, as may be defined by the supreme court of the state of Kentucky.

(H) NOTICE - To mail, first-class, postage prepaid, a copy of the document in question to the last known address of the Mason involved or to deliver the document to the Mason in person. Unless a greater time is specifically allowed, this should be done forthwith.

(I) TRIAL COMMITTEE - This consists of five members of the Trial Panel, who act as a jury, and are selected to try the charges brought against the accused Mason. (2001)

(J) TRIAL PANEL - The seven impartial masons appointed by the Grand Master from which the Trial Committee (Jury) is selected. (2001)

(K) UNMASONIC CONDUCT - A Mason is guilty of unmasonic conduct if he:

(1) Violates the laws, customs, principles, or ancient usages of Masonry, or

(2) Commits a crime involving moral turpitude.

(3) Threatens that the lodge shall not increase in membership, or that no more candidates shall be elected; or by words of like purpose threaten the growth or prosperity of the lodge, and candidates are in fact rejected thereafter when he is present, he may be tried for unmasonic conduct, because of the threat.

(4) Uses the Masonic Emblems, or the term "Masonic" in advertising any business by any individual or company.

(5) Habitually takes the name of God in vain, or blasphemy.

(6) Drunkenness is a Masonic offense, and the lodge should be rigid in their discipline on this subject.

(7) Unlawful carnal intercourse with any female.

(8) Violation of an oath lawfully taken is Masonic offense.

(9) The abuse, battery or injury by a Mason of his wife is an offense against Masonry. For a Mason to desert wife or family is unmasonic conduct. A Mason is bound to obey the moral law, and is under special obligations to observe and preserve the sanctity of the marital relation.

(10) To honestly take the benefit of the bankrupt law is not a Masonic offense, but this does not relieve a bankrupt from the moral obligation to pay his debt, should he thereafter become able.

(11) A lawsuit is not a Masonic offense.

(12) Inability to pay debts is not a Masonic offense, but a debtor's refusal to meet pecuniary obligations he is able to meet, being an infraction of the moral law, is a Masonic offense.

(13) The statute of limitation does not relieve a debtor from the moral obligation to pay a debt if he be able to do so.

(14) Polygamy is a crime against moral and Masonic laws.

(15) Soliciting petitions for initiation into Masonry is a violation of Masonic law, is contrary to the accepted teaching of the fraternity, and unmasonic.

(16) Disobedience of a Summons. A summons is the most forcible writ known to Masonry. So long as he is a member of the Fraternity, an Entered Apprentice, Fellow Craft or Master Mason must obey this writ, whether he be a non-affiliate, a member of the lodge issuing the citation, or otherwise. Disobedience thereof would constitute one of the gravest of Masonic offenses, if it be shown the summons had been received, and is an act of insubordination, for which charges should be preferred. (2001)

(1) WITNESS - A person, male or female, called to give testimony.

SECTION 3 - TIME LIMIT.

Any disciplinary action against a Mason must be initiated within one year of the date of the incident, within one year from the date the incident is or reasonably should have been discovered, or within one year from a final conviction for a criminal offense involving moral turpitude.

SECTION 4 - PROCEDURE.

Proceedings for the discipline of any Mason by the Grand Lodge are as follows:

(A) BEFORE TRIAL.

(1) Any Mason complaining against another Mason of unmasonic conduct must state the nature and character thereof in writing, sign and date the complaint, and deliver it to the Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge. The complaint must be filed within the time period provided in Section 3.

(2) Immediately upon the receipt of a complaint, it is the duty of the Grand Secretary to notify the Grand Master thereof. If the Grand Master determines that it is a non-frivolous complaint, the Grand Master notifies the Grand Secretary. Thereupon, the Grand Secretary delivers a copy of the complaint to the accused Mason.

(3) (A) The Grand Master appoints an Investigation Committee of three impartial Past Masters, whose duty it is to thoroughly investigate the complaint. The complaining Mason and the accused Mason shall be afforded an opportunity to be heard before the Investigation Committee. The complaining Mason may withdraw the complaint any time prior to the determination of the existence of probable cause by the Investigation Committee and, in such event, the Investigation Committee is discharged from further consideration of the matter and the complaint is dismissed. If the complaint is not withdrawn, the Investigation Committee, by a majority vote, must determine whether there is probable cause for believing an offense has been committed by the accused Mason and shall report to the Grand Master. The report must be made within 60 days after appointment of the Investigation Committee, be in writing, and signed by those voting in the majority and copies shall be delivered to the complaining and accused Masons.

If no probable cause is found, the proceedings shall terminate. In the event the charge is that the accused Mason was convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude, then the Investigation Committee shall limit its inquiry to whether or not the crime did, in fact, involve moral turpitude; whether there was a conviction; and whether the accused Mason was the same defendant in the criminal proceedings.

(B) However, if a judgment of a felony conviction has been entered against the accused by a court of competent Jurisdiction, or the accused enters a guilty plea of any form to a felony charge, the accused shall stand expelled from the fraternity as of the date of the judgment or the date the plea was entered. Court documentation shall serve as proof of conviction of a felony, or a plea of guilty was entered, and constitutes Unmasonic Conduct. The Grand Master must determine by lawful Masonic means, or other court documentation, that the accused Mason and the defendant referred to in the judgment or guilty plea is one and the same person. (2012)

(4) Immediately upon receipt of a report from the Investigation Committee finding probable cause, the Grand Master shall notify the Grand Secretary. It is the duty of the Grand Secretary to cause formal written charges to be preferred against the accused Mason. The charges, in plain and concise language must apprise the accused Mason of the offense charges. A copy thereof shall be sent to the complaining Mason.

In the event the Investigation Committee finds the accused Mason was convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude, it so certifies to the Grand Secretary.

(5) Immediately upon filing of the charges, it is the duty of the Grand Master to appoint a trial panel of seven impartial Masons, giving preference to Past Masters, at least one of whom may be an attorney, and the Grand Master shall give consideration to appointing a Past Master of the accused Mason's lodge as a member of the trial panel, and to designate a date for the trial, which shall not be less than 15 nor more than 30 days from the date of the selection of the trial panel. The trial shall be conducted in the subordinate lodge of the accused Mason unless the Grand Master determines that the facilities are inadequate or that a fair trial may not be obtained thereat. The Grand Master may, for good cause, postpone the trial to a subsequent date not later than 60 days from the date of the selection of the trial panel. The names of the trial panel shall be provided to the complaining Mason and the accused Mason. Neither the complaining Mason nor the accused Mason nor anyone representing them shall have any contact whatsoever with the trial panel or vice versa regarding the case. (2002)

(6) If any person named in this section is the complaining Mason, is the accused Mason, or is not impartial, he shall be disqualified to act. If a member of the Investigation Committee or the trial panel is disqualified, it is the duty of the Grand Master to fill the vacancy with an impartial Mason.

(7) Unless a person is disqualified under the provisions of (6), or excused by the Grand Master, he is required to serve. Any Mason who willfully violates any provision of this article is subject to discipline under this article.

(8) In the event the Grand Master is disqualified under (6), or for good cause disqualifies himself, the Deputy Grand Master acts in his stead. If both are disqualified, the Grand Senior Warden acts in his stead. If all three are disqualified, the Grand Junior Warden acts in his stead. If all four are disqualified, the Grand Master shall appoint an impartial Mason to act in his stead.

(9) It is the duty of the Grand Secretary to cause to be served upon the accused Mason a certified copy of the charges, together with a notice apprising the accused Mason of the time and place of the trial. Service shall be in person by a Mason or by registered or certified mail, to the last known address of the accused Mason, with restricted delivery and return receipt requested. Service by registered or certified mail shall be complete when the registered or certified mail is delivered and the return receipt signed or when the acceptance is refused, provided that the Grand Secretary shall file an affidavit setting forth the efforts made to obtain personal service and either the return receipt or, if acceptance was refused, an affidavit that upon notice of such refusal a certified copy of the charges was sent to the accused Mason by ordinary first-class mail.

(10) The accused Mason may file a written answer to the charges at least five days prior to the time set for the trial.

(B) TRIAL.

(1) The trial is not to be held in a tiled lodge. However, any Mason is permitted to attend the trial. The Grand Lodge Chairman on Trial Oversight in the area where the trial is to be held shall designate, from his Committee, a Prosecutor to prosecute the charges and a Judge to oversee the trial proceedings.

(2) The accused Mason has the right to have an attorney, who must be a Mason, represent him in any proceedings under this article.

(3) Upon the date set for the trial, the accused Mason has the right to excuse two of the trial panel. If the accused Mason fails or refuses to exercise his challenge, then the trial committee of five shall be chosen by lot. Prior to exercising his challenge, the accused Mason shall have the right to inquire of the trial panel and to challenge any Mason for cause. Cause shall consist of showing that the Mason in question is not impartial. The Grand Master shall immediately make a decision and appoint a substitute impartial trial panel member, if necessary, for any Mason excused for cause.

(4) The Trial Committee selects one of its members as chairman. The chairman has charge of the conduct of the trial. The chairman administers the oath to all witnesses who are Masons upon their honor as Masons. All witnesses who are not Masons shall be sworn by any officers qualified to administer oaths.

(5) The Trial Committee, the complainant and the accused Mason shall have the right to summon witnesses, and disobedience of a summons subjects an offending Mason to discipline under this article. Request for the issuance of a summons to a witness shall be made of the Grand Secretary, who shall issue, sign and deliver the summons at least five days prior to the trial. (2001)

(6) All Trial proceedings, including the testimony of witnesses, shall be recorded by a competent stenographer, video and/or tape recorder so that it may be preserved. (2001)

(7) Either the Trial Committee or the accused Mason may take depositions of witnesses who cannot attend the trial, provided reasonable notice of the time and place of the taking thereof is given to the other. The accused Mason and the Grand Secretary shall provide each other with copies of all known documents that are to be used at the trial at least five days prior to the trial.

(8) The Trial Committee examines the witnesses and hears the evidence adduced. It shall conduct the trial in an informal manner and is not bound by technical rules of evidence except those relating to privileged communications. The Trial Committee hears the arguments, regarding punishment in the event guilt may be found, and then proceeds with its deliberations, and ascertains the guilt or innocence of the accused Mason.

(9) The deliberations of the Trial Committee upon the guilt or innocence and fixing the punishment are secret. All deliberations must be in person and in the presence of each member of the Trial Committee. If the Trial Committee finds the accused Mason guilty, it shall fix punishment, which may be either admonition, reprimand, definite suspension, indefinite suspension, or expulsion.

However, in the event the charge is that the brother was convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude, and the Grand Master determines this to be true, then, in such event, an investigation committee is not appointed. Instead, the conviction is referred directly to the trial committee for a hearing on punishment, as hereinafter provided. Until the trial committee fixes punishment, the Grand Master may issue a suspension of the brother's Masonic rights and privileges, which will remain in effect until set aside by further action of the Grand Lodge. (2001)

(10) A majority vote of the Trial Committee upon the question of guilt and upon fixing the punishment shall be required. The report of the Trial Committee must be signed by those voting with the majority. The report is then read to the accused Mason, or, within a reasonable time thereafter, is mailed, or delivered to the accused Mason, and a copy of the report, along with a transcript of the proceedings (taped) forwarded to the office of the Grand Secretary. This reading, mailing, or delivery to the accused Mason is the pronouncement/notification of judgment. The judgment dates from the time of the pronouncement of judgment and from that date is final unless the same is reversed or modified on an appeal therefrom to the Grand Lodge. Any Mason revealing the contents of the report before the pronouncement of the judgment is subject to disciplinary action. (2001)

(C) APPEAL.

(1) The accused Mason has the right within 30 days following official pronouncement/notification to appeal to the Grand Lodge from any judgement rendered. (2001)

(2) Notice of appeal must be filed with the Grand Secretary.

(3) In the event of an appeal, it is the duty of the committee to file a complete transcript of the proceedings with the Grand Secretary at least 30 days prior to the next annual session of the Grand Lodge. The Grand Secretary thereupon shall transmit all papers pertaining to the appeal to the chairman of the Committee on Appeals of the Grand Lodge.

(4) If an appeal is taken, the accused Mason must pay all the costs and expenses of the transcript of the evidence, unless in the judgment of the Grand Master, the appealing party is unable to pay the expenses, in which event the Grand Lodge shall pay.

(5) The Committee on Appeals shall convene at a time and place selected by it, to receive and hear arguments, and sufficient time and notice must be arranged and provided so as to enable all parties to the appeal sufficient time throughout the hearing and be heard with or without counsel.

(6) The Committee on Appeals may, for good cause shown, stay the disciplinary action of the Trial Committee until the next session of the Grand Lodge.

(7) The Committee on Appeals must render a report recommending, affirming, reversing or modifying the disciplinary judgment, together with any other recommendations it may have, and present it to the Grand Lodge annual session.

(8) The final decision of any appeal rests with the Grand Lodge acting on an appropriate motion, but presentation of the appeal to the Grand Lodge shall be limited to the disciplinary judgment, the answer of the accused Mason, the report of the Committee on Appeals, any record of the oral or documentary evidence heard or received by the committee. The report shall be subject to discussion from the floor.

The decision of the Grand Lodge shall be final and no further Masonic proceedings may be had on the subject matter unless authorized by the decision of the Grand Lodge.

SECTION 5 - TERMINATION OR RESTORATION.

(A) If a Mason is suspended for a definite period of time, after expiration of one half of such period, the Brother may be restored by application to his lodge requesting the termination of his suspension. The Secretary of the Lodge shall give notice, date and time, to the Lodge membership not less than 30 days prior to the Lodge Communication when the application of the requesting Brother is to be acted upon. Upon unanimous ballot of those present at a regular communication vote in favor, the suspension is terminated.

(B) If a Mason is indefinitely suspended, after the expiration of one year, the Brother may file a written application to his lodge one month prior to a regular meeting requesting the termination of his suspension. No special notice is required to be given to the membership. Upon unanimous ballot of those present at a regular communication vote in favor, the suspension is terminated.

The petition for restoration must be received at a stated Communication, and the petition cannot be balloted upon until it has been referred to a Committee of three members of the Lodge petitioned for inquiry into the character of the petitioner. Further, one lunar month must intervene between the reception of the petition and the taking of the ballot thereon. The ballot must be unanimous in favor of the petitioner for restoration. (2010)

SECTION 6- ADMONITION, REPRIMAND WITHOUT TRIAL.

The Grand Master, with the concurrence of the Deputy Grand Master and both Grand Wardens, may issue a letter of admonition or reprimand to a Brother for unmasonic conduct. The letter shall also advise the admonished or reprimanded Brother that he has the right to appeal the action of the Grand Master to the Grand Lodge. The appeal shall be governed, as far as practical, by the provisions of Section 4 of this article.

SECTION 7 - INCONSISTENT PROVISIONS.

Any provisions of the Kentucky Code of Masonic Law inconsistent herewith are superseded.

SECTION 8 - EXCLUSIVE PROCEDURE.

(1) No Mason may be disciplined except as provided in this article.

(2) Trial-Removal of a Master

(A). On Probable Guilt—Investigation. If there be reasonable grounds for believing that the Master of a lodge has been guilty of Unmasonic conduct, the Grand Lodge or the Grand Master may remove him from office and shall furnish him with a copy of the charges and specifications or complaint against him with notice of reference thereof to the Committee on Appeals to fix a time and place for an investigation thereof, after notice to him by said Committee.

(B). Record and Finding. Said Committee shall keep a full, verified record of its proceedings, append its findings and shall recommend whether the removal to be upheld.

(C). Final Action. The Grand Master shall send a copy of the Committee's decision to the accused and to his lodge and transmit the whole record to the Grand Secretary for permanent file in his office.

(D). If the removal shall be upheld, charges may be preferred against such member, in accordance with the Trial Code & Discipline, and he may be tried as in the case of any other member. (2011)

SECTION 9 - DECISION OR EDICT.

This article may not be revised, amended or repealed by the decision or edict of the Grand Master. It can only be revised, amended or repealed as provided in The Book of Constitutions.

DIGESTACCUSED*1. Fair and Speedy Trial.

The accused must have a fair and speedy trial.

AFFILIATE—AFFILIATION2. Affiliation Without Demit.

A lodge improperly receiving an affiliate without demit, or proper, lawful evidence of non-affiliation, is not only liable for his dues, but also subjects itself to punishment except as provided under Section 151.

AID, ASSIST3. Obligation To Aid—When.

The obligation to aid and assist extends only to “Worthy Brothers, their wives, widows and orphans”. A worthy brother is one who is or who died in good standing. If he be suspended, it matters not from what cause, our obligation toward him ceases until he shall regain his good standing; and if he dies without having done so, that is the misfortune of himself and his family, and not the fault of the Fraternity. A lodge has the right to extend charity to the family of a suspended Mason, but is not under obligation to do so.

4. Request for Aid, Conditions, Penalty.

All solicitations for aid, not addressed to the lodge to which the applicant belongs, or to members thereof, that do not bear the approval of the Grand Master, are forbidden. A lodge violating this rule subjects itself to forfeiture of its charter, and a member doing so shall be disciplined by his lodge. Solicitations on behalf of The Masonic Homes of Kentucky are permitted with approval of the Grand Master of its content and timing.

5. Request Because of Loss of Property.

The Grand Master should require a lodge asking for aid on account of loss of property, to state what interest it had in such property.

6. Obligation to Aid All Needy Brothers.

It is obligatory upon all Masons everywhere to supply the necessities of a needy and worthy brother without regard to the lodge of which he is a member.

7. Attention to Members of Another Lodge Without Contract.

There is no obligation which can be enforced on any lodge to pay for articles furnished or attention given a member of another lodge, or for his funeral expenses; in absence of a request or contract therefor by the lodge which is sought to be charged.

8. Aid to Church or Other Objects.

A letter, circular, or other printed or written matter, appealing to Masons, without approval of the Grand Master, to contribute to or solicit for a church, political campaign or other object, either personally or requesting that it be read in lodge, and containing official statement that the signers are Masons, is a violation of Masonic Law.

APPEAL9. Non-members Can Not.

A non member can not appeal from the action of a lodge rejecting him.

10. Decision of Grand Master Holds Interim.

A brother can take an appeal to the Grand Lodge from the decision of the Grand Master; but pending the time intervening the hearing of this appeal, the mandate of the Grand Master must be obeyed.

ASSESSMENT11. Assessment Inalienable.

A lodge has the right to remit dues, but shall not by such remission relieve itself from liability to pay the Grand Lodge dues and assessments. These funds are inalienable.

12. Refusal to Pay Assessments.

Any member of a subordinate lodge, including "free members," except those recognized by the Grand Lodge, may be suspended for failing or refusing to pay any assessments lawfully ordered by the Grand Lodge (Constitution, Sec. 160), the same as for dues.

13. Remission of Dues Does Not Remit Assessments.

The remission of dues by the Grand Lodge does not carry with it a remission of assessments.

BALLOT14. Ballot at Called Communication.

The constitutional prohibition of balloting at called communications refers to such voting as can only be done by ballot, and not to expressing the sense of the lodge in that way on questions that may lawfully be determined by viva voice vote.

15. Election by a single Ballot.

In case there be but one nomination for any office, it would be within the usage and constitutional provision to entertain a motion that the Secretary (or a person named) be requested to cast a ballot on behalf of the lodge for the nominee, but the vote for such action must be unanimous.

BENEFITS16. Benefit System Unmasonic.

A benefit system and/or entitlements are antagonistic to the principles and spirit of Masonry.

17. Retirement Benefits

(1). ADMINISTRATION: The "Retirement Plan" of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F. & A. M., shall be managed by the "Retirement Committee" composed of the Grand Master, Chairman; the Deputy Grand Master and the Finance Committee.

(2). ELIGIBILITY FOR RETIREMENT: Any employee with ten years of continuous service may be retired on the last day of the month in which their sixty-fifth birthday occurs.

(3). DISABILITY: In event of disability before reaching retirement age an employee may apply for retirement benefits to the Retirement Committee. The Committee shall consider the case on its merits and make recommendations to the Grand Lodge for action.

(4). COMPULSORY RETIREMENT: Consistent with efficient performance of assigned duties, enforced retirement shall not occur at any age.

(5). FORMULA FOR RETIREMENT: Basis for determining retirement pay shall be as follows: On retirement the employee shall be paid for the duration of life, a sum equal to Forty-five (45%) per cent of his or her average annual basic pay in the ten (10) calendar years immediately preceding retirement.

(6). TIME AND METHOD OF PAYMENT: Retirement Plan pay shall be made on the first of each month in the amount of one-twelfth of the annual amount due.

(7). SOCIAL SECURITY: Remuneration due employees from this Retirement plan shall be independent of and in addition to any Social Security payments due.

(8). METHOD OF FINANCING: The Grand Lodge shall create a "Retirement Plan Fund", beginning with ($20,000.00) twenty thousand dollars. This amount is to be invested in Securities at maximum available interest.

Subject to the approval of the retirement committee. Ten thousand ($10,000.00) dollars is to be added to the fund annually and earnings left in the fund until it has grown to sufficient amount for the annual earnings to meet the retirement obligations.

(9). OBLIGATIONS DUE BEFORE RETIREMENT FUNDS AVAILABLE: Any obligations due retired personnel before proceeds are available from earnings of the Retirement fund shall be paid from current operation of the Grand Lodge.

(10). WILLS AND BEQUESTS: Wills and bequests and donations to the retirement fund will be welcomed.

(11). If any of the provisions of this regulation are not in conformity with The Employee Retirement Insurance Security Act of 1974, then the provisions of said act shall prevail with respect to the non-conforming portions of the regulations.

BOOKS

18. Improper Books Prohibited-Penalty for Using.

The use of improper and unauthorized books is unlawful and pernicious in it's influence. Only such books as are authorized by Grand Lodge (e.g. Trestle Board by H.B. Grant; The Kentucky Monitor, by Henry Pirtle; Th Ky Rtl and The Kentucky Ritual) are acceptable for use by its members. (2006)

BY-LAWS

19. Change of By-Laws by Committee.

It is not within the province of the Grand Lodge Committee on By-Laws to require any change of a lodge by-law that does not conflict with some law, rule or regulation of the Grand Lodge .

20. By-Laws-When Declared Void.

A Master of a lodge cannot lawfully declare a by-law or set of by laws null and void after the same has been approved by the Grand Lodge Committee on By Laws.

CALLED OFF

21. Lodge Closed on Day Opened.

A lodge cannot "call off" from one day to another, but must be closed on the same day of its opening.

22. May Call Off and Open Any Degree, but Must Close it.

A lodge duly opened on any degree can call from labor to refreshment and open in any other degree, but the lodge must be closed on each degree in which it opens. If the lodge be opened on the Master Mason degree and then closed, it cannot thereafter be opened on the same day for the purpose of conferring either the Entered Apprentice or Fellow Craft Degree.

CHARTER

23. Substitute for Charter Lost or Destroyed.

A lodge holding a certificate of its legal authority to work, in lieu of its lost or destroyed charter, is still considered a chartered lodge and possesses all the rights and privileges of such.

24. Last Charter Valid—Old One returned or Arrest Follows.

If a new charter be granted to a lodge because the old one is reported to have been lost, such action shall be equivalent to a cancellation of the old charter and render it void and of no value. In case the old charter shall subsequently be found, the Master of such lodge shall immediately return it to the Grand Secretary. On his failure or refusal to do so, the Grand Master shall arrest the charter and cite the lodge to appear at the next communication of the Grand Lodge, and show cause why its charter shall not be revoked. Provided however, upon written request the Grand Lodge may permit a lodge to retain its original or duplicate charter for historical purposes upon their surrendering same to the Grand Secretary for endorsement as a historical document and not an active charter.

25. Work in Absence of Charter Illegal—Exception.

Work done in the absence of the charter, or its equivalent certificate, is illegal, except at funerals, when the actual presence of the charter is not required. For the purpose of conducting funeral services an emergent communication of any lodge may be called at any suitable place within its jurisdiction; provided that when a lodge is so opened and closed at a place other than the regular communication place of the lodge, the officer presiding shall make full report to the Secretary for inclusion in the minutes of the next stated communication.

26. Presence of Charter.

If the charter is in the preparation or ante-room of the lodge, it is present for all practical purposes.

27. Duty of Custodian of Charter.

The Master of a Masonic lodge is the custodian of its charter and cannot delegate that authority to another. Upon him is laid the responsibility of its care, and to him the Grand Lodge looks for its preservation. As a lodge cannot be opened in the absence of its charter, it is the duty of its Master to always have that instrument in the lodge or ante-room at all communications of the lodge.

28. Revocation of Charter.

A charter can only be revoked by the Grand Lodge granting it, and a lodge can be permanently deprived of its charter only after being cited to show cause why it should not be done.

29. New Charter to Old Lodge.

The charter of a lodge destroyed and a new one granted within a year thereafter, naming the original officers of the lodge, is to all intents and purposes the same lodge under the old charter. It had not ceased to exist, only the convenient, tangible evidence of its authority to work was for a time wanting. The new charter restored authority, and no other formality is required. The officers are not to be reinstalled .

LODGE COMMITTEES

30. Committee on Investigation.

The Committee on Investigation should inquire into everything affecting the qualifications of a candidate: whether he is in possession of his physical and intellectual faculties, possess a good reputation in his community, and whether the lodge has jurisdiction over him.

31. Report of Committee on Investigation.

When a Committee on Investigation reports upon the worthiness or unworthiness of a candidate, the lodge has no right to compel it to say in what way it came to its conclusion. The report is simply the opinion of the committee.

32. Reports Prejudicial to Character of a Brother.

Reports prejudicial to the character of a brother being in circulation, it is the duty of his lodge to investigate them, whether the brother requests an investigation or not. A petition of a brother to have charges injurious to his character investigated by his lodge should most certainly be granted, and the committee should, in justice to him, make a thorough investigation and report to the lodge.

DEGREES

33. Out of Time—Penalty.

Should any subordinate lodge confer any of the degrees of Masonry out of time, and in violation of the Constitution of the Grand Lodge, the charter of said lodge may be arrested by the Grand Master.

34. Degrees at Called Communication.

The degrees may be conferred at a called communication.

35. Degrees By A Suspended Master Mason.

A degree conferred by a suspended Master Mason is illegal, and the brother receiving it must be “healed” by his lodge. A Master Mason is guilty of gross unmasonic conduct in entering a lodge and conferring a degree, if he knew he was suspended at the time, and any brother who knew him to be under suspension, if present and consenting thereto, is equally guilty.

36. Monitorial Parts of Degrees.

While parts of the degrees are monitorial, it is highly improper to exemplify the monitorial parts in public.

DEMIT, DEMITTED

37. Demit to the Unworthy.

A lodge should not grant a demit to one known to be unworthy, but should immediately prefer charges against such brother. For knowingly issuing a demit to such unworthy person, a lodge is subject to have its charter arrested.

38. To Remit Dues and Grant Demit.

A lodge has the right to remit the dues of a suspended member, restore him to membership, subject to the provisions of Sections 187 & 188 of the Constitution, and grant him a demit.

39. Entered Apprentice or Fellow Craft Demitting.

An Entered Apprentice or Fellow Craft having demitted, and being a resident of a jurisdiction where such demits are not recognized, may by consent of the lodge having jurisdiction, and regular petition to and ballot of any Kentucky lodge, be elected to membership therein, and it may then request some lodge where he resides to confer the remaining degree, or degrees, upon him. Or the Kentucky lodge may surrender any jurisdiction it may be presumed to possess, in order to quiet all possible claims upon the candidate.

IMPOSTORS40. Impostors Reported When.

It is the duty of the Secretary of all Subordinate Lodges to immediately report soliciting donation to the Grand Secretary. The fact that a person representing himself to be a member of the Fraternity, when in fact he is not, giving his name and the name of lodge to which he reports himself as belonging, and such other description of him as may be necessary to identify him.

MASONRY OR FREEMASONRY41. Masonry is Non-Sectarian, Non-Political, and must remain so.

The avoidance of political subjects in the lodge room is a cardinal principle of Masonry, and a Mason must not use his lodge connection to further his political ambition. We are taught, among the first lessons in Masonry, that it unites, upon the principle of brotherly love, men of every country, sect and opinion. Our ancient brethren wisely determined that no political or religious distinctions should ever limit its charity. It is peculiar to no country, but common to all. It recognizes no religion but that unaltering trust in God, who created the world and all things therein—The Grand Architect of the Universe—by whose unerring square the blocks we offer must at last be tried, and who will reward us according to our merits.

MASTER42. Title.

The principal officer of a lodge is Master, not Worshipful Master. The prefix “Worshipful” is a title of respect, given him by others, and not the name of his office. It is improper for the Master to sign his name “A.B., Worshipful Master.” It should be, “A.B., Master.”

43. Who is “The Master”?

The one acting as Master is clothed with the power and held to the same accountability as the regularly installed Master of the lodge—during the time he is lawfully acting as Master, and no longer.

44. Re-election of a Master Many Times.

The Constitution does not prohibit the re-election of a Master every year during his life, but serving as Master of a lodge for many years is a reflection on the lodge and on the Master himself—not a matter to boast of. If one be a capable Master, he will so instruct his Wardens and members that there will be more than one who is “worthy and well qualified” to take his place. To retain one in office and keep competent brethren from the gratification of a laudable ambition, neutralizes a proper incentive for the members to make efforts to become proficient in Masonic work and methods by placing the reward beyond their hope.

45. Who Should Not Be Chosen Master.

No lodge should elect any brother, either as Master or Warden, unless he manifest such care and zeal for Masonry as to induce the belief that he can and will qualify himself to preside according to the laws and usages of Masonry.

46. Objection to Installing the Master.

If a brother wishes to prevent the installation of the Master elect, he must do so at the proper time and in the proper place, which is in the lodge when the installing officer is about to install him; and the reasons for objecting must be in writing and be valid ones. In the absence of objection or charges, a brother elected Master (if otherwise eligible) is entitled to be installed.

47. When Installed, the Master's Authority is Complete.

When installed, the Master's authority to preside over the lodge is complete, and his acts, within the scope of that authority, are binding.

48. The Master Habitually Absent from Lodge.

A Master of a Masonic lodge cannot habitually absent himself from the communications of his lodge without violation of his oath of office, and by doing so he lays himself open to censure, and becomes liable to suspension by the Grand Master.

49. Master Requires Lodge to Obey Grand Master—When.

The Master should require his lodge to obey the mandate of the Grand Master; refusal of its members to submit to his decisions until reversed by the Grand Lodge is revolutionary, and subjects the offenders to punishment for unmasonic conduct.

50. Master Signs Minutes.

The Master must sign the minutes immediately after the same shall have been approved by the lodge.

51. Master Cannot Be Suspended for Non-Payment.

The Master cannot be suspended during his term of office for non-payment of dues or other offenses, except as provided in Sections 180 to 183 of the Constitution.

52. Master Pro Tem. Drawing Warrants.

A Master pro tem should not draw a warrant for money appropriated by the lodge, except while he is lawfully acting in such capacity.

MASTER MASON

53. Master Mason Entitled to Full Benefits.

A member of the fraternity, to receive the full benefits of the Order, viz: the right to attend the lodge in all the degrees, to vote upon petitions, to vote for officers, to hold office, to sit in the Grand Lodge, must be an affiliated Master Mason.

PAST MASTERS

54. Past Master and Past Grand Master Defined.

A Past Grand Master, or Past Master is one who has been regularly elected and installed as a Grand Master or Master of a Grand Lodge or a symbolic Lodge of Master Masons and served for the term for which he was elected. If he dies while in office, he shall be deemed to have served his term, and shall be listed as a Past Grand Master or Past Master.

TEMPORARY PRESIDING OFFICER55. Any Master Mason May Be Called To The Chair-When.

The Master, Senior Warden or Junior Warden, when presiding over a lodge, has the right to call any Master Mason to the chair and his acts are legal; provided the one so calling him to preside remains in the lodge room.

56. Past Master's Qualification to Preside.

A Past Master, to have the right (under the Const., Sec. 112) to open and preside over a lodge in the absence of the Master and Wardens, must be a Past Master of the same lodge over which he is to preside.

RITUAL1. Power to Lay Cornerstones or Dedicate Halls.

Subject to the approval of the Grand Lodge or Grand Master, a lodge may accept an invitation to lay a cornerstone or dedicate a Masonic Hall, church or public building, which work may be performed by the Grand Lodge, or by a subordinate lodge presided over by the Grand Master or his proxy, who must be an affiliated Master Mason with a Kentucky Lodge. Unless the cornerstone be laid with Masonic ceremony, a Masonic lodge should not attend as a body or in Masonic clothing.

2. Open Installation.

The officers of a lodge may be installed in open installation at the discretion of the lodge without a dispensation from the Grand Master. Also brethren are to be careful not to give the signs. (2010)

APPENDIX

A. Home Life Membership Certificates

The Masonic Widows and Orphans Home and Infirmary, was incorporated as a charitable institution by act of the Kentucky legislature on January 15, 1867. It has continued its corporate existence since that date although its Articles of Incorporation have been amended and restated from time to time.

The Old Masons' Home of Kentucky was incorporated as a charitable institution by the Commonwealth of Kentucky on October 25, 1901. Like the Masonic Widows and Orphans' home and Infirmary, it too has continued its corporate existence since that date, although its Articles of Incorporation have been amended and restated from time to time.

On February 12, 1993, the Masonic Widows and Orphans' Home and Infirmary and the Old Masons Home of Kentucky agreed on a plan of Merger, and on September 1, 1993 was incorporated by the Commonwealth of Kentucky as the Masonic Homes of Kentucky, Inc.

From its inception, the corporation has been controlled by its voting life members who elect the Board of Directors of the corporation. With the passage of time and the change in our tax laws, the corporation has further evolved into a public charity qualified under Section 501 (C) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code which qualifies contributions made to the Homes as tax deductible for federal and state income tax purposes. As a public charity, the operation of the Homes are subject to state and federal law and regulations.

The Masonic Homes of Kentucky, Inc., is a non-stock, non profit corporation. No part of the income of which can incur to the benefit of any member, director, or officer of the Homes or to any private individual organization or association not qualified under Sec. 501 (C) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Under dissolution, the assets and property of the Home must be conveyed or distributed to some other similar organization qualified under the same Internal Revenue Code section.

While Kentucky Masons as certificate holders elect the directors of the Homes, the Board of Directors has the legal authority and responsibility to oversee its affairs and operations. The corporation is a separate legal entity and subject to the internal revenue code and regulations enacted thereunder. This law requires that all funds, gifts, bequests, and devices must be used for the charitable purposes expressed in the Homes' corporate charter. No part of its income or property can inure to the benefit of any individual or for any noncharitable purposes including fraternal purposes. For this reason, the operations of the Homes are required to be conducted independently of the fraternity.

Admissions to the Homes and its policies and operations are determined by its Board of Directors through the power of the Board to adopt by-laws and make decisions at Board meetings for the government of the corporation.

Kentucky Masons may become life members of the corporation through the purchase of life membership certificates. Kentucky Lodges acquire Lodge Memberships through direct purchase. (2010)

Each Life or Lodge Membership certificate entitles the holder thereof to cast one vote per certificate in the election of directors to its Board. It is the process that has existed since the inception of the Homes that ensures that control over the corporation shall reside with the Master or other representative of such subordinate lodge of Kentucky at the annual meeting of the corporation.

When two or more lodges consolidate, the Lodge Membership certificate passes to the consolidated lodges.

B. Cowles Benevolent Fund

Whereas, Brother John H. Cowles, Past Grand Master, by his letter of October 10, 1929, presents to the Grand Lodge of Kentucky a gift of Ten Thousand ($10,000)

Dollars to create the "Cowles Benevolent Fund," for the support of its charities; said amount to be invested by the Grand Lodge, together with the income from it for a period of fifty (50) years from this date, and Whereas, It is further provided that at the expiration of the fifty year period the total amount of the fund (including principal and all income) shall remain intact and constitute the "Cowles Benevolent Fund," after which all the income derived from it, or so much as the Grand Lodge may decree, may be used in discretion of the Grand Lodge for the support of its benevolent works and charities; Now, therefore, be it Resolved, By the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, Free and Accepted Masons, that the gift of Ten Thousand ($10,000) Dollars by Brother Cowles be and it is hereby accepted upon and subject to the terms and conditions provided in said letter, as above set forth; that same be used exclusively for its benevolent works and charities. Be it further Resolved, That said sum be paid to the Grand Treasurer and be Resolved, credited by the Grand Treasurer to the "Cowles Benevolent Fund," which is hereby created, and said fund shall be kept forever separate and apart from the other funds of the Grand Lodge; and be it further Resolved, That the Grand Master, Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer be, and they are constituted and appointed Trustees of the "Cowles Benevolent Fund," and they will invest and reinvest said fund and the income therefrom from time to time, in accordance with the terms of the gift, and annually report to the Grand Lodge their action and the condition of said fund, and be it further Resolved, That the Grand Secretary be and he is hereby directed extend to Brother Cowles the most grateful thanks of the Grand Lodge for this manifestation of his generosity and fine Masonic spirit.

(Passed October 15, 1929. See also Proceedings of 1937, page 214, where Brother Cowles donated a further sum of $10,000 to this fund, and also proceedings of 1938, page 176, where he donated the further sum of $10,000 to this fund.)

Cowles Benevolent Fund

By letter dated October 10, 1929, Past Grand Master John H. Cowles transmitted $10,000 to the Grand Lodge "to create the Cowles Benevolent Fund for the support of its charities, the amount to be invested by the Grand Lodge, together with the income from it, for a period of fifty years from date. At the expiration of the fifty-year period, the total amount of the fund (principal and income) shall remain intact and constitute the fund above named, after which all the income derived from it, or so much of the income as the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F. & A.M., may decree, may be used in the discretion of the said Grand Lodge for the support of its benevolent work or charities."

By resolution the Grand Lodge accepted said fund and appointed the Grand Master, Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer as trustees thereof and to report annually to the Grand Lodge their action and the condition of said fund. (Proc. 1929, pp. 79, 80.) In 1931 the Committee on Finance recommended and the Grand Lodge approved appointment of a permanent committee of bankers who were Masons to hold and administer said fund. (Proc. 1931, p. 110). In 1933 the report of the Committee on Finance was adopted whereby the Grand Treasurer, with the advice and approval of the Grand Master, was authorized to enter into a contract with a good and solvent corporation to act as trustee for the fund and that the expense thereof, if any, be paid by the Grand Treasurer so that the gross income will remain intact in said fund. (Proc. 1933, p. 120) In 1934 a report was made by the Grand Master and Grand Treasurer that, pursuant to the foregoing authority, they had entered into a contract with the Fidelity and Columbia Trust Company, of Louisville, to hold, invest, re-invest, manage and direct said fund and to deliver the same on order of the Grand Lodge. Investments are to be in interest bearing securities eligible for investment of trust estates under the laws of Kentucky. Annually, the trustee will report the status of the fund to the Grand Master. (Proc. 1934, pp. 32, 63, 89, 90, 91, 92, 140.)

Brother Cowles died on June 18, 1954. Brother Christian F. Kleinknecht, 1733 Sixteenth Street, N.W. (The House of the Temple), Washington 9, D.C., was appointed by the court as Executor of the Cowles estate. On August 11, 1955, Brother Kleinknecht sent Grand Secretary Al. E. Orton a statement of the provisions of his will, and through his attorney, the Hon. Paul B. Cromelin, a partial payment of $3,000.00, and on February 21, 1956, the Executor, C.F. Kleinknecht turned over to Grand Secretary Al. E. Orton in person, in his office in Washington, D.C., a check for the sum of $17,599.04, payable to the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, Cowles Benevolent Fund, as final settlement of the one-fourth of his estate as provided by his will.

The two checks as above stated, a total of Twenty Thousand, Five Hundred and Ninety-nine Dollars and four cents ($20,599.04), were promptly deposited in the Cowles Benevolent Fund at the Citizens Fidelity Bank and Trust Company and receipts were mailed to S. The Grand Treasurer's report as of September 30, 1976 shows a grand total of $229,768.36 in the Cowles Benevolent Fund.

C. Feltman Property

Resolved, That an endowment fund be established through an assessment of each Kentucky Mason in the amount of one dollar ($1.00) each for a period of three years. This money will be invested in an endowment fund with the earnings of this fund to provide for the upkeep, maintenance, and service of this property. This endowment fund should be in the name of, and in the control of The Grand Lodge of Kentucky. F. & A.M. If a time should arrive when this fund is no longer needed for the purposes set forth, the same shall be placed in The Grand Lodge of Kentucky Endowment Fund (2004).

D. Assessment

Assessments Levied, Conditions.

An assessment of six dollars and fifty cents a year for each member is levied on the membership of this Grand Jurisdiction for the Grand Lodge Preservation Fund, Masonic Youth Groups and Grand Lodge Long Term Budgetary Fund and the same shall be paid to the Grand Secretary in the same manner and at the same time the annual assessments for the Grand Lodge are paid, and shall be turned over to the Grand Treasurer. Said assessment shall be divided three dollars to the Grand Lodge Preservation Fund, 50 cents to the Masonic Youth Groups and three dollars to the Grand Lodge Long Term Budgetary Fund. (2007).

Official Organ.

The Masonic Home Journal is the Official Organ of the Grand Lodge. The Journal will not be discontinued upon notice of death of a member, but shall be continued until the end of the fiscal year for which the subscription has been paid and further, that the Masonic Home Journal be sent to the widows of Past Grand Masters as long as they shall live. (2004)

George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association:

In order to keep the memory alive of our first President and masonic Brother George Washington, each Lodge shall be assessed a contribution of one dollar per year for each dues paying member and five dollars for each Master Mason raised during the year, for the benefit, upkeep, and continued legacy of the George Washington Masonic National Memorial. Said assessments to be paid to the Grand Secretary in the same manner as those noted above. (2013)

E. Freemasonry and Religion

Basic Principles. Freemasonry is not a religion, nor is it a substitute for religion. It requires of its members a belief in God as part of the obligation of every responsible adult, but advocates no sectarian faith or practice. Masonic ceremonies include prayers, both traditional and extempore, to reaffirm each individual's dependence on God and to seek divine guidance. Freemasonry is open to men of any faith, but religion may not be discussed at Masonic meetings.

The Supreme Being. Masons believe that there is one God and that people employ many different ways to seek and to express what they know of God. Masonry primarily uses the appellation, "Grand Architect of the Universe", and other non-sectarian titles, to address Deity. In this way, persons of different faiths may join together in prayer, concentrating on God, rather than differences among themselves. Masonry believes in religious freedom and that the relationship between the individual and God is personal, private and sacred.

Volume of the Sacred Law. An open volume of the Sacred Law, "The rule and guide of life," is an essential part of every Masonic meeting. The Volume of the Sacred Law in the Judeo/Christian tradition is the Bible, to Freemasons of other faiths, it is the book held holy by them. (2000)

The Oath of Freemasonry. The obligations taken by Freemasons are sworn on the Volume of the Sacred Law. They are undertakings to follow the principles of Freemasonry and to keep confidential a Freemason's means of recognition. The much discussed "penalties", judicial remnants from an earlier era, are symbolic, not literal. They refer only to the pain any honest man should feel at the thought of violating his word.

Freemasonry Compared with Religion. Freemasonry lacks the basic elements of religion:

- (A) It has no dogma or theology, no wish or means to enforce religious orthodoxy.
- (B) It offers no sacraments.
- (C) It does not claim to lead to salvation by works, by secret knowledge, or by any other means. The secrets of Freemasonry are concerned with modes of recognition, not with the means of salvation.

Freemasonry Supports Religion. Freemasonry is far from indifferent toward religion. Without interfering in religious practice, it expects each member to follow his own faith and to place his Duty to God above all other duties. Its moral teachings are acceptable to all religions.

F. Lodge of Research—How to Establish

(1) Twenty-five or more Master Masons, members in good standing of any Kentucky lodge or lodges, may petition the Grand Master for, and he may in his discretion issue, without fees and without compliance with the usual requirements prescribed for the issuance of a Dispensation under the Constitution, a Dispensation to such members to form a Lodge of Research. And a Charter may be issued, without a fee, to such a Lodge of Research upon approval by the Grand Lodge at an annual communication; also, without compliance with the usual requirements prescribed for the issuance of a Charter.

The territorial jurisdiction of such Lodge of Research when formed shall be co-extensive with the territorial jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge.

The membership shall consist of the Charter Members thereof and those Master Masons of Kentucky lodges who are later admitted by affiliation or in accordance with by-laws adopted by it.

Lodges of Research shall not be numbered.

A lodge formed hereunder may elect to honorary, contributing, or subscribing membership Master Masons in good standing in this or any other Grand Jurisdiction in Masonic affiliation with this Grand Lodge under such conditions as by its by-laws may be prescribed, which by-laws shall limit the power to vote to members belonging to Kentucky lodges only.

(2) A Lodge of Research shall be a lodge of research only and have the right, power, and authority only;

- (A) To promote within its own membership Masonic study and historical research;
 - (B) To present findings and conclusions to the lodge for discussion and interchange of judgment;
 - (C) To publish at convenient intervals proceedings or transactions containing such portions of the addresses and discussions in lodge as may be desirable to print;
 - (D) To publish new Masonic books of outstanding merit;
 - (E) To reproduce or print Masonic documents of historical importance;
 - (F) To reprint scarce Masonic books and pamphlets;
 - (G) To open and close its lodge on the Third Degree;
 - (H) To have such rights and authority as may be necessary to carry out such work.
- Any publications shall be without expense to the Grand Lodge.

For the purpose of carrying out such rights, powers and authority it may make by-laws providing for the election of its officers; for the establishment, control, and limitations of its membership; for the time and place and nature of its communications for the payment of dues and to effectuate the purposes of its organization.

Neither its designation as a lodge or its organization as such, nor the issuance of a Dispensation or a Charter shall constitute, or be construed as giving to it, or any of its officers or members, any of the Masonic honors, rights, powers, privileges, or authority possessed by a Masonic lodge or by any of its officers or members except such as are herein or may be granted by the Grand Lodge. Nor shall it or any of its members be subject to any additional duties or obligations of a Masonic lodge or a member thereof because it is a Masonic lodge, except under specific regulations or orders of the Grand Lodge or its own by-laws passed within the scope of the rights, powers, and authority granted to it by the Grand Lodge.

(3) No person shall continue to be an active member of a Lodge of Research unless he is a regular member in good standing in a subordinate lodge of Masons. And such a Lodge of Research shall at all times have at least ten members in good standing, or its Charter must be revoked by the Grand Master.

(4) The Grand Lodge reserves the right to modify or repeal this regulation, and to regulate such lodges, and to suspend or revoke its Charter for such cause as it deems sufficient. (2000)
